POWER FOR TODAY

Jon Hackett
Pulpit Minister

Just the Bible?

Have you ever thought, “Are there any churches that use just the Bible?”

We are trying.

When you visit us, you will not find a creed book. You will not find a set of written rules or traditions that must be obeyed. We have no earthly headquarters, no earthly president, and no board of directors. Our goal is to be guided by the Bible, and the Bible alone.

While God once communicated to man through lots of people in lots of different ways, God “has in these last days spoken to us by His Son” (Hebrews 1:1-2). We will be set apart by the truth of God’s Word (John 17:17), and that truth will make us free (John 8:32).

We will be judged by the words of Jesus (John 12:48) and the words of the Bible writers He promised to inspire (John 14:26). Those writers were guided into all truth (John 16:13) and delivered the faith once and for all (Jude 1:3).

The Bible completely equips us (2 Timothy 3:16-17), and it contains “all things that pertain to life and godliness” (2 Peter 1:3). If the Bible is all we need (and it is), then why would we use anything else?

God does not want us to add to His verses nor to take away from them (Deuteronomy 4:2; Galatians 1:6-9), so we try to preach “the whole counsel of God” (Acts 20:27).

“Are there any churches that use just the Bible?”

Come and see.

Welcome to Lomax

Special Welcome to our Guests!

We are glad to have you visiting with us today! You are welcome here. We know you have a choice of where to worship, and you chose to be with us today — thank you.

At Lomax we want to be the church we read about in the Bible. Our goal is to glorify God with our worship and with our lives and to point people to Jesus Christ.

If you need anything during the service, ushers in the lobby can direct you to restrooms, or the nursery.

Please fill out a blue attendance card located on the back of the pew in front of you or scan the QR Code to the right. If you have any questions or if we can help you, please let us know while you are here or call our church Office at (931) 796-5381.

KNOW YOUR BIBLE

Boo's Belyeu

March 23rd, 1839, for the first time "OK" was published in print the Boston Morning Post. Think about how much we use this little expression. Can you do this? OK. Are you OK? Will you marry me? OK. It can be very powerful, therefore be careful how you throw it out. I won't go into the slang, but in short it means "All Correct."

So, do you want to be a Christian? Can you say, OK, All Correct?

The Best Investment

There is an old saying I used to hear. It is: "a rooster one day and a feather dust-er the next."

This is a Texas way of saying that you shouldn't "crow like a rooster" (boast) about what you have, because it could all disappear tomorrow.

This reminds me of Proverbs 23:5 – "In the blink of an eye wealth disappears, for it will sprout wings and fly away like an eagle" (NLT).

Wealth and possessions can be fleeting. You work hard and save but then unexpected expenses occur, and you find yourself broke and trying to figure out how you're going to pay the water bill.

Jesus taught us about riches that never fail. These are the things we do for others and God. These are eternal riches (Luke 12:33-34). And we should understand that our Heavenly Father will provide what we need (Matthew 6:31-33).

So, let us not put our hope in our wealth but put our hope in God who provides for us (1 Timothy 6:17).
