HAPPY EASTER SUNDAY

We are glad you are worshiping with us today.

*"He is not here, for he has risen,
as he said. Come, see the place where he lay."
-Matthew 28:6-*

Welcome to Lomax

Special Welcome to our Guests!

We are glad to have you visiting with us today! You are welcome here. We know you have a choice of where to worship, and you chose to be with us today — thank you.

At Lomax we want to be the church we read about in the Bible. Our goal is to glorify God with our worship and with our lives and to point people to Jesus Christ.

If you need anything during the service, ushers in the lobby can direct you to restrooms, or the nursery.

Please fill out a blue attendance card located on the back of the pew in front of you or scan the QR Code to the right. If you have any questions or if we can help you, please let us know while you are here or call our church Office at (931) 796-5381.

BIBLE RESEARCH QUESTION:

Who said, "Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss"?
(answer next week)

KNOW YOUR BIBLE

Boo's Belyeu

Admittedly I never gave much thought to Easter eggs symbolizing something spiritual. The tradition of Easter egg hunting began in Germany around the 17th century Martin Luther organized an egg hunt for his congregation. It is said to have mirrored the way the women found Jesus empty tomb. Yes, it is a stretch for me too. The Easter bunny is also linked to Germany, while in the United States the Pennsylvania Dutch took it further with the Easter bunny to have laid eggs for children to find. Ok, whatever, as they say. I'm happy, no thrilled so many people think of Jesus on Easter. We have this day recognized for the incredible gift he gave. I hope you have a great day with family and friends and maybe even hunting Easter eggs, but I hope more than this one day you start a commitment to the one who gave it all. His very life for you.

Gal. 1:4 "who gave himself for our sins to deliver us from the present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father,"

What We Have in Christ

In Christ we have:

- A love that can never be fathomed;
- A life that can never die;
- A righteousness that can never be tarnished;
- A peace that can never be understood;
- A rest that can never be disturbed;
- A joy that can never be diminished;
- A hope that can never be disappointed;
- A glory that can never be clouded;
- A light that can never be darkened;
- A happiness that can never be interrupted;
- A strength that can never be enfeebled;
- A purity that can never be defiled;
- A beauty that can never be marred;
- A wisdom that can never be baffled;
- Resources that can never be exhausted;
- And heaven that can never be ended.
