About This Book, and the Arranger

There are a couple things I appreciate about my years in Bible School: For one, we had a 'Spiritual Life' teacher, Dr. Hubbard, who: besides teaching Bible Analysis and Synthesis, instructed us in everything from how many times to chew our food to stay healthy—to the respectful way to sit in the worship services. It was from him that I learned to love studying the Word of God in depth and in sincerity; and that's what I value the most.

It was just after graduation from Arizona Bible Institute, that I began receiving Words—words of which I did not know the meaning! I was 21. At first I would begin saying the word, and then become curious as to the meaning and go to the dictionary for relief! Then sometimes immediately, but other times within a few days, I would be able to see that it was meant for enlightenment on a portion of scripture that had puzzled me, or for guidance, or to help someone else understand their circumstances. After a while, it would be names also, that I was saying, and it came to me—I was to pray for that person although I would not remember ever hearing the name. Many of you reading these words can remember doing the same—God is always talking!

Mother was never one to talk a lot—unless there was something that needed to be said, or there came an opportunity to make a little play-on-words, to repeat a joke, or to quote some relevant tidbit from the Bible. But while I was privileged to care for her after she suffered a stroke, there were times that she shared some things with me. In one of those instances, Mother told a dream she had about prophecies. In the dream, the Lord reminded her of how He had used her in the 'gift of prophecy.' She told Him she did not remember being used by Him in that way. Then He reminded her of all the little slips of paper she had written-on, and saved in a dresser drawer. After hearing this dream of Mother's, I began treasuring and organizing the little slips of paper I'd written-on.

It was in September, 2012 that I began waking many mornings between 2:00 and 4:00 with lots of words; and this book is the result of those early mornings! At first I began keeping a notebook and pencil handy and would write it all down. But then it just seemed easier to use the computer (maybe Enoch was given something similar to write the many books the Lord God gave him to copy and leave with his family and friends).

I cannot say that my life since birth into God's family as a teen-ager has always been a beautiful picture; on the contrary, it has not. Although I like to think, as King David of old, that I've never wickedly departed from my God: for much of my life, in matters of decision making, I've not taken time to compare my gut feeling with what the Bible has to say about it as well as how it might affect family or friends; and have made severe mistakes. And also, I'm just now learning to keep in mind—the eyes of the Lord are in every place, beholding the evil and the good; and to realize almost constantly the presence of YHSWH as a friend that sticks closer than a brother.

Foreword

For years, while raising my family, I was satisfied to read the Bible for personal uses; grabbing a special verse here and there, finding many precious promises; but never really trying to “put it all together.” Matthew chapters 23-25 were very confusing because we'd been taught that all those things were to transpire just before the end of the Age in which we live! We're taught that the period of Great Tribulation is coming soon! and those who are ready will be caught-up in a “rapture” while unfortunate others are left behind! Yet ancient prophecies and historians reveal the fact that the things mentioned in the Bible, for the Great Tribulation—happened already in the first century C.E., with the promise of never happening again to such an extent! In fact, the God of the Ancient Prophecies comforted the remnant of His people, saying they had drunk the cup of His fury and would no more drink it again. He also told them: "Though I have afflicted thee, I will afflict thee no more."

In his book, 'How Do You Kill Eleven Million People?' Andy Andrews reveals: “Why The Truth Matters more than you think!”

In at least one cabinet meeting with his officers, Adolph Hitler expounded this theory: 'To get the majority of a population to go along with your plan, you have to propagate the biggest lie conceivable!'

Hitler desired to commit mass genocide, ridding his nation of Jewish population.

He told them he was putting fences around their communities for protection (which was actually, so they could not flee when finding out what was really coming down).

He offered them larger houses where they could live together with free transportation to those places; and promised job security (They were put on trains and transported to concentration camps with large barracks, where they were made to commit vigorous labor).

He provided large bathhouses (where some of the rooms were piped with gas instead of water—to be able to kill off dozens at a time, who were unable to work).

In the Book called 'The Bible', we are told that 'Mystery Babylon' has deceived the Nations. ('Babylon' was the religious systems of the world before the Age of the Gentiles; 'Mystery Babylon', is the religious systems that are now in the earth.)

How do you suppose Mystery Babylon was able to deceive the Nations? . . . The very same way Adolph Hitler was able to kill eleven million people!!!

Adolph Hitler and others, down through time since the Punishment of Jerusalem, have been allowed to commit such acts against the Jews, because it is fulfillment of prophecy. The Lord God had said He would send a sword upon them because of their wickedness and refusal to return to Him; and that the sword would follow them to whatever places they were scattered. These vicious acts against the Jews are also fulfillment of Apostle Paul's prophecy: "With all delusion of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved."

Much of ancient history by historians as well as some of God's Word has been either eliminated, switched around, or contaminated by substitutions. And in tampering with history, Mystery Babylon has been able to deceive the nations into believing God did not yet stand up for Himself and do what He had determined upon all the wicked of the world; ...so the 'world as a whole' does not know about THE LORD GOD 'bringing an end to wickedness' in the destruction of the world at the end of the Jewish Age. Why did He have Isaiah to prophesy, saying "Now will I rise, now will I be exalted; now will I lift up myself. You shall conceive chaff, you shall bring forth stubble: your breath, as fire, shall devour you. And the people shall be as the burnings of lime: as thorns cut up shall they be burned in the fire. Hear, you that are far off, what I have done; and, you that are near, acknowledge my might."

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

If we truly believe man; homo sapiens; Adam—was made in the image of God, with rationality and emotions—then we can believe that YHSHW, the Christ, having suffered great humiliation and torment while in his flesh of humanity, at the hands of men—wanted to finally appear before them in the Glory of the Father and in His own Glory; thus proving to them—beyond a shadow of a doubt—He is Who He said He is? And that is what the book of The Revelation is all about.

The truth is:

The Holy Lord God did stand up for Himself at the end of the Age of the Israelites and destroyed all wickedness from the earth. He did arise in jealousy for His Erring Beloved, for she was still the 'apple of His Eye' and He knew that by the punishments He would now inflict, there would be only a righteous remnant left in all the Earth.

He did grant unto His Son the privilege of being revealed to those who pierced Him and to the High Priest who had questioned Him on the day of His Passionate Sacrifice!

The Lord God was not thwarted in His inexorable plan to have a People called by His Name that would be the most prodigious nation, and inundate the Earth with the Seed of Abraham; and according to Moses, King David, Isaiah, Jeremiah, and other prophets—He did just that! The Remnant Daughter of Jerusalem was the Apple of His Eye. They became the leading nation in the Dark Ages with Assyria/Rome, and with Egypt (which Ezekiel said would be the basest).

Why Should These Truths Matter to us today?

The fear of religious systems has been substituted for the fear of the Lord God!

Without the knowledge of this Truth, it's hard to teach our children the fear of the Lord!

Without the knowledge of this Truth we cannot know what to expect at the Latter End of this Age of the Gentiles, as different from that at the end of the Age of the Israelites!

Strong delusion will be sent upon all who do not possess the love of the truth!

In these Latter Days of the Age of the Gentiles, The Lord God is shining His marvelous light upon Truth, - so that we may see clearly His exciting climaxes for the ends of several of Earth's Ages, instead of just one confused conglomeration of 'end-time events'.

And it is in His agenda to inundate humanity with an inexorable desire to search-for and find those truths even if we have to forget everything we thought we knew—in the process.

May the reading of this book be a blessing to your life!

~ dl Andrews

Word from the Author

In some ways, we twenty-first century homo-sapiens are sooo egotistical! We're sure we have evolved into a perfect human-being with ultimate technology! How is it that after thousands of years, we see ourselves as the first generation of humanity to travel in outer space, enjoy the use of cell phones and read books by a Nook! With all our 'modern' inventions that supposedly provide time for relaxation, we have neither time nor interest for reading histories of any kind; including the Bible! How could we possibly know about technologies of former eons?

We settle-down with the feeling that the Bible was written for our generation, and skip-over everything that doesn't seem to be talking to us! We have the assured feeling that if we've ever made the confession that Jesus Christ is Lord, we'll someday go flying up into the sky with an experience called the "rapture;" and we seemingly, have no compassion for saints who were suffering widespread tribulation and persecutions under the hand of Nero..... Or have we even heard of a person called Nero? Why should they—not have anticipated this miraculous "rapture?" After all, it was promised to them; and they did—so desperately—need it! And how could it be, that archaeologists are finding traces of civilizations possessing far-greater technologies than even we have attained-to in our generations?

In the early 1900s, we were still riding horses pulling buggies and reading by the light of a candle. But just thirty years later, we were 'taking to outer space' and flying airplanes worldwide! So—why should we even question the quantum-leap of higher technology—forty years after Jesus at the age of twelve— had spent five days-or-so in the temple at Jerusalem asking and answering questions of the learned-men from all over the world?

What is wrong with this picture?

Perhaps we should we change our view to see it this way:

In the light of King Solomon's statement "That which has been is now, and that which is to come has already been; and God requires that which is past" ? If we can visualize the ends of earth's ages in this light, then we can see that at the end of each age that was folded up and changed— every possible technology would have been invented and in use—somewhere on earth, because God requires it of men.

Psalm 102:25-28: "Of old—You have laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the work of Your hands. They shall perish, but You shall endure; yes, all of them shall wax od like a garment; as a vesture shall You change them, and they shall be changed: but You are the same, and Your years shall have no end. The children of Your servants shall continue, and their seed shall be established before You."

