RAECHE

(b. 1981, Manila, Philippines)

RAECHE graduated in 2003 from DLSU - College of Saint Benilde, and the Philippine School of Interior Design Major in BS Interior Design.

Raeche's art is a vibrant expression of movement, energy, and emotion, woven with stories from her life. From childhood doodles to a full-time career in painting, her journey has been one of perseverance and passion. Though she initially pursued Interior Design, her love for art never faded. Guided by mentors, she embraced the art world, holding her first solo exhibition at Ricco Renzo Gallery in 2008. In 2017, she fully committed to her craft, becoming a full-time painter.

Her signature style, fluid expressionism, captures fleeting moments with flowing lines and radiant hues. Themes of childhood memories, dancers, and musicians fill her canvases, evoking joy and nostalgia. She describes painting as her bliss—a personal dialogue with the canvas. More than recognition, Raeche values the emotional connection her work creates, believing that "When you live with passion, it radiates and inspires others."

With numerous solo and group exhibitions both locally and internationally, Raeche has been featured in magazines, social media, and in the coffee table book The Future Legends by Sorell Publishing, New York. Grateful for her journey, she sees her art as an offering—both to God and to those who find meaning in her work.
