Please answer the following questions to the best of your ability; your answers will assist me in better understanding your particular case. Any questions left unanswered will remain as questions upon your child's intake interview; therefore, please do your best. If you feel that any question is too personal, then you may inform me more about it when you come in, or choose not to divulge the information at all. I can only help to the degree that I may understand your particular case. This questionnaire will be treated as personal, confidential, protected information.
