

seen here.

E. Goodin of De Luz was down Wednesday and presented C. F. Elliott with a forefoot of a mountain lion he had killed a few days before, says the Oceanside Blade. He was on his way home just after dark, when the cat gave a growl near him and sprang up a tree from whence he brought it down without delay with his rifle. It measured seven feet from tip to tip.

The Kentucky Fight.