John Vincent Beggs Jr.

March 2, 1930 – February 14, 2009

Mr. Beggs was a member of our community. He was raised on a family farm and obtained a Business Administration degree from Illinois Wesleyan in 1952. He served in the U.S. Air Force and had a career at State Farm Insurance Company. At his retirement from State Farm in 1989, he was supervising approximately $40 billion worth of investments for the company. Vincent Beggs also served on the Illinois Wesleyan University's Board for several years and in 1999 first served on the Board's Farm Committee. He began chairing the Farm Committee in 2003.

Mr. Beggs was proud of his agrarian roots. He had a deep appreciation of the land and the opportunities that owning land provides. In 1987, after a successful career, he bought his first farm near Beason, Illinois. He was a strong proponent of conservation tillage, believing it was important to preserve and improve the soil for future generations. He also encouraged conservation tillage on both his farm and the Wesleyan University farms.

Additionally, Mr. Beggs cared about future generations and helping mankind. After his death nearly his entire estate was donated to various groups in the local area for the benefit of mankind at large as there were no immediate heirs. His land was donated to Illinois Wesleyan University and the remainder of the estate was primarily divided between several area colleges and high schools, including Clinton High School.

It was Mr. Beggs' desire to provide a scholarship to students who would be attending a vocational/technical school, junior college, academic college or university after graduation from Clinton High School. It was Mr. Beggs' intention for the scholarship to be awarded to those students who have demonstrated academic performance, but it is not necessarily limited to the top performers. The scholarship may be given to a student that as Mr. Beggs stated, "is a bit off the top". Recipients are also to be of good moral character and have a financial need.

It is the Clinton Community Educational Foundation's honor and privilege to be entrusted with this gift from Mr. Beggs. Mr. Beggs' gift is not just a gift of money, but rather it is a living legacy. It is a way to pass along to future generations that which he found important. It is a way to invest in people, the benefits of which will be reaped for years. On behalf of Mr. Beggs, the Foundation would like to wish you success in the future.
