EASTERN OREGON has been rated a motorcycleist's paradise. Here you will find wideopen skies and a diverse landscape of high desert, mountains, forests, sagebrush plains and farm lands. Known for it's extended riding season due to the drier climate, you will find yourself riding on remote, empty roads winding along wide beautiful rivers. Eastern Oregon's "Little Dragon" (OR-245) is not for the faint hearted with its 15 miles of 188 curves rated for 10-25 mph. Many of the roads follow the pristine John Day River and its tributaries winding through the Blue Mountains and the John Day Valley. Ride Hwy. 26 the newly designated POW/MIA Memorial highway.

Riding the crisscrossed paved roads through little welcoming cities and towns from Anthony Lakes to the Ochoco Mountains you will find people warm and welcoming.
Be careful, you may meet log trucks, farm vehicles, wildlife or livestock on the road on any given corner. Riders will find a bounty of excellent campgrounds and lodging, as well as some real treats at advertising restaurants that are eager to greet riders.

Both the experienced or the novice adventure bike riders will enjoy the multitude of off-road trails in the wilderness of Eastern Oregon that take you through luscious forests and craggy mountain ranges.

We recommend you check ahead for weather and road conditions, and confirm ahead of time any events you plan to attend.

Eastern Oregon has breathtaking sights around every corner. Come ride, visit and we hope you'll come again.
