Hello,

Today, the NCRS National Board of Directors held its annual Board meeting. It lasted 5-1/2 hours. A recording of the Board meeting will be made available for all NCRS members.

As many of you know, David Brigham recently announced to the Board of Directors that he did not intend to continue as the NCRS National Judging Chairman due to growing family commitments. The Board and the entire membership owe a big "thank you" to David for his work as the "keeper of the NCRS standard" in the operation of his responsibilities as the National Judging Chairman since 2013. Thank you, David!

In response to David's decision to step down as the NJC, the Board was called upon to approve a new NJC that would be nominated by our Society President, Mike Ingham. David Brigham recommended that the Board approve Joe Scafidi, the current 1963-64 national team leader, to be chosen as David's successor. I have known Joe for many years. He is a trusted friend and team leader. I personally talked with Joe about this opportunity. I asked him four questions as part of his candidacy:

First, I asked Joe if this was a position that he wanted. He made it clear to me that it was.

Second, I asked him if he had the time to perform the tasks of the job as the NCRS NJC. Joe's answer made it clear to me that he did.

Third, I asked Joe if he had his family's support for this new position, and Joe made it clear that he had the full support of his family.

Lastly, I asked Joe if he would be open-minded enough to consider new and innovative ideas for the national judging office that may be made by the Board of Directors or other authoritative members of the Society to help promote the growth and strength of the Society, and Joe made it clear that he would be open to possible innovations.

With Joe's answers, I voted for Joe Scafidi as the new NCRS National Judging Chairman. I am happy to also report that Joe was unanimously chosen as our new NCRS National Judging Chairman with a 9-0 vote.

Congratulations to Joe Scafidi, the newly elected NCRS National Judging Chairman!
