Welcome to Lomax4

A Special Welcome to our Guests!

We are glad to have you visiting with us today! You are welcome here. We know you have a choice of where to worship, and you chose to be with us today — thank you.

At Lomax we want to be the church we read about in the Bible. Our goal is to glorify God with our worship and with our lives and to point people to Jesus Christ.

If you need anything during the service, ushers in the lobby can direct you to restrooms, or the nursery.

Please fill out a blue attendance card located on the back of the pew in front of you or scan the QR Code to the right. If you have any questions or if we can help you, please let us know while you are here or call our church Office at (931) 796-5381.

BIBLE RESEARCH QUESTION:

Who laid his sin to “the woman whom thou gavest to be with me”?
(answer next week)

KNOW YOUR BIBLE

Boo's Belyeu

So glad we take a day to honor our Lomax Christian Day School teachers, it is a wonderful task they take upon them to teach these young ones. The preparation for school while very important does not measure to the teaching of the bible they do. Let us all give them encouragement and praise for the upcoming school year. 2nd Tim. 3:14-15 "But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it and how from childhood you have been acquainted with the sacred writings, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus."

Guess Who's Coming to Church Next Sunday!

One of the most humbling passages in the whole Bible is this one: "I tell you, I will not drink from this fruit of the vine from now on until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom" (Matthew 26:29).

Jesus told this to His disciples as He introduced them to the Lord's Supper (Matthew 26:26-29; cf. 1 Corinthians 11:17-34; pay special note to 1 Corinthians 11:23-24).

Some people have the mistaken notion that Jesus was talking about heaven when He used the phrase "in My Father's kingdom." However, the New Testament speaks of the Kingdom as already being in existence (Revelation 1:9; Colossians 1:13; 1 Thessalonians 2:12). Furthermore, in Matthew 16:16-20, Jesus used the terms "church" and "kingdom" interchangeably.

There is much more I could write about this but suffice it to say, the church is God's kingdom on earth. So, when Jesus said: "I will not drink from this fruit of the vine from now on until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom," He was speaking about being with us during our worship service in the church. What a great honor!

What would you do if your favorite TV or movie actor/singer or sports star or governmental ruler announced that he or she was going to attend our service this Sunday? Would you make it a point to attend and be attentive? How much more attention should we give when we realize that Jesus is going to be right there, with us, this Sunday, as we partake of HIS supper?

Think about it!
