

Stockton was about $3,000.

A San Francisco mining man named Armstrong has bonded the Constanzia mine at De Luz, near Fallbrook, owned by John H. Fahrenkrug and August Reuter. He will work the mine for eighteen months, paying the owners 25 per cent of the proceeds, and at the end of that time will have the privilege of purchasing it for $6,000.

A Christian Endeavor rally was held