Hebrews 1:10-12: "And You, Lord, in the beginning have laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of Your hands: they shall perish; but You remain; and they all shall wax old as doth a garment; and as a vesture You shall fold them up, and they shall be changed: but You are the same, and Your years shall not fail."

For a little more enlightenment, we could consider this: When God met with Moses on the Mt. Sinai, He shook the earth around the mountain; but later, at the end of that age, He would shake not only the earth; but the heavens too—so that things that were made (tangible substances with the Higgs boson intact—could be shaken and be moved or removed; and only things that could not be shaken would remain the same (earth, air, fire, water, chemical substances airwaves and invisible dimensions)—Hebrews 12:26-29.

For the counting of years in this document, you'll find that the abbreviation "C.E." is used in the place of the usual "A.D." for this reason:

The early use of numerals for dating had very different meanings than they do today; in fact they were not even called "Roman Numerals" until around the fifteenth century. In examining ancient bronze plaques, for instance, we find them using the letter i for the first digit in their dating, followed by a dot and then one to three numerals—the i standing for the first letter in the name of Jesus. At some point, the letters M, C and D were also implemented—M standing for Magnus or Great; C standing for Caesar, Kaiser or King; D standing for Domini, meaning The Lord Divine, or as some say; The Great House. One king: Rudolph Habsburg's gravestone contained numerals that when interpreted, reads: 291 years from the accession of the Great House.

PRELUDE TO THE PREFACE

Contrary to popular opinion, you do not have to be a prophet, priest,
Or even a 'holy saint', to be able to receive 'Words' from the Lord God.*

He is always speaking—all over the earth! Giving guidance:
through alignments of heavenly bodies; cloud formations; dreams;
words which come into mind that are unknown to you; through a friend, an acquaintance, your pet animals; and even messages flashing across the TV screen which a searcher for Truth may receive as illumination or guidance.

Amos was a herdsman and a gatherer of sycamore fruit.
As he was following the flock,
The Lord spoke to him and told him to go and prophesy to His people Israel.

Amos chapter seven: 14-15

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

He obeyed. Then Amaziah the Priest of Bethel came and told Amos to go elsewhere to live and prophesy there; but not at Bethel,
As it was the king's chapel and the king's court!

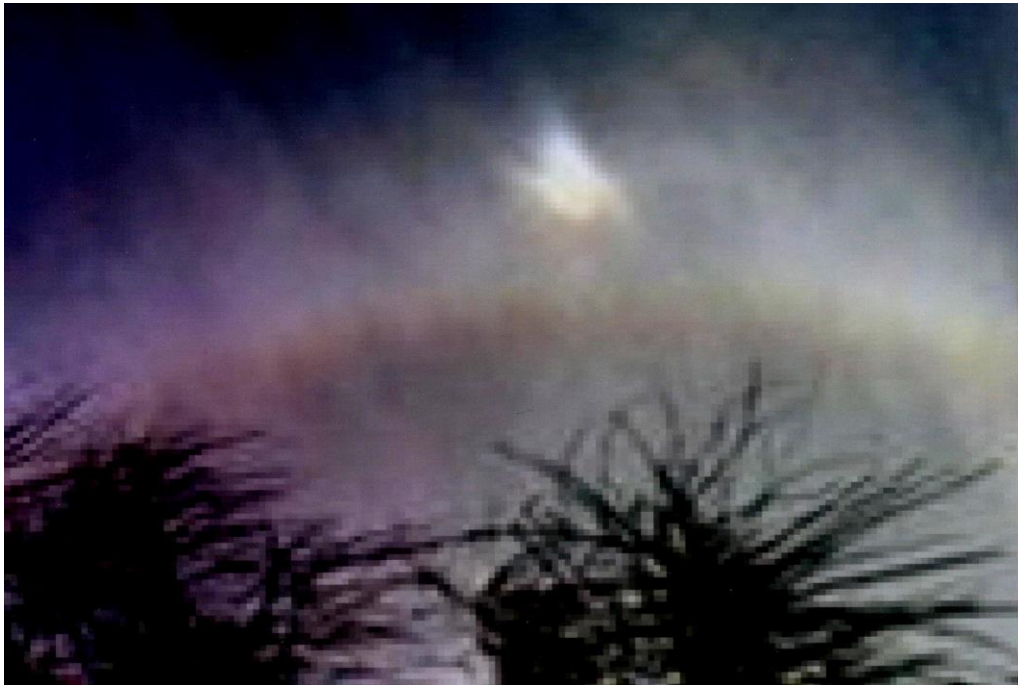

Amos' answer was: "I was no prophet, neither was I a prophet's son;
But The Lord took me as I was following the flock and said to me,
'Go, prophesy to My people Israel.'

PREFACE

Words that came on September twelve, two thousand twelve:
Is it not true, - that the majority of humanity
In the Age of the Gentiles have assumed
That I was through with speaking to man for a printed Word?
You claim to cling on every word of medieval man's canonicity,
Assuming the works of any following, to be either—false, non-essential,
Or not applicable to your Times.

Remember! I fill all things! It is My Powerful Presence
In the center of every atom of your universe that may be dreadfully destructive
If not directly designated when divided.

It is I Who sit upon the circle of the earth
And the inhabitants are like grasshoppers!

Isaiah chapter forty: 21-29

Yet your way is not ever hid from me, and those who wait upon me shall be able to Fly above their circumstances as the eagles, and have their strength renewed!
I Am the One who continually oversees the guidance of all nomenclature of Astronomy, Physiology and Geology.
I Am Here for You! Will you trust me? I AM Love!

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

I, through My Image on earth, paid the ultimate price to Redeem you
From the hand of the evil one! It is by faith in My Blood that was shed

The Crucified Christ Preaching to the spirits in prison

As the ultimate sacrifice for the remission of sin upon repentance—
That makes both Jew and Gentile clean and whole:
No longer Jew nor Gentile, male nor female in My sight;
But rather one new creature in Jesus Christ
YHSWH the Messiah Adonai.

Contrary to your assumptions,
I have continued giving to My children of earth's families... WORDS;
And I will continue to give Words, at times, to My sons and daughters of earth—As I have spoken through men and women of years gone-by.

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

You must not reject My Words because of their lives.
Remember: I used the harlot Rehab to be great grandmother
To My servant David the King of Israel.
And moreover, his great grandfather to the 8th
Was born of a woman who justly feigned to be an harlot!
The lives of some of these today have also had many flaws;
But I choose to use them for their willingness to listen,
And to experiment with Truth.

Words

My name is YHSWH. Although men have ascribed to Me the name of Jesus—
It is not the name given to Me by My Father,
As you have learned by your interest in the enigmatic codes—
Hidden in the written text.
I AM a sequestrian. I, only—dwell in Light to which no man can approach.
Nonetheless, I AM always concerned about the affairs of men,
And I AM always speaking to you
Either through Astronomers; a prophet or prophetess;
Or through many other methods. If you listen, you will hear! In fact,
I am at your door even now, desiring entrance!
I have given information to various people in your times; but their words were either
Not received as from Me, not deemed to be important;
Or hid from your eyes by governmental authorities and Mystery Babylon!
In the fifteen-hundreds—years of your times, there lived a British prophetess

Known as Mother Shipton ~ 1488-1561

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

Among her prophecies, she foretold that women would begin to "Dress like men and trousers wear, and cut-off their locks of hair."

I do honor the decency and faithfulness of women in the West
Who hold fast their form of modesty in dress—to please their Creator.
But they must not stand as judge!—unto those who have accepted change with decency. Because, like My faithful Apostle Paul,
You must be willing to accept change
When it is in the prospect of saving a soul!
He was a 'Pharisee of the Pharisees—but when in Rome, he did as the Romans:
So they, seeing he was one of them—would hear him.
The daughters of My servants in the East
Have not departed from their customary way
Of dress that pleases their husbands as well as their Creator.
I must give them honor.

Because of the Times, with women as well as men having to work outside the home,
They have not taken time to teach their children
The most important matters of life—

