

La Crosse middle school wins annual environmental award

4/21/2026

Longfellow Middle School's outdoor club was one of the nine organizations honored for outstanding sustainability work on April 19.

Faculty of the La Crosse area school accepted the award at the annual gala hosted by environmental nonprofit Sustainable Driftless, Inc. for their work creating and running the school's Outdoor Adventure Club, a club that makes it easier for students to engage with the outdoors.