Former State Senator Phil Boyle has served the Bay Shore/Brightwaters community for over 24 years, beginning his service in the NYS Assembly in 1994 through his tenure as our NYS Senator in 2022. During his years in public service, Phil's office was located on Main Street in Bay Shore. He always supported our community, whether through NYS grant funding to support our local parks, advocating for improvements to our state roadways, assisting local residents with issues and concerns, etc.

Currently Phil is the President and CEO of Suffolk County OTB.

Under Phil's leadership, SC OTB continues to fund local community organizations.

Phil is a volunteer fireman and a member of Div 7 Ancient Order of Hibernians.