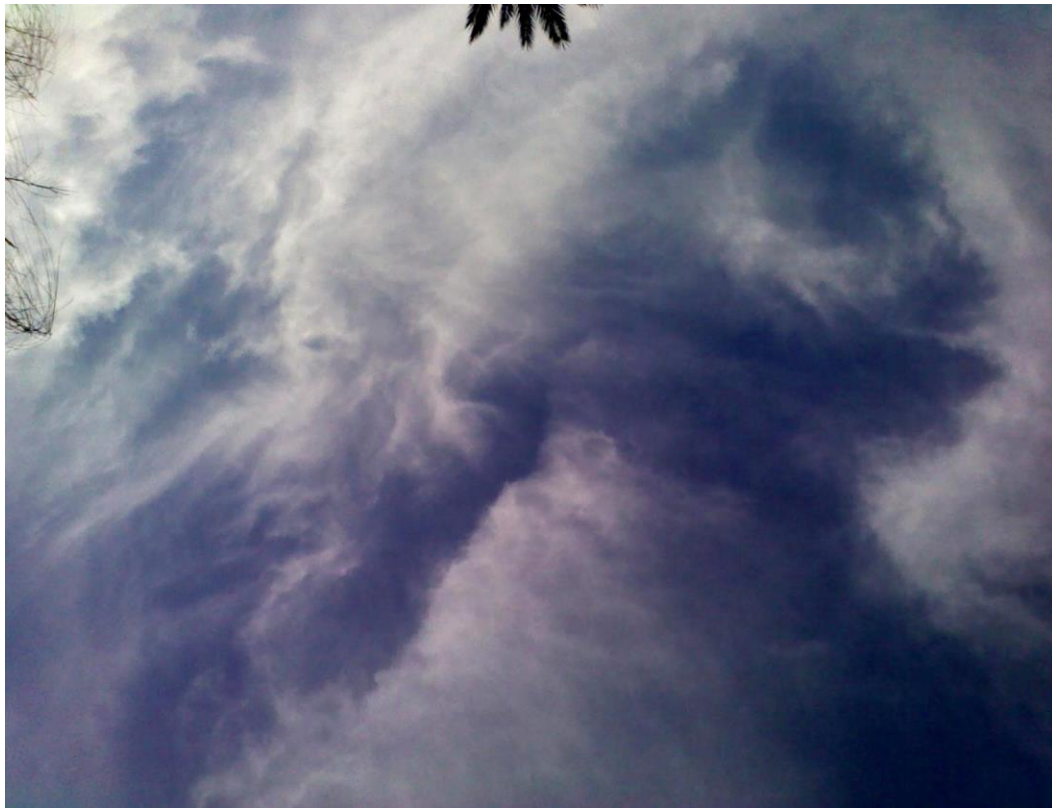

Truth, Thankfulness, Modesty and Making best use of Time.
And like a canker sore, their carelessness has bred many temptations
For inordinate passions among those who have not a love for decency and Truth.
In the Early nineteen hundreds of your counting of time,
The Russians suffered tremendous upheaval of governmental economic systems
Until the inhabitants of those lands lost all recognition of who they were,
What they were becoming, where they were supposed to be,
And what they were to do!

The author of a great literary work was able to peer into people's souls
And describe them in a way no one ever talked about;
And from time to time he spoke of Me in a way that enables you to realize
Their dependence upon Me to make everything be all right in the end!
You cannot judge them in things that transpired in their lives;
For if the Foundation be destroyed—what can the Righteous do?
Just so, among every nation of earth,
There are those in these Latter Days of your Times
To whom I have chosen to give 'Words'
And they are eager to share My Knowledge with others worldwide!

WORDS ABOUT ANCIENT AGES

"Think not that I created man on earth with a will of his own
And aspirations to become like Me—and then just left him to evolve on his own!
Was it not My anointing that gave great men of old
The drive to be 'thinkers' and 'doers'
To bring earth's occupants out of darkness into light?

But 'Babylon' and 'Mystery Babylon' have robbed Me
Of My due place in the minds of men!
Unlike the Words given through My chosen people Israel—
My Words given to men of other nations have not been guarded
As the scribes of My people have guarded My Words;
And My honor has been attributed to invented gods of fantasy!

Around 100 years after King Solomon / Homer and Hesiod, Greek poets

Of the Greeks: Homer and Hesiod wrote under My anointing—didactic poetry!
Some were prophecies foretelling My fierce wrath
Poured-out against all wickedness;
And by My anointing, they also wrote words of guidance for all areas of life—

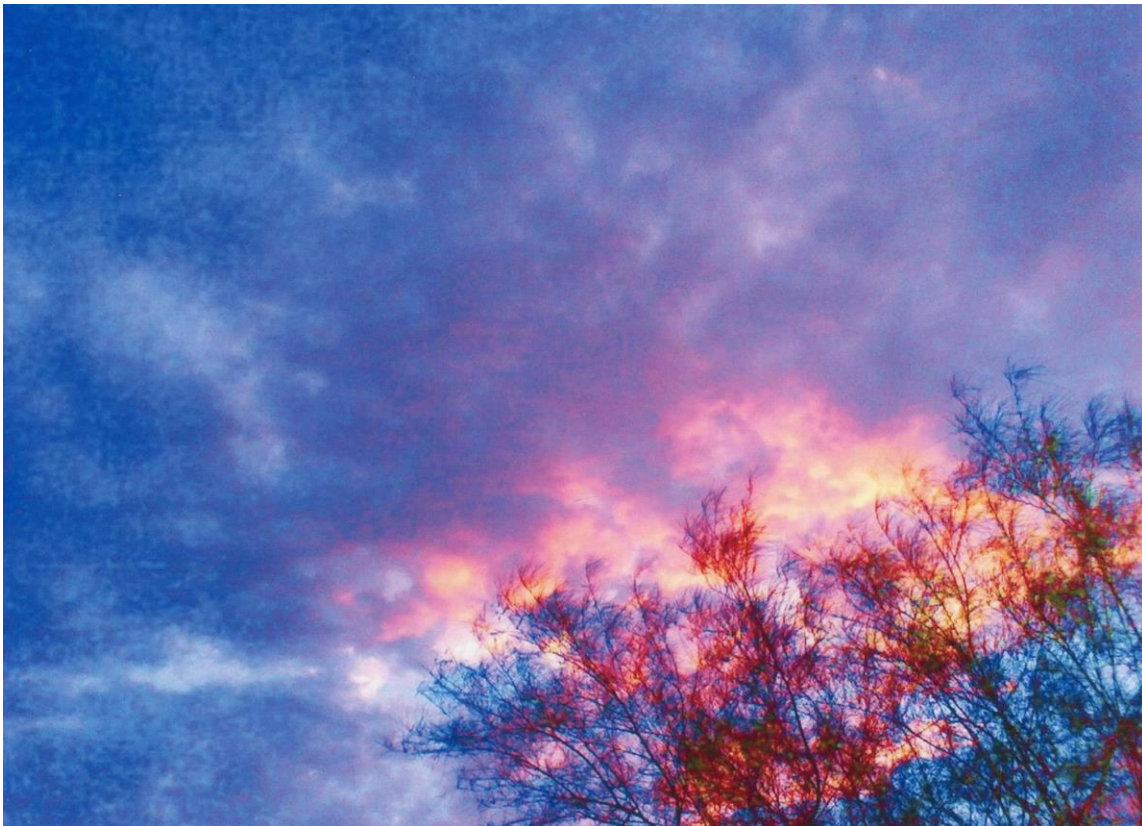

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

Because of My love and tender care for all nations of earth!

But their works were corrupted when acted out in theatrical plays;
Each time, being changed to suit the writers—
Thereby robbing Me of esteem among men,
And attributing My power to that of their gods!

In the days of Moses, his father-in-law Jethro of the land of Midian was My prophet.

It was no accident that Moses, when fleeing from the Egyptian king—
Was led to the backside of that desert where for forty years
I trained him to be able to survive under difficult circumstances...

Exodus chapter three: 1-6

And when I appeared to him in a burning bush, I called him to lead My chosen people
Out of the bondage from which they so desperately desired deliverance!

When I had brought them to My holy Mount Sinai
I saw their trusting love and devotion,

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

And knew it was time to make a covenant with them to protect and prosper them—
For when the time was right, I would bring forth My only begotten Son into the world

With DNA that had not been tainted from mixture with other families of earth.

I called My most humble servant Moses,

To the top of the mount upon which I ascended—

Robed in the image I had created in which to walk with the man I had made.

I also allowed others of the elders to see Me

In the glory of that Image

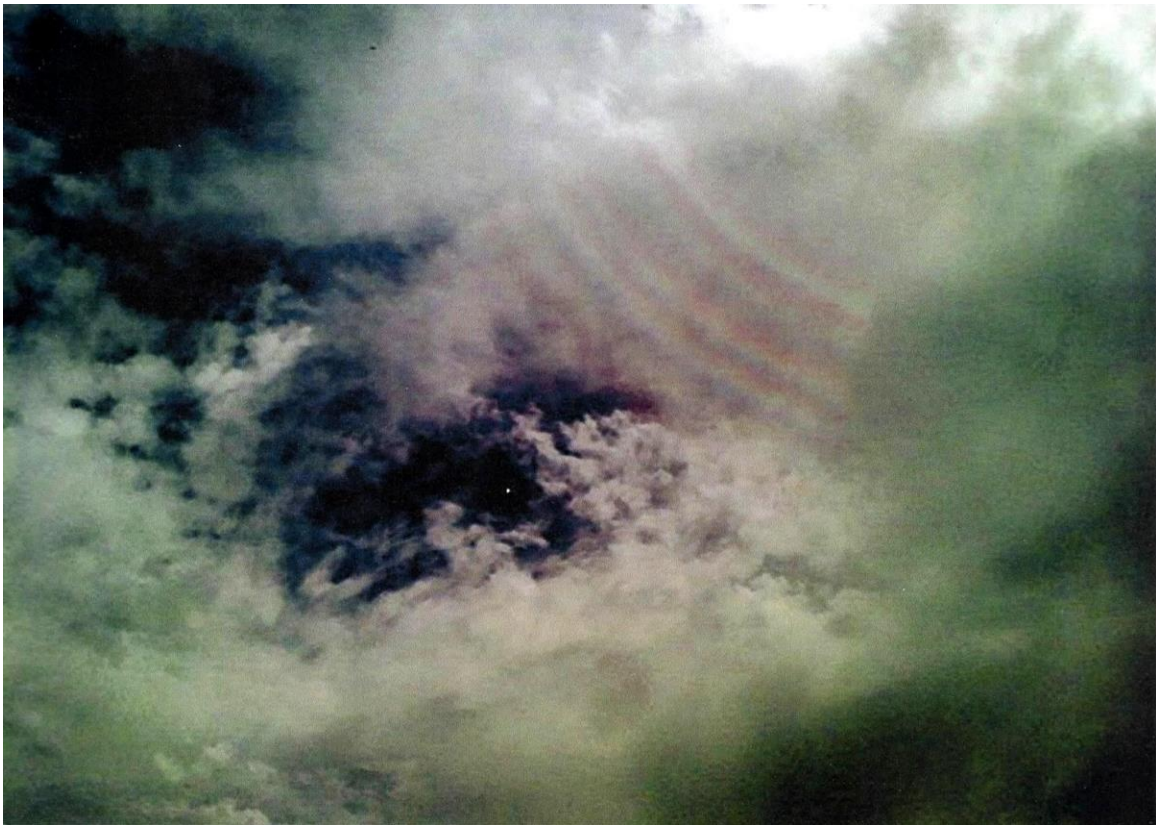

I had created before all things—

For He is the beginning of My earthly creations for man.

