Biovision Clinical Solutions LLC is not a manufacturer of personal protective equipment (PPE). Biovision is working to connect those in need of PPE to suppliers who have inventory to sell. Biovision itself does not manufacture, produce, import, export, store, transport, or deliver PPE. In addition, Biovision has not inspected or certified any manufacturers' products. Our goal is to facilitate transactions between those who have inventory and those in need. Please be aware that any transaction(s) involving the purchase and sale of PPE will take place directly between the purchaser and either the manufacturer or Biovision. We strongly encourage all purchasers of PPE to conduct their own due diligence regarding any manufacturer or distributor with whom they do business, and to inspect all products before acceptance.
