Any time to sit down and talk today

Sure. I would need to be home before 1:00 to take Jackson to his game today

Working this morning how about this evening

I have to take Jackson from 2- probably 6 down at bay shore mall. What time are you thinking ??

Don't really care just need to talk have a lot of struggles in my life going on right now

Jennifer is out this morning. Let me check in with her but for now let's target 7:00

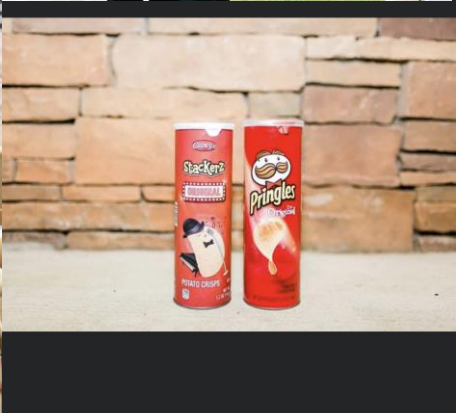

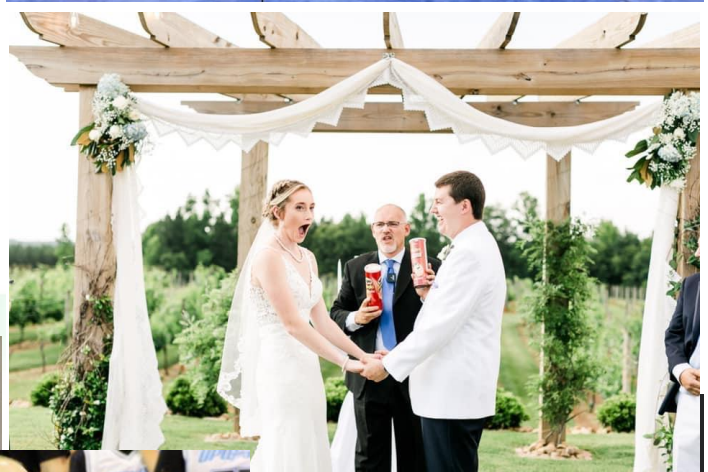

Cool. Let me know

Hey - You have been on my heart over the last few days— thought I'd follow Gods prompts to check in... how are you rolling these days ?

AUG 13 AT 10:40 AM

That's very cool of you Joe, life has been harder than ever these days. Been trying to change a lot about myself recently.

How about you?

AUG 13 AT 11:11 AM

I've been keeping my head and my heart aimed in the right direction as best I can 😊 our world is crazy and life is always complicated and unpredictable.

It looks like God has you on my heart for good reason. I am happy to be a sounding board in person or via text messages(whatever you are more comfortable with) and if you just want to know that you matter to God and me...well I think the nudge on my heart puts that to rest 😊 and keep pursuing

This is a meme I make 8 years ago today(apparently ) thanks to Facebook for the memory. :)

Wow, starting to see some signs

Sorry for getting emotional last night, it's been pouring out recently. I've been holding too much in for too long Emotions are great. :) Men are told to conceal emotions but that just ends up hurting us in the end. Sure I mentioned that I process those feeling differently because I have to carry weight of family etc.

Example. Car got damaged by lovely

Wow. So excited to see this photo. Equally I was so thankful to see how cleaned up things were. I was able to get in and out after loading the cooler :). THANK YOU BRANDON AND CARLY !!!! Today would've been a poop-fest without you ;)

Aww, thanks! We are just so lucky to have such a roll model coach. You make things easy for us to do and show us how to be better versions of ourselves. Thank you for mentoring us!

wow. That's hits my heart

No. She had plans both days and we weren't able to change them.

She has been asking how to fix her technique for setting. And she has been working on her serve every night.

How much would it take on the side for you to coach again next year?

Haha I am not sure what's going to happen this coming season. I am not at all surprised Kayla is working on getting better. I just love her competitive nature. I may have some gym access this week. I have been doing a lot of private coaching as I firm up the schedule and gym access I will shoot you some times etc. if they work great and if not we will try again after my vacation 8/6-8/14

Kayla made the "A" team for Muskego warriors this year. A lot of it had to do with you. Thanks again.

SOME CHAMPIONSHIPS DO GET TO BE IN THE RAFTERS...

WISCONSIN VOLLEYBALL CAMP
TEAM CAMP – MONONA GROVE (WI)

I had a little fun with my team yesterday. We have had a great season so far. Highlighted by Badger Region Championship 1st place Open Gold 😊

My message : we can look at our success like the iceberg above the waterline or we can dig in - suit up and see what the rest of the iceberg has to offer us. I am ready to hit the 2022-23

Your ask of me was to “prepare a Presentation of Self that highlights you as a person, leader, and professional.”

As a husband, I regularly coach my wife of 29 years through challenges and celebrate her amazing accomplishments.

As a father, I coach my children to pursue their desires, through competitive self-driven challenges and help them quiet their own doubts and fears to enable them to accomplish what is possible for their own ability and commitment

As a mortgage professional, I coach my clients, employees, peers and stakeholders to understand the process and financial outcomes for the decisions and opportunities.

As a community leader, I coach people that God has placed along my path to consider God’s plan for them and His love for them as imperfect people in pursuit of being made in His image.

As a volleyball coach, I coach the players under my care, the fellow coaches on my staff, and the various other stakeholders to define for themselves what is possible given what they are committed to pursue.

Getting to know your athletes is critical. You need to know what motivates them. Your job is to help them get to where they want to go. It’s all about that.

It’s not about what my goals are...at all. You, as the coach, need to understand what their goals are and try to help them get to where they want to go.