I wanted to talk to all the people camped around My mount;

But when they heard the voice of the Trumpet sounding loud and long,

And thundering of My voice—they were afraid and began moving farther away!

Exodus chapter nineteen

(God's voice boomed out to the people in the camps below the Mt. Sinai)

So it was there—I delivered unto Moses all the instructions
For the Covenant I desired to make with that family of earth;

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

And when they all agreed with one voice to all the words of the Covenant,
They became My People by Covenant forever!
Afterward, when Moses was at his wit's end

With the complexity of problems arising among My people:
Jethro, being in tune with another dimension of knowledge,
Was sent to My wandering people
To give the understanding—that was necessary
For Moses to carry-on systematically.

My prophet Balaam was well-known by the king of Midian—
As a prophet to be relied-upon;
And was called out of another country
To curse a great throng of traveling people
Who were feared by every nearby nation!
I warned him not to go; but he, desiring fame;
And from fear of an earthly king—did go;
But because of the fear that he had before Me—
Was able to enter into another dimension
Where he saw the past, present and future of My people at once,
And blessed them with words that I put into his mouth!

There are others who have greatly desired
The esoteric knowledge of those ancients;
But without the key of love and of 'fearing before Me',
Have attributed it to ancient gods and goddesses,
Apparitions of ghostly beings, and aliens to your planet!
Because they have not acknowledged the fact that My Spirit does fill all things
And worship before Me—therefore they have not been able to find that dimension
Into which the former prophets and others have been able to see.

In the proverbs of King Solomon of Israel,
I have given instructions for obtaining knowledge:
And that is to first get wisdom; and with all your wisdom, get understanding—
But the Fear of The Lord is the Beginning of wisdom!

Words That Came By the Ancient Prophets

Isaiah prophesied of the Last Days and The Day of The Lord: He said that—Because of the land being full of idols, adultery, Homo-sexuality,
And pleasing themselves with the children of strangers—
They should go and hide themselves in holes of the rocks and in the caves of the earth Because of the fear of The Lord and for the Glory of His Majesty—
When He rises to shake terribly the earth!
In actuality, I had given them up

Until the time that My Church of that generation Had travailed in birth.

Isaiah chapter 66:7-8 and The Revelation chapter 12:1-5

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

She brought forth the man child that was caught up unto God and to His throne!

You must keep in mind the fact I have had a Church in all of Earth's Ages!

The Israelites that came out of Egypt by Moses

Were My 'Church in the wilderness'

And only a few of them entered the Promised Land:

They were Believers who trusted and followed Me

Wheresoever I would lead them!

So has it been in other of earth's Ages!

The Man-child would rule the world with a rod of iron,

And there would be Peace on earth!

The Revelation chapter twelve:5

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

When the man-child was caught up to God and to His throne,

The Revelation chapter twelve:3-5

There was war in heaven!

The Revelation chapter twelve:7

Michael and his angels fought the great dragon—Satan, the serpent,
The devil and his angels who had been accusing them night and day!

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

The evil powers were overcome and cast into the earth where they went-about
To destroy the woman and the rest of her seed.

The Revelation chapter twelve: 7-10

Satan knew that it would soon be time for the judgments—not only of the righteous;

But also of the sons of God that had left their first estate;
and he knew that he himself would be bound

For the years of the first dominion of the Messiah over all the earth!
So he went about to stalk the woman Which had brought forth the man child!

The Revelation chapter twelve: 13

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

Isaiah also revealed the fact that the drunkards of Ephraim
Would plant themselves in a pleasant place
Like the one to which Tyrus had escaped seventy years earlier;

And it was then that Tyrus began again to trade with the nations of earth,
And her hire was used for those that dwelt before the Lord
For sufficient food and durable clothing.

The Drunkards of Ephraim were the astronomers and astronauts
Who had founded a nest among the planets,

Isaiah chapter 28:1-3

And were brought down to the earth with the hand (the open hand of direction thru the armholes) and by a strong & mighty storm;

They were kicked out of the heavens when I opened them up as a scroll
And their host was cast down to be later trodden under foot of men.

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

Isaiah chapter 34:4; The Revelation chapter 6:14

Jeremiah foretold of the Last Days and the Day of The Lord:
He said to all nations of earth, that they would Certainly drink of the cup of My wrath, as pay-back
For all they had done to My People Israel.
I told them to observe and see when I begin to bring evil
Upon the city that is called by My name—They also would not be unpunished:
For I would call for a sword upon all the inhabitants of earth!
I told him to say unto them, that I would give a shout,

Jeremiah chapter 25:13-38

And mightily roar from on high: going all the way to the ends of the earth—

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

For My Controversy with the nations.
My determination was to plead with all flesh,
And to give all that was wicked to the sword of My Wrath!
I warned them that evil would go from nation to nation,
Great whirlwinds would rise up from the coasts of the earth;
And those slain by My Sword would not be lamented nor buried;
But would remain as dung upon the ground!

Amos conveyed My lamentation regarding the percentage left of My People
That were able to flee from the cities during the siege—and it was so!
And when it came to Jerusalem in the Siege—
Both Hosea and Zechariah gave the time of one month
For the destruction to be complete, just as the ancient historian has said.

Haggai related My word—that it would be just a little while,
And I would shake the heavens, the earth, the sea, and the dry land;
Which also prophesied Isaiah, Joel, David, Job, and the Apostle Paul.

Your ancient historians have related the incident of the great thundering
And appearance of signs in the heavens—of My sudden appearance in the temple:
Was it not My time for fulfillment of that prophecy?
For shortly there would be no temple in which to make My sudden appearance!
I shook the heavens, also—to bring down the inventions

Habakkuk 2:9

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

Of those that had set their nests among the stars—
Thinking it would be the only safe place To avoid the devastations
That were anticipated by scientists and astrologers of their day!
And even those hiding at the bottom of the sea would not be safe;

Amos chapter nine: 3

For I would send My serpent and he would bite them!

Zechariah prophesied that in the 'Day of The Lord',
His feet would stand upon the Mount of Olives,
And there would be a great earthquake,
And the mount would split two ways—forming the four hills at Jerusalem.

Paralleled with Ezekiel and John the Revelator,
Zechariah also described the river of life That flowed out from My Temple...
The one along whose banks grew the trees
With leaves that were for the healing of the nations.
Although their cities had been destroyed by the Sheshach,
Some had escaped; returning to labor in the very fire!

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

Habakkuk chapter 2:13

And the dwellers in the wilderness and mountains
Who had heeded My warning to flee upon seeing their cities surrounded by armies:
Yes, even they remembered the instructions to Get up into the high mountain
And shout to the cities of Judah, "Behold Your God!"

Zephaniah prophesied: "The Great Day of The Lord is near,
It Is Near, and Hastens Greatly!
It is a Day of Wrath, a Day of Trouble and Distress.
A Day of Devastation and Desolation,
A Day of Darkness and Gloominess, a Day of Clouds and Thick Darkness;

Zephaniah chapter one: 14-16; Joel chapter two: 1-2

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

A Day of the Trumpet and Alarm Against the fenced cities and the high towers."
I said I would bring distress upon men because they had sinned against Me;
And their blood would be poured out as dust, and their flesh as the dung!

I warned them neither their silver nor their gold would be able to deliver them
In the Day of My Wrath! I advised them to gather together and seek The Lord
Before the Day My Fierce Anger should come upon them!
Even the Meek of the earth were advised
That they should seek Me and My righteousness And to seek more meekness
So, they may be hid in the Day of My Fierce Anger!

Micah prophesied about My coming forth out of My Place
And treading upon the high places of the earth—
And all because of the transgression of Jacob!
It was then; the prophecy of Hosea had been fulfilled:
"I will meet them as a bear bereaved of her whelps & rend the lobe of their heart,

Hosea chapter thirteen:8; Micah chapter one:3-5; Habakkuk chapter three:12

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

And there I will devour them like a lion—For the wild beasts shall tear them"
Because they had given their heart to detestable desires
And to the rulers of unrighteousness!

Micah described the 'Last Days'
As the time in which the Mountain of the House of The Lord

Isaiah chapter 2:2 and Micah chapter 4:1

Would be established in the tops of the hills;
And every one that was left of the nations
Would Go up yearly to Jerusalem to keep the Feast of Tabernacles;

And it was to the remnant—to the daughter of Jerusalem,
That the First Dominion of Messiah did come—even as Micah had said!

Yes—I had impetuously sent My prophets to warn earth's inhabitants
Of My determination to shake-out all wickedness!

