

General—Bad road conditions, reports the Département of Fish and Game, stopped trout plants during the week. However, Doane Pond, Santa Margarita river and Green Valley Falls planted with trout last week, and DFG says areas lightly fished since. . . . Here's the most direct route off Hwy. 395 to Santa Margarita trout: Take Fallbrook road (Mission Rd., it's marked) west for 2 to 2½ miles to Willow Glen Rd. entering from right. Willow Glen Rd. runs to river. Fish are planted, according to warden Capt. John Roumasset, two miles upstream and a mile downstream from point closest road. . . . From Fallbrook area, go north on DeLuz Rd. to a point where it crosses river. Fish upstream. . . . Utah judges that 94 elk were killed illegally during the 1961 hunting season—and, of these, only 26
