A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Parish Family,

The Body and Blood of Our Lord Jesus Christ are truly present in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, and His Presence remains with us both through our faithful communion with Him as well as sacramentally in the Eucharist which is reserved in the tabernacle of the parish for veneration and for communion to the sick. Many studies today tell us that the majority of Catholic people are not able to speak clearly about this mystery of our faith, and many Catholics remain poorly catechized about the gift of the Eucharist.

Above all things, the gift of the Body and Blood of the Lord was given to us to establish a relationship between our loving God and us. In the Greek of the New Testament, the word used to speak about this relationship is "koinonia." We hear this word translated in Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians as a "participation." The most common translation of the word "koinonia" is as "communion." Jesus gave us the Sacrament of His Body and Blood to keep us in relationship with Him and so that we can participate in every blessing that being a member of His Body brings.

By receiving His Body and Blood, the "AMEN" we say at communion time is a big "YES" to the covenant He has made with us, and being fed at His Table by His Body, we are committing ourselves to living in such a way that reinforces and reinvigorates the bond HE has established with us. Our lives are imperfect, and our world is damaged. Often we find ourselves angry and alone, finding fault from the sidelines and heckling as if we have all of the answers. Jesus says to us from the altar: "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him." (John 6:56) It is when we strive to understand this that the answers to our questions become clearer.

Our Holy Communion not only brings us into relationship with God, but also with one another. To receive the Sacred Host is to desire to live more beautifully the mystery we receive. We know that the world is broken like the Body of the Lord was broken, but our desire to live this mystery in the midst of this world, no matter how imperfectly we begin, will be brought to completion by the grace of Our Savior.

The Eucharist we celebrate is not a sign or a symbol of Christ's love, it is His burning love front and center, present in this very moment. Proclaim the presence of the Lord and claim it as the fundamental orientation of life – to live at all costs in Holy Communion with the Lord and with our neighbor.

In His Most Sacred Heart,
Fr. John

ENTRANCE HYMN - Alleluia! Sing to Jesus

Alleluia! Sing to Jesus! His scepter, his the throne;
Alleluia! His the triumph, His the victory alone;
Hark! The songs of peaceful Zion Thunder like a mighty flood; Jesus out of ev'ry nation Hath redeemed us by his blood.

Alleluia! King eternal, Thee the Lord of lords we own.
Alleluia! Born of Mary, Earth thy footstool, heav'n thy throne: Thou within the veil hast entered, Robed in flesh, our great High Priest; Thou on earth both priest and victim In the Eucharistic feast.

Alleluia! Alleluia! Glory be to God on high Alleluia to the Savior Who has won the victory; Alleluia to the Spirit, Font of love and sanctity; Alleluia! Alleluia! To the triune majesty.

I CONFESS to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do. (Striking breast) Through my fault,
through my fault, through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Lord have mercy.
Christ have mercy.
Lord have mercy.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you. We give You thanks for your great glory. Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only-begotten Son. Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father: you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One. You alone are the Lord. You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in the glory of God the Father. Amen. Amen.

First Reading Deuteronomy 8:2-3

Early in the morning Moses went up Mount Sinai as the LORD had commanded him, taking along the two stone tablets. Having come down in a cloud, the LORD stood with Moses there and proclaimed his name, "LORD." Thus the LORD passed before him and cried out, "The LORD, the LORD, a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity." Moses at once bowed down to the ground in worship. Then he said, "If I find favor with you, O Lord, do come along in our company. This is indeed a stiff-necked people; yet pardon our wickedness and sins,
and receive us as your own."

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 147

Praise the Lord, Jerusalem

Glorify the LORD, O Jerusalem;
praise your God, O Zion.
For he has strengthened the bars of your gates;
he has blessed your children within you.

Praise the Lord, Jerusalem.

He has granted peace in your borders;
with the best of wheat he fills you.
He sends forth his command to the earth;
swiftly runs his word!

Praise the Lord, Jerusalem.

He has proclaimed his word to Jacob,
his statutes and his ordinances to Israel.
He has not done thus for any other nation;
his ordinances he has not made known to them. Alleluia.

Praise the Lord, Jerusalem.

Second Reading 1 Corinthians 10:16-17

Brothers and sisters: The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ? Because the loaf of bread is one, we, though many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf.

Alleluia, alleluia.

I am the living bread that came down from heaven,
says the Lord; whoever eats this bread will live forever.

Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Reading

John 6:51-58

Jesus said to the Jewish crowds: "I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." The Jews quarreled among themselves, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" Jesus said to them, "Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day.
For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him. Just as the living Father sent me and I have life because of the Father, so also the one who feeds on me will have life because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven. Unlike your ancestors who ate and still died, whoever eats this bread will live forever."

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen

HYMN of PREPARATION - Panis Angelicus

Panis angelicus, fit panis hominum Dat panis caelicus figuris terminum. O res mirabilis manducat Dominum, pauper, servus, et humilis.

Te, trina Deitas unique, poscimus, Sic nos tu visita, sicut te colimus; Per tuas semitas duc nos quo tendimus, ad lucem quam inhabitas.

Holy and living bread, wondrous food from heaven sent, God's sacrifice foretold now in our hands we hold. Sign and reality, challenge for us to be humble servants to all the poor.

God, holy Three-in-One, through this offering of your Son all now on earth can see what we are called to be: Hope for a world in need, signs that love can succeed Where true justice and peace endure.

CLOSING HYMN

You Give the Great Commission

Lord, you give the great commission: "heal the sick and preach the word." Lest the church neglect its mission and the gospel go unheard, help us witness to your purpose with renewed integrity: With the Spirit's gifts empow'r for the work of ministry.

Lord, you call us to your service: "In my name baptize and teach." That the world may trust your promise, life abundant meant for each, give us all new fervor, draw us closer in community: with the Spirit's gifts empow'r us for the work of ministry.

Lord, you make the common holy: "This my body, this my blood." Let us all, for earth's true glory, daily lift life heavenward, asking that the world around us share your children's liberty: With the Spirit's gifts empow'r us for the work of ministry.

THANKSGIVING PRAYER TO OUR SACRAMENTAL LORD

Dear Jesus, present in the Sacrament of the Altar, be forever thanked and praised. Love, worthy of all celestial and terrestrial love, Who, out of infinite love for me, ungrateful sinner, assumed our human nature and shed Your Most Precious Blood in the cruel scourging, and expired on the shameful Cross for our well-being! Now, enlightened by lively faith, with the outpouring of my whole soul, and the fervor of my heart, I humbly beseech You, through the infinite merits of Your sufferings, give me the strength and courage to destroy every evil passion which sways my heart, to bless You in my greatest trials, and to glorify You by the faithful fulfillment of all my duties, and above all, to hate all sin, and in that way, become the saint you want me to be. Through the same Christ Our Lord, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, One God, forever and ever. AMEN.