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

Even before the flood of Noah's generation,
I gave to My friend Enoch, while yet a child—
A vision of the catastrophic events of the Last Days,

Haggai chapter two:6,7; Hebrews chapter twelve:26; Also, in the First of the Visions of Enoch, when he was learning to write—he saw mountains sliding upon mountains and thought the world was destroyed; then he went outside and saw the sun shining and was glad; but prayed with great emotion—that God would not destroy all living from the face of the earth.

*Wherein he watched as mountains slid atop other mountains;
And he so greatly feared, that he petitioned Me with vehement burden—
Not to destroy all living from off the face of the earth!*

But Before the events of the Great Day of My Wrath,
And the pouring-out of My Fierce Anger,
I gave letters for the seven churches in Asia,
Commending them upon things in which they were faithful,
And warning them of things that were lacking.

Among the promises to those who would overcome, hold fast till I come,
And keep My works to the end—I promised to give them white raiment;
Not blot their name; and write upon them My new name and the name of My God,

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

And the name of the City of God that was to come from God out of heaven!
They would eat of the Tree of Life in the Paradise of God;
And have power over the nations!
They were all locked into a quagmire of pandemonium and purveyors of truth;
And were interceding incessantly for My intervention!

Yet they were singing and making melody in their hearts
Unto their Lord and Saviour,
Hoping and waiting expectantly for His Promised Return
And to save them from the Day of His Fierce Wrath!

Zephaniah chapter 2:3, Isaiah 66:5

I spoke through the prophets also—that it was My Determination to gather
The Remnant of My People and yet make of them a great nation!
My plan for them was not to leave them comfortless
And left alone to search for sustenance ...

NO! I had spoken through the prophets that I would comfort them
And perform miracles for them as when they came out of Egypt!

Micah chapter seven: 13-17

When I sent out missionaries described in Isaiah's last chapter—
To gather My strays;
Men of other nations received word of My Determination,
And came crawling out of their caves like worms,
As foretold by My prophet Micah—
Being able to say nothing because of the glory that was upon My People;
And submitting themselves to them!

At that time' I finally stood up for Myself
And received the kingdom that had been promised!
And I got for them praise and fame
In every place where they had been put to shame—
Even among all people of the earth!

In that day also, I made a covenant with the beasts of the field,
The birds of the air and with the creeping things of the ground,
So that even a child not yet weaned
Could play upon the hole of a serpent and have no fear!

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

Some of My ministers in your latter days have been confused
Concerning the Purpose and Urgency of these letters to the Seven Churches;

Calling them "The Seven Church Ages."

Although this was not My original intention,
The message to each is still the same: "Hold Fast till I come!"
Like Babylon of old—Mystery Babylon has deceived the nations;
Not wanting them to know it was because of My love
For My Church of that generation
That I sent those letters; anticipating preparation
For their role in reigning over My earth.

Shortly it would be time to hide themselves for a while—
In dens and caves of the earth;
For sin had come to fruition and the Cup of the Fierceness of My Wrath
Would soon be poured-out upon that generation of humanity
Who had wickedly refused Me for the last time!

Words about Last Days

"Last Days" always begin with an increase of knowledge, then disobedience;
And end with judgments!

Adam and Eve received forbidden knowledge and then disobeyed—
Only to be expelled to an abode void of My higher knowledge and technology:
Which can operate only in the presence of pure love
And obedience to their higher power.

Of the flood of waters upon earth, there were eight souls saved.
They were saved by water bearing aloft the ark which Noah and his sons had built

Genesis chapters six-eight

By My Design and Direction—working under the auspices of the Almighty.
These were saved because their father Noah was perfect in his generations.

During those days, the sons of Seth lived on My holy mountain,
And survived there with peace, harmony and plenty;
While the children of Cain had been visited by certain of the watchers

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

That I had placed in the heavens for their safety.
These had left their first estate from entertaining evil desires to become like man
And take unto themselves beautiful wives of the children of men.
They, having become evil yet possessing knowledge of ancient wisdom—
Gave unto men insight unto all sorts of sorceries and technologies—
Until My children on the mountain were enticed to go down by the droves
And partake in the colorful and musical revelry of the children below.

Thus, the thoughts of man became increasingly evil continually!
And My children on the mountain, because of their aversion to evil—
Were crying out continually for My intervention!
The cries of the children of men also came before Me
Because of the giants that were begotten of the watchers—

Genesis chapter six: 1-4

(This could be a long haired giant crouching on a hill—holding out a sword toward a man who'd trekked a long way in the snow to offer something that may appease the giant)

Until I thought to destroy from earth, both man and beast that I had made!
It was My determination to send-down the shield of waters that surrounded earth,
And to break-up the waters of the deep
So that neither man nor beast could get breath and live!

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

Earth was cleansed to begin again in righteousness;
Noah and his sons and their wives knew that the life of man is in the blood,
And that without shedding of blood there is no remission of sin.
So it was, that when I savored the sweet smell of their offerings,
I made a covenant with man—to never again destroy the whole earth by water;
Nor even destroy every living thing from upon it. And as My sign for this covenant,
I gave to them the rainbow that I may look upon and remember My Promise!

Genesis chapter nine:8-17

After the first cleansing of earth from wickedness,
And men began to multiply again—
They were all of a gregarious sort, wanting to stick together
And build for themselves a great city!

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

I had allowed them to continue in one pure language;
And in the episode of the Tower of Babel—with their combined aspirations,
They were able to discover technologies you have not yet known in this—your day.

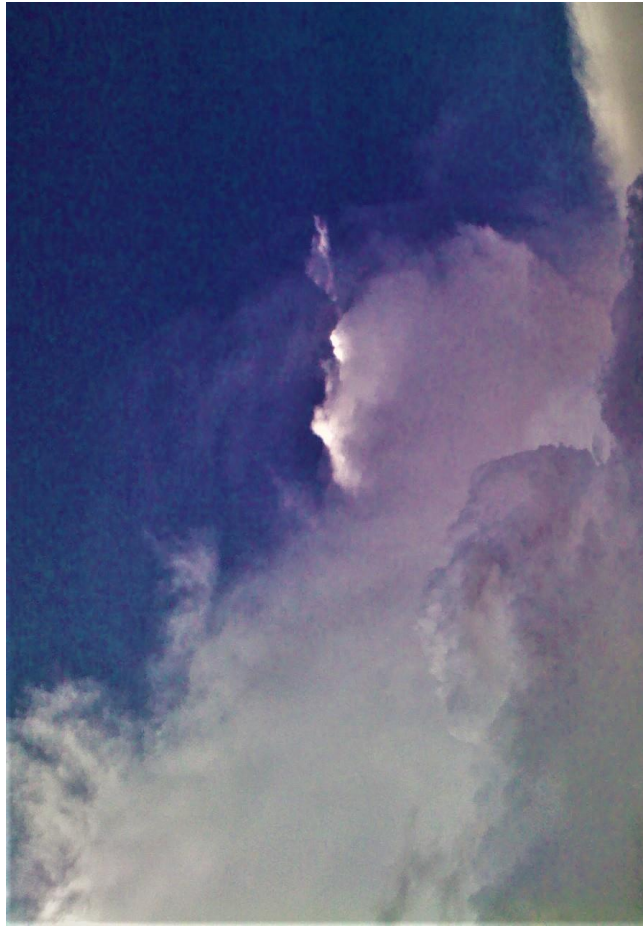

And as in every one of earth's Ages,
Their pride of knowledge led them to believe that
They could be in control of their own surroundings and destinies!
Therefore—I did apply a block to their thoughts
Which hindered their understanding of each other, and confused their minds—
So that each family of earth wandered away, seeking their own habitations.
But there was a family of earth that retained greater insights
Of wisdom and knowledge;
And it was out of that race called Chaldeans—that I called My friend, Abram,
To be the founding father of the Israelite nation:

And you have called this the Age of the Patriarchs.

Acts of the Apostles chapter seven

The Last Days of the Age of the Patriarchs ended When the Egyptian king

Moses and Pharaoh Exodus chapters seven -twelve

Assumed he had the knowledge and power to be in control
Of his destinies and surroundings, In spite of My instructions to
"Let My People Go!"
My judgments at that time were upon that king and his realm, and any others...
Even of My chosen family—who refused to honor My authority!

The 'Last Days' of the Age of the Israelites began
After their Babylonian captivity—
And I gave to My servant Daniel, the list of kings and governors
Who continually brought them under their rule, laying grievous burdens upon them
And even destroying or polluting their places of worship.
Your ancient historians have written of the Sheshachs
Setting themselves up as gods,

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

And eventually bringing their banners into My Temple!
But I allowed it because of the continual backslidings of My People,
And because of their rejections of My brokenhearted entreaties—
To acknowledge Me as their close friend and King!
During those years there was a follower of righteousness and lover of truth,
Being himself in the lineage of My Priests—who earned My respect and aid
In his brave acts of rebellion. You have called him Judas Maccabaeus,
And Daniel spoke of his clan as the people who knew their God
And were strong and did exploits!

Afterward, there was a powerful, wealthy king appointed to be governor in Israel,
Who allowed the Israelites freedom of worship.
To win their love and respect, he built for them a majestic temple;
And because it was also in honor of their God,
I allowed him to understand mysteries of technology
With which he built magnificent cities
That surpassed the fineries of the great cities of your day!

There were other peoples of the Last Days
Who shared in this advancement of Technology

Habakkuk chapter one: 8-10

And designed vehicles that supped-up My erring people

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

And carried them away captive to a far land.

