

AUGUST MINIMAG HIGHLIGHTS

Girl Power Go!

When the going gets tough, the girls get going! This Women's Day line-up is action and superhero packed with Girl Power Go! From a crazy girl's night out with Starfire and Raven in Teen Titans Go! to your favourite sisterhood DC Super Hero Girls tracking a mysterious warrior, powerful women are the stars of the channel. But great powers don't only come from super abilities. In The Amazing World of Gumball, Anais must face her bully and in Craig of the Creek, Kelsea faces a terrifying quest. Will they stand up to difficulty and danger? Also stay tuned for the great finale with the Lego DC Super Hero Girls: Super-Villain High movie, where the girls discover a new high school for supervillains and must rescue the students from their own fate! Ready, steady and go for this stunt full of punchy pep talk for girls, only on Cartoon Network Africa.

Big Blue

There are brand-new episodes of great big fun in Big Blue, waiting for you, and just like the theme song says, "down, deep down ... gonna get to the bottom of it!" In August you'll dive into escapades that find The Calypso Crew following their motto of teamwork to win the dance off against the reigning champions. You can tag along with them on a secret mission to ensure that superstar, Lea gets to her concert. In this non-stop season of the series, you also get to visit some funny shores when the quirky submarine crew think that Lettie is not fun enough and she asks Captain Tubular to teach her how to become a Fun-Captain. There is always undersea exploration galore in store for you with this group of humans and Fin Folk, all with explosive personalities and all packed into one teeny, tiny underwater ship.

Hotel Transylvania 2

There've been some big changes at Hotel Transylvania since our last visit. The doors have been thrown open and humans can now not only check in but can check out again! Drac's draconian ways have eased up, softened by his all too human grandson, Dennis. But without vampire fangs pushing through or any monster form finding its way to the bouncy boy yet, Drac is secretly worried. He takes his chance to show the little maybe-monster how to be scary when his mama, Mavis, heads into human town to visit her very human in-laws. Take in this treat of a monster bootcamp movie on Cartoon Network, complete with laugh out loud characters including Blobby who is full of wobbly slime!

The Angry Birds Movie

Catch this movie because it is all the rage (lol). There's a lot of wondering about eggs too in it but besides that, In The Angry Birds Movie, we'll finally find out why the birds are so angry. The story takes us to an island populated by happy, flightless birds – all but one bird, Red, who has anger issues. His annoyance at pretty much everything is adult-level humour and in anger management class he meets other misfits, speedy Chuck and volatile Bomb. In this “keep calm and chirp-on” paradise, nothing goes too much off plan – even when the green pigs pull into the island with covert plans of their own. So, while Red never fitted in since he was a young chirp of a feather with bolshy eyebrows, now only he can see the whole world is in danger from the secretive swines.

Dino Ranch!

Head down to the Dino Ranch and shout your loudest “howdy!” to the Cassidy family, where there’s never-stop work to be done to keep your favourite dinosaur sanctuary spick and span. Follow Clover, the young brontosaurus, as he learns the value of his work as dino doctor, Rebel a baby stegosaur who struggles to fit in with her peers, and the Ranchers who protect their homestead and dino friends from troublesome prospectors, on new exciting adventures! One of his great lessons in August’s line-up is that even though he's not yet strong enough to be a barn builder like his grandpa, his job on the Ranch is just as important. If you happen to be driving your wagon out west, be sure to swing on over to Boomerang where you’ll find yourself all kinds of wonders.

Premier: Monday 01/08

Legends of Spark

He may work as a repair car, but Spark has a pacey dream to become a Blaster Racer. He’s the town’s most optimistic fellow on four wheels and one day, when he discovers a “launcher” his starting position gets stronger. He puts pedal to the metal and gets training with his eyes on winning the big cup. Our wheel spinning hero is bustling busy in August. You must join in the celebrations for his birthday! You’ll also be needed because Flash goes missing and there’s a big panic when the repair shop receives a mysterious package that appears to be a ticking time bomb. There’s also a race down an unknown foggy track to tag along on but beware because the fog sends Harry back to the past. What will Spark do? Start your engines and find out!

Zig & Sharko – Marathon Special on Marina

Melodious Marina, the mermaid with the merry laugh, is singing in the spotlight this Women's Day. Boomerang brings you a special two-day Zig & Sharko marathon full of her playful swim and dance stories. There are 22 episodes of sheer entertainment. In King Neptune's Court you'll catch King Neptune as he cannot catch himself and falls head over fins in love with Marina. To Sharko, there is no way that the Don Juan of the seas is going to hang around his beloved mermaid! Marina may also get into a spot of trouble when she is fished up and taken to an aquatic zoo. Will Sharko and Zig join forces to save her and bring her back home? And being the well-intentioned mermaid we love, she may well turn Zig and Bernie around from being her captors to taking care of them in A Generous Mermaid. Make time for this Marina magic marathon!
