The Toolkit: Practical Strategies for Order

Name: _____

MODULE 3

"Order is the quiet companion of generosity."

1. THE WEEKLY REVIEW (THE "PASTORAL PAUSE")

Take 3 minutes to look at the week ahead and answer these three framing questions:

- Gratitude: What is one blessing from last week I want to carry into this one?

- Priority: If I could only accomplish three things this week to feel faithful to my calling, what would they be?

1. _____ 2. _____ 3. _____

- Protection: Which "Important but Not Urgent" task (e.g., exercise, prayer, a phone call to a parent) needs a specific time slot to survive?

2. TIME BLOCKING VS. TO-DO LISTS

TIME BLOCKING VS. TO-DO LISTS

To-Do List: A list of things I hope to do. (High anxiety, low clarity).

- Time Block: A commitment of when I will do them. (Low anxiety, high clarity).
- Identify your "Deep Work" Window: When is your brain most alert and your spirit most quiet? (e.g., 6:00 AM – 8:00 AM or 10:00 AM – 12:00 PM).

My Peak Energy Window is:

3. ENERGY MAPPING

ENERGY MAPPING

Match your tasks to your energy levels:

- High Energy (Analytical/Creative):

- Low Energy (Admin/Chores/Emails):

- Restorative (Relational/Spiritual):

4. WORKSHOP: THE "IDEAL WEEK" DRAFT

THE "IDEAL WEEK" DRAFT

Using your calendar template, "box in" your week using this priority sequence:

1. Sleep & Health: (Ensure 7–8 hours are protected).
2. Spiritual Anchors: (Sabbath, daily devotions).
3. Work/School: (The "Deep Work" blocks).
4. Flex Space: (Leave at least 15% of your day "empty" for interruptions/grace).

5. Reflection

What is one thing you currently do during your peak energy time that could be moved to a low energy time to free up space for "Excellent" work?