Habakkuk chapter one: 8-10; Amos chapter four: 2

I also allowed the production of weapons of war that destroyed their cities
As Sodom and Gomorrah were overthrown.

Amos chapter four: 11

Yet My People did not take it to heart to seek My face

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

And turn from their wickedness!

But In the Day of My Passion, I had been as a worm unto them and despised in their sight. Everyone who saw me laughed me to scorn and said,
He trusted in The Lord That He would deliver Him,"
Because they knew that My delight was in My Elohim;
For it was He who took me out of the womb
And caused Me to hope When I was on My mother's breasts;
When My time was near, I cried unto Him to be not far from Me,
For they were all around Me like strong bulls and roaring lions.

Psalm twenty-two; Isaiah chapter fifty-two:13-15; John chapter eight:29

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

I was beaten until My visage was marred more than any man;
My heart was melted within My bowels; My tongue cleaved to My jaws;
My hands and My feet were pierced, and all My bones were out of joint and exposed to all that were there—just staring at Me;
And they were even some that were gambling with My garments!
But still My prayer was unto Him—that He would deliver Me from the lion's mouth
And I knew that My Father heard Me
Because I always did those things that pleased Him.

Although I had paid the ultimate price to purchase My People from their bondages,
Yet they spoke lies against Me and refused all of My counsel.
At times I was as a lion or leopard crouching by the wayside
As they went up to their high places—
Knowing that I would someday meet them as a bear bereaved of her whelps!
So I watched as they went up those elaborate steps,
Bearing My ointments and the babies that were rightfully Mine;

Ezekiel chapter sixteen: 20

Offering it all to the images of their fanciful gods!

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

I could have pounced upon them then; but I Am God—and not man!
Finally, I grew tired of punishing them; sending prophets each time to warn them;
And said: "I will go, and return unto My place,

Hosea chapter five:15

Till they acknowledge their offence and seek My face."
For I was broken with their whorish heart and their eyes gazing in adoration
Upon their golden idols and never upon their only true lover!

So, it was—that when the Cup of My Wrath was filled-up—

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

My determination to slay them with famine, evil beasts, pestilence, and sword—
Was carried out, And the saying was fulfilled:
"I will meet them as a bear bereaved of her Whelps!"

Hosea chapter thirteen: 8; Micah chapter one:3-5; Habakkuk chapter 3: 12-15

Yet the Remnant daughter that sought My face and trusted in Me—was sheltered;

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

And I carried her in the palm of My Hand!

Those were the 'Last Days' of the generations of the Israelites,
Ending with that Great Tribulation, that I have called 'The Day of The Lord'
And the establishment of the Mountain of the House of The Lord—
Exalted above the hills at Jerusalem.

Isaiah chapter two: 2 & Micah chapter 4: 1

After the 'Punishment of Jerusalem' and finally all the 'Wicked of the World',
There were only a righteous remnant left on earth.
They survived the devastations by hiding themselves in dens and caves,

And while sealed securely inside—their hearts could only meditate terror—
As in the fire of My jealousy I poured out My fierce anger
Upon the objects of My Wrath!
Some of them were spared because they were righteous;
Others were spared because they repented of their deeds
And turned unto Me with all their heart!

At that time, I made a new covenant with them
And also, all others who have not been called My People,
Yet desperately desire to be—and they are called the sons of the Living God.
And this new covenant is based upon laws that I write in soft repentant hearts
And not upon tables of stone. For My Fear had instilled within them a new heart!
It was at the End of the Israelite Age, that
There was no longer a need for the people I had sheltered
So that the Messiah would come forth with a pure DNA,
Born of a virgin of the Israelites—
So the one hundred forty-four thousand harvest of that Age was reaped,
Along with a repentant remnant from each of the Gentile nations;
And now My New Covenant is a better covenant built upon better promises
And is offered to all who come unto Me
Through the Blood of the Cross of My Only Begotten Son!

No matter what you have done in the flesh or even in your imaginations—
All may receive forgiveness and cleansing by following Me in My Regeneration!
Yet My promises to Abraham regarding his seed were still true and immitigable,
As long as the sun and the moon should remain.

Words About Latter Times of the Gentiles

My Church in these latter Days of your Times—will see radical change!
She is still "Zion" to Me. Although she is a 'people' who were not a 'people',
She is now called "The Children of God."
Yes—radical change is not only needed; but is the inevitable pre-requisite
In preparation for My Universal Kingdom on earth!

Babylon and Mystery Babylon—the beast that was, and was not; and yet is—

Zechariah chapter five: 5-11; The Revelation chapter seventeen:1-18 and chapter eighteen: 23

Was burned with fire in the Last Days of the Age of the Israelites;
Yet became alive again in the earth after the First Dominion of Messiah.

Now, when the kings of the earth consider that by her sorceries
They have been kept in darkness—they will hate her and burn her
With the fires of their newest technologies;
For they are now receiving concrete evidence of hidden technologies

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

That were used in ancient ages!
Modern teachers of eschatology will all have to change their stories;
And the church will experience Perestroika!

You are now nearing the culmination of your Age of the Gentiles—
The next being My Universal Kingdom.

Through My servant Isaiah I spoke and said, "When The Lord brings-again Zion,
His ministers will see eye-to-eye," and My Story will be True History.

Isaiah chapter fifty-two:8

At this moment, out of thousands of ministers on earth,
There are very few who see eye to eye
Regarding the subject of My former Coming for the destruction of Jerusalem
And finally all the wicked of the world—
As well as My coming at the End of the Age of the Gentiles!
When I came to punish Jerusalem and the wicked of the world,
I called it The Last Days—in which My Messianic Kingdom was birthed;
And you call that ensuing era that followed—the Dark Ages

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

Because Mystery Babylon has hid it from your sight!

In these latter Times of your generations the usual idea is that Man has evolved to a highly intelligent state...
To the contrary!—nations of the Saved have rather degraded themselves!
And out of lust for power and control of mankind,
Have used espionage and sabotage
On the works of great men and women who have found cures and keys
To higher, more economical qualities of life!

Yes, throughout all earth's Ages, I have allowed some who have feared before Me—
To be able to see into another dimension that is more real
Than that you can see with your temporal eyes;
And they have given you knowledge by which Civilization has advanced to higher levels!

Although in other of earth's Ages I have left potential for evil:
This time I have determined to cleanse your blood
Which I have not done worldwide since the disobedience of your first father.
This time, there will be no more sin in My Universal Kingdom on earth,
As there was during the First Dominion of Messiah:
For in that Age there remained—
Sorcerers, fornicators, murderers, idolaters and liars;
Although these were not allowed to enter the City of God.

And now I say also, to you—in your times which I have called "The Latter Days"
The cup of My wrath is once more nearing the brim
When it is time for the seven last plagues Written by My servant John.

Your scientists and astronomers are seeking madly
To devise ways in which to spare mankind—by encountering other planets
With atmosphere in which they would be able to survive!
They do not know of My great love for all of mankind!
They do not know I have created the heavens for the angels;
But the earth is for man; and they do not trust My plans for them!

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

I cannot come back to set-up My Universal Kingdom on earth
Until My ministers shall see With open eyes and heart—
Truth about My advents;
Truth... upon which I Am now directing a most brilliant light!

Proverbs chapter four: 18; also, see the Isaac Newton prophecy on page 11

Up until now; and since the beginning of the Age of Gentiles,
You have known as "Medieval Ages" ...
Mystery Babylon has been able to keep you in darkness
Regarding commencements and culminations of Earth's Ages!

The only way you will be able to survive through this 'Perestroika' is to Follow the same instructions I have laid-out for your ancestors
Concerning end-time events of earth's Ages:

Isaiah repeated My promise: "I will keep him in perfect peace Whose mind is stayed on Me; Because he trusts in Me!"
Hosea repeated My desire: "Turn to God; keep mercy and truth;
And wait on your God continually."

And as My servant Micah reported: "What does The Lord require of you but to Do Justly, To Love Mercy, and to Walk Humbly With Your God?"

These may also be summed up with the two statements I related to the scribe
Who came questioning regarding the greatest commandment:
"The Lord our God is One Lord, and you shall love The Lord your God with all your heart, soul, mind and strength; and you shall love your neighbor as yourself."

Another servant wrote in the canonized book you call James:
"If you love your neighbor as yourself, you do well."
To love your neighbor as yourself is to do no ill to anyone, and also—
Do unto them as you would have others do unto you.
By observance of these, you are walking in holiness and are perfect in My sight.

Some of My people today have become confused regarding My Holiness,
And are putting emphasis upon themselves and what they say, or do not say,
And what they put-on or do not put-on—
Instead of upon loving Me, and loving their neighbor.

In one of your gatherings Regarding the Times,
My faithful servant Jefferey revealed to you My heart concerning this matter
And I am very happy with what he did in allowing Me to Speak My mind
Concerning the gaudy make-up and jewelry that is worn upon the soul!
I'm saying to you: "there are hypocrites in every congregation of worshippers."
And as My servant Jefferey related:
"I will break forth with blessings upon praisers
Who come with loud and heartfelt praise;
But with fury upon those who come with hoopla, or are there to gaze."

Again, I want to remind you that you are nearing the last of the Latter Times
Of your Age of the Gentiles.
Continue to be strong and of a good courage!

