DE LUZ—(Day-looz) Spanish: Of light. The original name was El Corral de Luz, the Corral of Luz, a Spanish corruption of the name of an Englishman, Luce, who built a corral here. In range 4 west, township 9 south, southwest of Fallbrook. The old De Luz is a few miles west of the new De Luz station on the branch line of the A.T. & S.F. railroad. This station has become quite famous because of the claim it has the smallest postoffice in the world.

DE LUZ CREEK—With its source in the Santa Rosa mountains of Riverside county, this stream joins the Santa Margarita river at De Luz station. There is an abandoned copper mine at the intersection of De Luz and San Mateo canyons.
