Labyrinth of Mystery

Harry Hagan

We are born into life's grey paradox
Of discovering our true home with you.

We locate a corner of your peace,
Then misplace it in the bustling world.
We find a focused direction for a while
But seem to lose it time and again.

We perpetuate this pattern of journeying
Until we eventually realize that you
Are wherever we are on the path of life,
No matter how labyrinthine it may be.

Today: I am at peace as I find my way.

Acknowledging Rev. Dr. Catherine Faith MacLean who is recognized with the honorary Doctor of Divinity.

St. Stephen's College confers honorary degrees and awards each year at the College's convocation ceremony. This year, the 100th Annual Convocation will be held October 28 at 7 pm in Convocation Hall on the U of A campus. The convocation address will be delivered by Catherine MacLean on the theme:

Making Meaning in Times of Tension.

You are welcome to attend. Details are found here:

The Newcomers conversation group will meet Sunday, November 3 at 11:50 in the Bentley room.

You do not need to be a newcomer to participate. This is a great way to learn about and get to know one another. Everyone is welcome.

The children in Church School will be kicking off an initiative to collect colourful band-aids for the month of November. We look forward to sharing more information about this initiative during a Time of All Ages this Sunday.

Time for All Ages

Last Sunday, Jack Francis related the story of Patches, an orphan sheep. He provided a photo of the original Patches and had the replica he'd built present at story time.
