

Background and Consumer Report Disclosure

This disclosure is provided as a standalone document. Pathfinder Private Rides LLC d/b/a HUM Private Transportation may obtain a consumer report about you for purposes related to considering you for an independent driver relationship and, if you are approved, evaluating or continuing that relationship as described below.

Types of information that may be reported

A report may include identity and address verification, criminal and public records where legally permitted, driving history and motor vehicle records, prior work or engagement history, and other information allowed by law and relevant to the proposed driving services. A credit or financial history report will be requested only if you separately initial the credit authorization below and only when applicable law permits its use for this purpose.

Authorization

I authorize Pathfinder Private Rides LLC d/b/a HUM Private Transportation to obtain consumer reports about me from a consumer reporting agency for evaluating my application for an independent driver relationship. If I separately initial the continuing-report authorization, I also authorize reports during the relationship for safety, eligibility, or continued assignment decisions, as allowed by law. This authorization does not waive my rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act or other applicable law. I may request additional information about the nature and scope of an investigative consumer report, if one is requested.