John saw another sign in heaven: Seven angels with the seven last plagues,
That will fill-up My Wrath upon wickedness in the earth
Which I created and made for Myself.
Even now you are beginning to notice sores, and illness breaking out in some
Who refuse to acknowledge My influence upon their lives.
You have also noticed seas and oceans with tell-tale signs;

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

And these will grow worse;

But I am waiting until the sixth plague has been poured out—
To gather those who have kept their garments:
They are the 'called', 'chosen', and 'faithful.'
This time, I will not send My angels to bring you;
But I Myself will gather you to be with Me
In the Battle of the Great God at Armageddon!

The Revelation chapter 16:13-16

But as My faithful Apostle Paul taught: you must now, at this time,
Be willing to become nothing in this present world,
And humbly submit to being changed into My Image
From one level of glory to another—
Until you have totally completed your mission on earth.

Finally: To love the Lord your God with all your heart, soul, mind and strength;
And to love your neighbor as yourself is My only commandment to you.
In performance of this, you will willingly have completed any other instructions
Concerning Salvation from sickness and sin;
And in this, you will have life; and abide in My love and protection.

Epilogue

I have given to this messenger—signs in the clouds revealing differences Between the End of the Age of the Israelites and that of the Gentiles:
Notice them and you will have understanding of them both;
And then all the prophecies in your canonicity of My Word—
Will automatically fall into place!

As My Truths are revealed to the nations of this Latter Day,
Their kings will develop a deep hatred for Mystery Babylon
And her daughter-organizations,
And she will be burned with fire from the weapons of your latest technologies!

Now let Me tell you the Trajectory of these Truths
As they are hurled to humanity in this hour,
Like your philosophers have also said! At first the Words will be ridiculed, Then rigorously rejected, and finally Received as Reality upon consideration of their Explanations to the sciences of Archaeology, Astronomy and Geology!
And if some of My ministers continue to ridicule
Those who have already begun to Treasure these Truths,
They will have to be destroyed with Mystery Babylon
As she is burned with fire by those kings whose eyes are now being opened to see
The True Trajectory of her Traditions.....
For Mystery Babylon has had them deceived these hundreds of years
As she committed fornication with all the kingdoms of the world!
She has had them deceived into believing she is the only viable church
For all of earth's Ages!

Even ministers of My Word who claim to be teaching the Truth, the Whole Truth
And nothing but the Truth, are now joining with her
In trying to save their organizational status!
Have you not considered My warnings to "Come Out of Her, My People."?
For My Church is not at all an organization! Zion is an organism—
She is My Body upon earth!

Let me remind you also, of the vision shown to Zechariah,
Of the ephah that was wickedness:
At first it was one woman representing a 'church' that sat upon the ephah.
Later he saw two women with wings as of a stork and they were carrying it

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

To the Land of Shinar to set it upon its base and to build it a house.
The two women were the religions—or Babylons that have ruled the nations!

During the first Ages, she was merely "Babylon;"
And now—it is Mystery Babylon that has ruled
Since the end of that which you are calling the "Dark Ages."
Mystery Babylon is also the beast that has received a deadly wound
And then lives again with the false prophet.

Many have been lost during your generations because of your patronizing ways:
Saying "The Lord is coming soon!" When in fact I did come soon—
Exactly when I said I would—
When wickedness had an end, as described by My prophet Daniel!

Did not the writer of the epistle To the Hebrews scattered Abroad—tell them:
"He that shall come, will come, and will not tarry?"
It is because of the deceptions of the Mystery Babylon,
That you have had no desire To even wonder why your trusted elders
Have not believed My Word when—
Two thousand years ago, I said I was coming soon!

Other Seekers worldwide are being inspired by My Spirit
To write knowledge and instructions
For the end of your Age of the Gentiles;
But the words being written must not ever
Be in contradiction to any former or canonized writings of My Word to mankind!

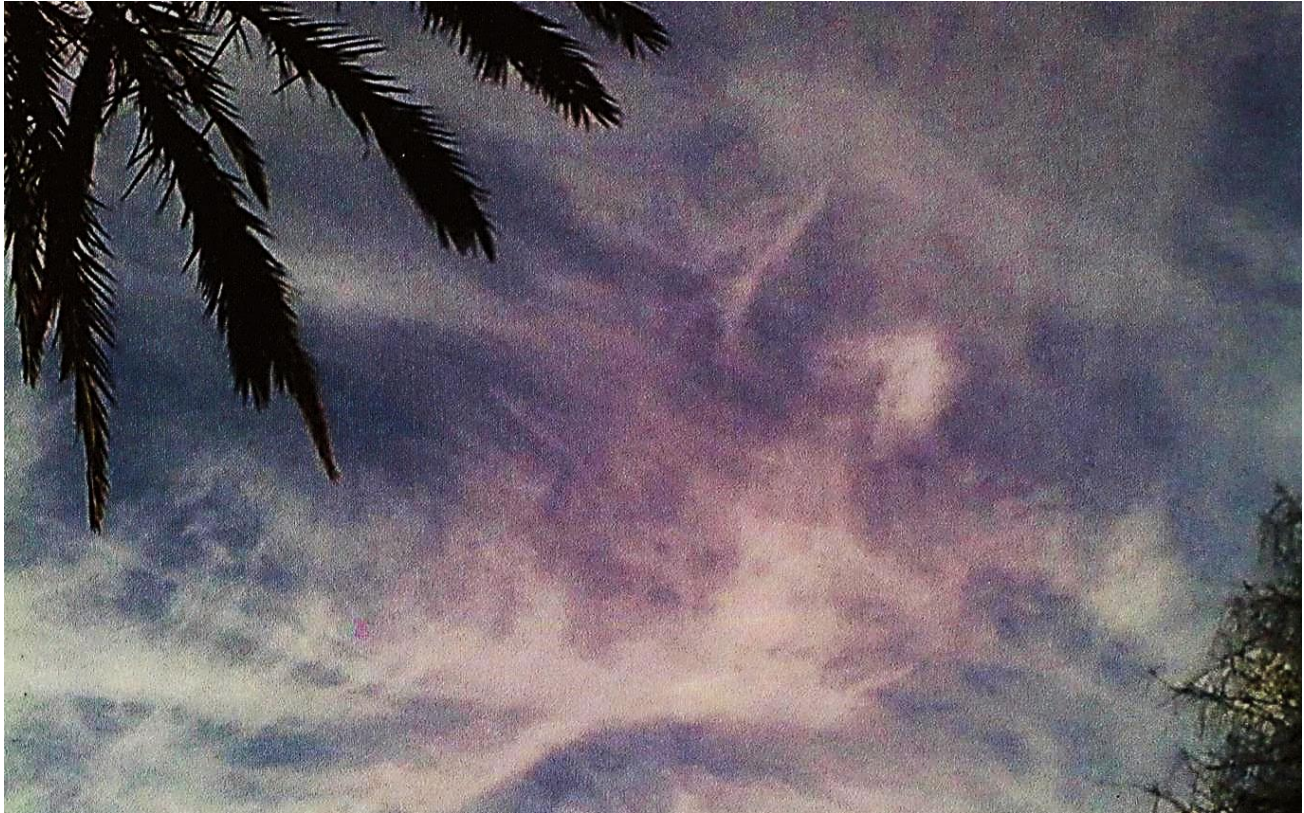

Although Mystery Babylon has omitted parts, switched chapters around
And changed names to protect the guilty,
I have preserved enough of My Word so that lives may be healed
And True history will triumph—leaving the deceptive lies of Mystery Babylon
In the dust of an ensuing age of enlightenment!

The "Day of The Lord" is mentioned in Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, Joel, Amos, Obadiah, Habakkuk, Zephaniah, Zechariah, and by the Apostles Paul and Peter. Other prophets have called it: Day of The Lord's Wrath, Day of Visitation, Day of Jezreel, Time of Jacob's Trouble, Day of Their Calamity, the Evil Day, Day of Retribution, Day of His Fierce Anger, Day of Indignation, Day of Wrath of The Lord, A Day of Slaughter

YHSWH (Jesus) drank the cup of wickedness given to him at the hand of mankind (in His passionate sacrifice of Himself on the cross) to homeopathically purge their sin and sickness (a woman is extending her arm out from the side of a dark funnel cloud, holding something to His mouth); and He is standing in judgment (behind a small round table); Now, the Cup of God's Wrath (dark cone-shaped cloud emptying into a spouted-cup) was full and ready to be poured-out unto the wicked who would not accept His sacrifice. Angels are gathering the Elect who followed YHSWH (Jesus); and to the left of the table, you may notice the (white) face of His Bride as she gazes in wide-eyed rapture toward the angels. Technological advances of the era are depicted by the appearance of an astronaut (toward the right side of the photo) and space stations as stars falling from the heavens just as the Lord revealed by Amos, ("Though they climb up to heaven, from there I will bring them down."); The cup full of God's Wrath is being poured-out upon the green earth (in the lower right corner) as it is being shaken and destroyed by whirlwinds, hurricanes, earthquakes, and volcanos. Some other objects of His Wrath are falling into an abyss (lower-left corner). The only ones left to repopulate earth are those righteous who were hiding in dens and caves of the earth. This was the Great Tribulation spoken-of by both Daniel and YHSWH—to that generation and for the End of that Age.

The Revelation chapter nineteen:11-16

At the end of the Gentile Age, YHSWH (Jesus) comes riding a white 'horse' [the original Greek word could also mean a number of other vehicles including vimanas]; out of His mouth goes a two-edged sword (depicting His Word); YHSWH (Jesus)—not the angels this time, is gathering all who have watched and kept their garments; He is gathering them to a place called in the Hebrew tongue—"Armageddon;" they are the armies following Him on "white horses" and clothed in fine linen, white and clean. Every island and mountain will disappear and there will be no more sea; nor 'time' as we realize it now. Those who have not kept their garments will look forward to God's final judgment at the 'Great White Throne'.

