

Privacy Policy

Effective Date: Update 02,11,2025

1. Introduction

Welcome to Bitmedia (“we,” “us,” or “our”). This privacy policy explains how we collect, use, and protect your personal data when you visit our website. Our platform provides information about Yana Seiz’s collaboration with private investors and their shared vision for advancing Veelive and the metaverse industry.

Since Bitmedia is an informational website, we do not engage in direct transactions, user registrations, or active data collection beyond essential website operations.

2. Information We Collect

We do not collect personal information unless you voluntarily provide it through direct communication or inquiry. However, our website may process limited, non-identifiable data for analytical and security purposes. This includes:

- Website Usage Data: IP addresses, browser type, device information, and access times.
- Cookies & Analytics: Standard tracking for website performance and visitor interactions (see Section 5).

If you contact us via email or other means, we may process your name, email address, and message content for communication purposes only.

3. How We Use Your Information

Any data collected is used for the following purposes:

- To maintain and improve website functionality.
- To analyze visitor interactions for content optimization.
- To respond to inquiries, if applicable.

We do not sell, share, or disclose user data to third parties, and we ensure that all information remains confidential.

4. Confidentiality & Investor Privacy

Bitmedia shares information about Yana Seiz's collaboration with investors in the crypto and metaverse space. These investors have chosen to remain anonymous, and we fully respect their privacy.

- No personally identifiable information about investors is disclosed.
 - Investment details remain confidential unless otherwise authorized.
 - No public-facing financial transactions occur on this website.

5. Cookies & Tracking Technologies

We use minimal tracking technologies to improve user experience:

- Essential Cookies: Required for website functionality.
- Analytics Cookies: Used to understand how visitors interact with our content (e.g., Google Analytics, if applicable).

You can disable cookies via your browser settings.

6. Data Protection & Security

We implement reasonable security measures to prevent unauthorized access, modification, or disclosure of any data collected. However, since we do not collect sensitive personal data, our primary focus is on maintaining website integrity.

7. Third-Party Links

This website may contain links to external sites for informational purposes. We are not responsible for the privacy practices of third-party websites. Please review their privacy policies separately.

8. Your Rights & Contact Information

Since our website does not store or process sensitive personal data, no formal user accounts or data deletion requests are necessary. However, if you have any concerns about data privacy or wish to contact us regarding this policy, you can reach us at:

 info@bitmedia.group

9. Updates to This Policy

We may update this privacy policy periodically to reflect changes in our website operations. Any significant modifications will be posted here with an updated effective date.

By using this website, you acknowledge and agree to the terms outlined in this privacy policy.
