Re: Bamberg County Administrator Joey Preston Receives Administrator Award

Bamberg, South Carolina (August 2017) –On Saturday, August 26, 2017, Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc. presented Bamberg County Administrator Joey R. Preston with the Administrator Award. Mr. Preston received this award for his “innovative and vision in leading Bamberg County during some difficult economic times...by improving the County in the areas of finance, infrastructure, economic development and beautification/litter control.”

The Denmark Alumni Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc., presented Preston with the Administrator Award at their annual Candle Lights in the Dark banquet held in Denmark, SC. The well-attended event was highlighted with a keynote speech by Willie Jeffries, Head Football Coach Emeritus at South Carolina State University. Mr. Jeffries was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2010 after a lengthy and successful college football coaching career.

“I am honored to receive the Administrator Award from Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity Inc.,” stated Mr. Preston, “I appreciate being recognized for the achievements we have made in Bamberg County. I share these successes with Bamberg County employees and residents, and look forward to continued progress.”

Other honorees at the event included awards for excellence in Journalism, Business and Industry, and Law Enforcement.
