

WEDNESDAYS
6-7 PM EST VIA ZOOM

BIRTHWRITE

(Re)claiming Embodied Birth
& Postpartum* Healing
through Integrative
Narrative Medicine and
Somatic Abolitionism
Practices

At Birthwrite, postpartum is defined as the three (3) years following any pregnancy, inclusive of all pregnancy outcomes, including those that did not result in a live birth.

Birthwrite is a collaborative workshop series that centers connecting with your body through narrative expression and movement. This program can be used to prepare for labor and/or postpartum healing.

Requirements:

This workshop series is open to:

- People who identify as BIPOC women/birthing people
- Currently pregnant and/or postpartum*

This is a FREE, bi-weekly, hands-on program currently accepting new cohort members. We host both in-person and remote participation options. Applications close on January 14, 2025 at 11:59pm.

Hosted by:

Miniya Williams,
Founder & Facilitator, The Birthwrite Initiative
Learn more at www.mindbodysoulstice.com

What You Will Receive:

- Free Somatic Narrative Medicine Workshops
- Guided Reflective Writing Sessions
- Ancestral Movement Practices
- Community-centered embodiment work
- An In-person Community Gathering (food provided)
- Ancestral Foods and Plant Medicine

Register HERE

Questions?

mibirthwrite@gmail.com