Weekly Roundup!

Your guide to the best country music, partner and line dance, and country venues in Saint Louis and across the U.S.

Featured Venue of the Week

Silo Point at Brookdale Farms, Eureka, MO

Every Tuesday night, Silo Point transforms into Eureka's most boot-stompin', beat-thumpin' country dance floor with Stacey Swartz leading line dance lessons for all levels, from first-timers to seasoned two-steppers .

This week we visited Silo Point at Brookdale Farms in Eureka, MO, and let me tell you—it's not just for weddings! While the venue is stunning for private events, it also opens its doors for some of the best country music and line dancing nights in the St. Louis area. It's a perfect blend of industrial chic and boot-scootin' fun. Here is what made it special.

Why Go?

Silo Point offers a unique "industrial farm" setting that stands out from typical dance halls. It provides a spacious, climate-controlled environment where country music lovers can gather. The atmosphere is welcoming and energetic, ideal for seasoned dancers and beginners alike. It's the perfect spot to practice your moves, learn new steps, and enjoy a vibrant country community.

What to Expect

- Country Nights Line Dancing: The primary event is "Country Nights Line Dancing," held every Tuesday from 6:30 PM to 9:00 PM. An expert instructor leads the session, making it accessible for all experience levels. This is an 18+ event.
- Dance Lessons: Each line dancing night features lessons led by a skilled and fun instructor, Stacey Schwartz, who is noted for taking time to help beginners and keeping the advanced dancers moving.
- Flexible Schedule & Age Limits: Beyond Tuesdays, the venue occasionally hosts special events like the "Goin' Country Pop-Up Bar". The upcoming pop-up on Friday, November 21, 2025, is a 21+ only event.
- Amenities: Adult beverages are available for purchase. While food isn't sold on Tuesday events, you are welcome to bring your own snacks. During the pop-up Friday events not only will drinks be available but your favorite food truck items will be available for purchase. The venue features indoor restrooms and is fully wheelchair accessible.

My favorite moment

Watching dancers of all skill levels, from beginners learning the basics with Stacey to experienced folks leading the way, all moving in rhythm to the music. The energy is fantastic and highlights the supportive, inclusive community that gathers here every Tuesday night.

Insider tips

- Cost: Tuesday night entry is only $7 per guest (18+ event), making it an affordable mid-week outing.
- Age Verification: Be prepared with ID, as the age limits are strictly enforced (18+ on Tuesdays, 21+ for the upcoming Friday pop-up).
- What to Bring: Cash and credit cards are accepted for admission and drinks. Feel free to bring your own food, as none is sold on-site.
- Check the Calendar: While Tuesdays are consistent, always check their website or social media for those occasional Friday night pop-up bar events or seasonal changes.

Did You Know?

- "Country Nights Line Dancing" moved to the Silo Point venue for 2025, offering a beautiful new setting for dancers.
- Local instructor Stacey Schwartz hosts weekly line dancing lessons at Brookdale Farms.
- For those who want to focus solely on the adult experience, the special "Goin' Country Pop-Up Bar" events are specifically 21+ only.

Country Music Spotlight

Artist of the Week: Tucker Wetmore

This week's national artist to keep on your radar is Tucker Wetmore. This Washington native has had a meteoric rise over the past year, transitioning from a newcomer to a chart-topping sensation at warp speed. Check out his latest tracks, such as "Wind Up Missin' You" → https://youtu.be/eAwVv5gl6Rk?si=W6BH7sUwBMW0_5-a

Local Artist/Group of the Week: Molly Lovette

Molly Lovette is one local and upcoming artist to watch and you'll be able to see her live at Ballpark Village's Crown Hall Stage the 29th of this month.

St. Louis area fans can catch Molly Lovette commanding the stage with high-energy charisma, effortlessly blending heartfelt southern charm with powerful, rock-infused vocals. Check out her single track: "Birthday Hangover" →

Boots were moving at last week's Cowboy Corner Reunion line dance night, hosted at Main Streety Honky Tonk in Saint Charles, MO.

