

DUE PROCESS

INSTITUTE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Washington, D.C.—Shana-Tara O’Toole, Founder and President of Due Process Institute and Clause 40 Foundation, provided the following statement:

“On behalf of everyone at Due Process Institute and Clause 40 Foundation, I want to express our profound sadness at the passing of Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg.

Before she ascended to the High Court, she was a trailblazing civil rights lawyer and appellate court judge. After her elevation to the Supremes, Justice Ginsburg became the leading light of the liberal wing of the Court and an icon to generations of progressive lawyers and activists.

The coming days and weeks before the presidential election will undoubtedly fuel partisan rancor to extreme levels as the nomination fight looms. But right now, in this moment, members of both parties should join the American people in mourning the loss of such a remarkable woman and jurist.

Requiescat in pace, Justice Ginsburg.”

Due Process Institute and Clause 40 Foundation work to honor, preserve, and restore principles of fairness in our criminal legal system.
