Shoreline Farmers Market Impact

In 2021, the market had 25k customers that spent 502K, stimulating the economy and supporting local business owners.

The market partners with local food bank, Hopelink, to donate 3,500 pounds of fresh food each season.

Over $37,000 is spent at the market using Food Access Programs.

Many vendors have sold at the market since opening day and continue to return each year.

The market provides free space for local nonprofit organizations to connect with the community. Orgs include KCLS Bookmobile, Shoreline Senior Center, DSHS Mobile Community Services Office, SLFP Arts Council, and more.

It takes over 1000 volunteer hours to run a successful farmers market. Many of our volunteers have been at the market since opening day in 2011.