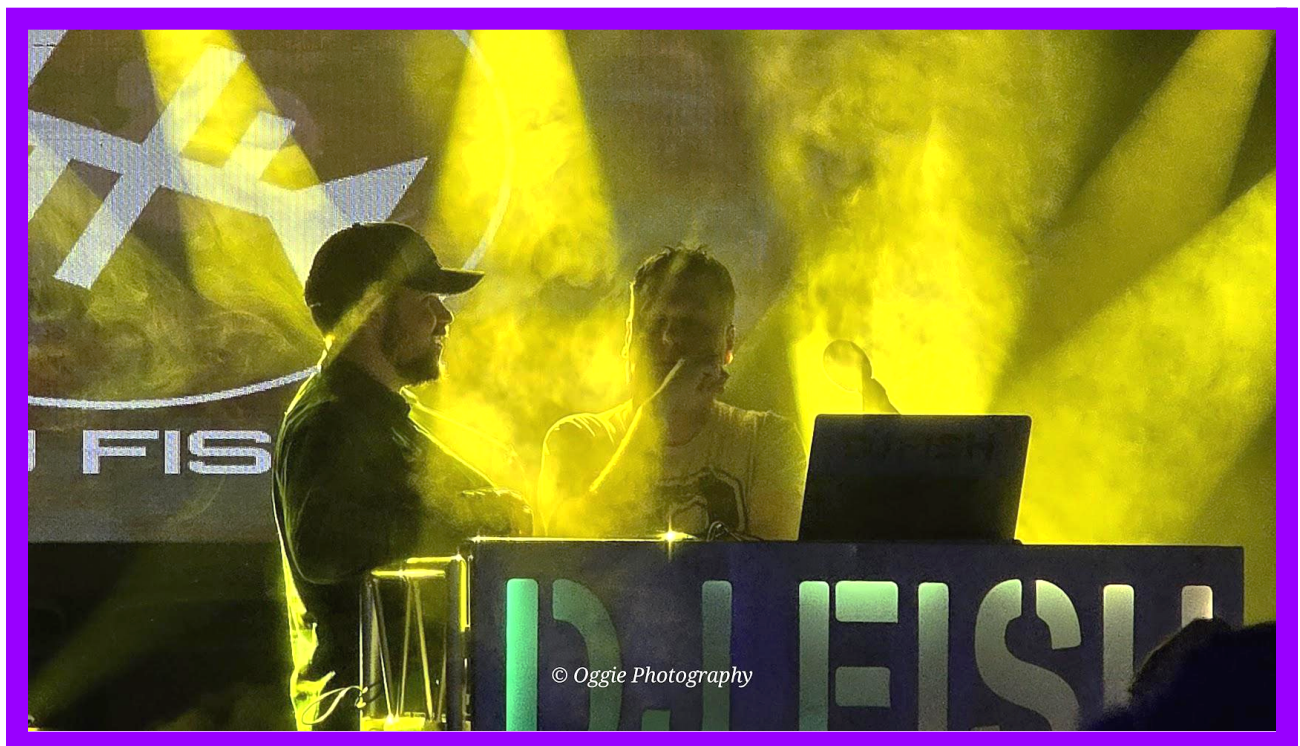

Community Corner

A massive shoutout this week goes out to DJ “Fish” of Jimmy Fish Productions!

In my opinion, DJ Fish is the best country and dancing music, DJ in the entire St. Louis region. He goes above and beyond to curate the perfect mix of classic country and modern hits, keeping the floor packed and the energy high all night long. His dedication to the local country music and dance scene is unmatched, and his followers—a ton of line dancers!—are sure to follow him wherever he plays.

He's been at the top of my list ever since he first began spinning the dance tunes at the former Diamond Music Hall, and you'll surely see his followers, and me (the author/dancer too!), heading to his next dance event.

All the dancers love this guy; he is an expert when it comes to dance music and has the voice to back it up!
