For as long as folks can remember, zookeepers have been telling tall tales about the greatest tiger zookeeper ever known

JOE EXOTIC

How many steaks can you find on this page?

Baby Joe

Born Joseph Schreibvogel in 1963, Joe Exotic purchased a pet store in Texas in 1989 with his brother, Gerald Wayne, inspired by their shared love of animals. After Gerald died from injuries sustained in a car crash in 1997, Joe Exotic used the money from a settlement won by his family to buy a ranch in Wynnewood, OK, and turned it into a zoo dedicated to his brother's memory.

Find the tiger that's different

Windsong

Carole and Don (the husband who later mysteriously disappeared) left their spouses and married each other in 1991. Soon after, they bought their first bobcat, Windsong, at an auction.

Joe Exotic and Carole Baskin
The feud between Joe Exotic and Baskin came when Baskin tried to put Joe Exotic out of business, including asking her fanbase to send mass emails to venues where he took his animal tours, asking them to stop hosting his shows. Joe Exotic, who viewed Baskin as a hypocrite for also making money off of exotic animals through her sanctuary, retaliated in several ways.

Joe Exotic
As the G.W. Zoo grew in popularity in the early 2000s, Joe Exotic became something of a local celebrity. To keep the zoo running, he continued to breed animals to keep up a constant supply of tiger cubs, and he took his exotic pets on tours, charging people for photo ops. Because he bred tigers, Joe Exotic also became a target of animal rights activists, who accused him of animal abuse, among other concerns.

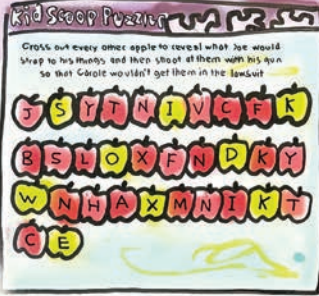

REWPOH

Joe's target practice mixed up the letters. Unscramble them to reveal the name of a tasty burger.

Carole Baskin
Baskin is founder and CEO of Big Cat Rescue in Tampa. She often wears tiger or cheetah print clothes (she is a cat freak). Also worth mentioning is that her answers (especially those regarding her husband's disappearance) always seem scripted and rehearsed, and her tears and laughs seem fake.

Extra Extra
Create Tall Tale
The fun of a tall tale, like Tiger King, is that the story gets a little taller and more outrageous with each telling. Find a story in the newspaper and start adding silly outrageous words to it to create a new tall tale.

FROM THE KID SCOOB LESSON LIBRARY
Action Language
Read today's newspaper and highlight each of the following examples of active writing:
• A sentence that commands or directs action
• One or more exciting verbs
• The shortest sentence you can find

Write On!
All About Baskin
Write about your favorite Carole Baskin memory for a chance to win an ice cream party with her.

3 Tips

for safe successful tiger feeding

Feed plentifully. When in doubt, feed more.

Do not cuss the tigers out or call them names.

Kid Scoo-doku

Complete the grid by using all the letters in the word TIGER in each vertical and horizontal row. Each letter should only be used once in each row. Some spaces have been filled in for you.