Afterword:

"Mystery Babylon has deceived the Nations!" Babylon was the religious systems of the world in times before Christ the Messiah; Mystery Babylon is the religious systems of the world during and after the First Dominion of the Messiah.

Jesus Christ the Son of God told His followers they would have tribulation; but that He would come soon to stand up for Himself and punish Jerusalem and then all the wicked of the world (full definition of the Greek word 'Parousia'). Those were the 'Last Days.' He had warned them through the prophets, to hide in dens and caves of the earth while He accomplished His Strange Act of Shaking the earth; He said their hearts would meditate terror, but their bread and water would be sure; He said there would be no scribe, journalist or auditor to tell what was taking place; He promised that after they were punished (they hid in caves for 45 days according to Daniel 12:12), He would perform miracles for them as when He brought them out of Egypt; He said the rulers of other nations would crawl out of their holes like worms and lay their hand upon their mouth when they heard the news of how Israel was again being prospered.

Although Mystery Babylon has deceived the Nations, deceptively hiding those writings of the ancient historians and prophets—that would reveal the most exciting Era of History... Now, in the Latter Days, by use of airplanes and satellites, we're finding that The Lord God has left plenty marks upon His earth—as proof of the First Dominion of Messiah during the Dark Ages.

In the ancient prophecies, Isaiah had told His erring people: "One thousand shall flee at the rebuke of one; at the rebuke of five shall ye flee: till ye be left as a beacon upon the top of a mountain, and as an ensign on an hill;" and perhaps the Candelabra at Paracas, Peru is that ensign—the Menorah!

Isaiah chapter thirty:15-17

During His reign, all families of earth were to appear at the New Jerusalem yearly, and enjoy a week of camping with the Messiah: it was called The Feast of Tabernacles (tents). Any of earth's families that did not attend the feast would have no rain on their crops.

How do you suppose the families of earth were able to travel to Jerusalem?

Since it has been discovered there were vimanas (we call them 'flying saucers') in use during the first millennia C.E. and before; then we may extrapolate the fact that The King of kings provided transportation, and left signs of this all over the earth! In the ancient prophecies YHWH said He would set signs among the nations.

"LET GOD BE GOD"

In those days there were 24 Zodiacal signs, for there were 24 elders who ruled the earth. Each family of earth had their own Zodiacal sign; and The Lord God with His technology, made sure there were signs on the ground for the purpose of directing His pilots to the proper area. In accomplishing this, He, by His Holy Watchers made geoglyphs and landing strips all over the world. NASA has them on their maps, and more airstrips are being discovered in Brazil as the rain forest is cleared.

Some of the most well preserved geoglyphs are those along the 'Nazca Lines' in Peru where rainfall has been measured at .03" per year. They are figures of various animals and insects drawn on the ground and are so large they can be recognized only from high in the air. This illustration of a monkey is one of the Nazca drawings.

The largest figures are at least 600 feet in diameter, with an entrance at one end, and a waiting-area inside the figure. Many geoglyphs worldwide resemble signs of the zodiac. Geoglyphs in the western United States of America are called 'Intaglios.'

If you are wondering what happened to the New Jerusalem... We learn from the book of Hebrews Chapter one, verses ten through twelve, that when one of earth's Ages begins to decay, it is folded up as a garment—and is changed! The First Dominion is now in another dimension, and that is exactly how the Kingdom of God can be within us—just as it was when our Lord walked on earth with His disciples!

As the cares of this temporal life abounded—more and more families became tired of the yearly trip to the New Jerusalem, and the Lord once more shortened the days for His Elect's sake. When He freed Satan from his prison, the devil lost no time in gathering the nations that had revolted from the edicts of the King of kings; and as that evil army descended upon the "Camp of the Saints, the Lord just 'folded up' His Kingdom and changed it; Satan's army became so confused they began destroying each other, using weapons that caused eyes and tongues to melt in both animals and man; Maya priests never returned to their temples & calendars; and likewise, any others camping at Jerusalem never returned to their hogans, tepees, and mountain dwellings. All that remained were a few folk on earth who had refused to join Satan's army.

With the discovery of the Higgs boson particle in the spring of 2012, we can see that as the First Dominion was removed from earth's atmosphere, it triggered a mighty upheaval of earth's elements: oceans roared, and Babylon's capital of that Age was swallowed-up by their billowing waves. "A great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea" and divers have found coins in the ruins of Alexandria of Egypt—dated to the eight hundreds.

If we can believe God spoke our universe into existence, then we can believe He could've spoken mathematical equations (simple, to Him) to take whatever He wanted—into a dimension invisible to us !

We may have to re-think every Word we thought we knew!

Exactly how was Mystery Babylon able to deceive the Nations?

- 1) It is said that the fifth century C.E. Roman Bishop Dionysius the Little collected more than four hundred printed books of various languages and translated them all into Latin—a language known only by highly educated men.
- 2) Of the works of Tacitus, First century Roman senator/historian—some whole books are missing, and parts of others are not to be found. He also provided a non-Christian view of the crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus Christ.
- 3) When the printing press was invented, anyone found printing the Bible in any common language—was hunted down to torture and kill.
- 4) The Aleppo Codex is a medieval bound manuscript of the Hebrew Bible. In the year 1947, the synagogue where it was kept at the Syrian town of Aleppo, was burned down and the manuscript disappeared. It was later smuggled into Jerusalem by a Syrian Jew in the year 1958. At that time nearly one third of the pages were missing.
- 5) The work of Mathematician/Scientist/Astronomer/Bible scholar Sir Isaac Newton—Chronologies of Ancient Kingdoms was revised; leaving out anything that would give hint to what really happened during the Dark Ages. It is evident, though, that his studies on Daniel's counting of years led him to believe the First Dominion of Messiah took place during the Dark Ages; and that he was living in the Age of the Gentiles. For example, by his saying that Jesus would not return until the year 2060 or later—we can be sure he was counting-in the years that Jerusalem would be trodden under foot of the Gentiles, and allowing at least eight hundred years for the First Dominion.

In the following pages, you will find lists of words and phrases that dl has found herself saying, and then writing on slips of paper now organized into files. She believes they were not given for her benefit alone; although collectively they have been an education for her writing. She also believes we have entered another age of enlightenment, and God is about giving similar words and phrases to anyone who wishes to be led into all truth—regardless of what we've been taught in the past.

When you find yourself thinking a word and then forming it with your tongue, or spelling it out—be sure to write it down, along with the date, at least, that it was received. You do not have to ask God for the words—only be willing to receive Truth; or to pray earnestly for someone whose name is given to you.

The same is true of the photos in this work. When you encounter a cloud formation that strikes you as really odd; then begin snapping photos of it every few seconds until it begins to fade. Transfer the photos to your computer and choose the one that most clearly represents whatever you've seen. In this way, dl has gotten striking sky pictures of a pterodactyl, sea horse, goat, calf, Noah's flood, Homer and Hesiod, and many more anomalies.

You must try it for yourself! God is always speaking to us—everywhere on earth. We must watch and pray, and listen for what He has to say!

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

dl also monitors a website called www.anewtalmud.net where you may find timeline lists of Words & Phrases and Names. She also has a website for the novel "His Story ≈ History" and "The Revelation of The Christ" - <http://hisstory-history.com>

This is her disclaimer: "If your name appears in my list, it is because it was given to me for prayer or for enlightenment on a subject of study; and could actually be for someone else who bears the same name. A name being on my list, in no way infers that a person by that name adheres to any of the beliefs expressed in this work."

Words and Phrases—Timeline

Review by: Date Entered/descending

019-06-28 4:50 am - Woke up saying "Isaiah 5:15." and figured that The Lord wasn't through with my research on the subject... it was the last thing I posted last night on Reasons to Think. Ooops! the mind can play tricks on you when you're only half-awake... My scripture last night was Isaiah 15:5 (not 5:15 :-)) regarding Moab and the cave-city Horonaim. Isaiah 5:14-16 says "Therefore hell hath enlarged herself, and opened her mouth without measure; and their glory and their multitude and their pomp, and he that rejoiceth shall descend into it. And the mean man shall be brought down, and the mighty man shall be humbled, and the eyes of the lofty shall be humbled: but the Lord of hosts shall be exalted in judgment; and God that is holy shall be sanctified in righteousness. I recall now, hearing something about the mean man and the mighty man in chapter two, describing a homosexual act. It says, "And the mean man boweth down, and the great man humbleth himself: Therefore, Forgive them not." And at the time of the C.E. 70 siege of Jerusalem the city was so filled with this type of lifestyle, that The Lord was calling the city "Sodom." But in verse 22, Ezekiel proclaims the "expected-End" that The Lord had for His people... There would be a remnant whose ways and doings would bring comfort after all that God would bring upon them, and it would be known that it was not without a cause He had done what He did with the four punishments: sword, famine, noisome beasts and disease. It's interesting to note that before Christ's perfect sacrifice, taking upon Himself the sins of the whole world as if He had done every kind of wicked act... the homosexual act could not be forgiven as it is now, after the Cross where He, in the days of His flesh became a curse for all humanity... There is now "no respect of persons" with Him.

2019-06-26 5:23 am - "alienated":

2019-06-18 6:45 am -Horonaim: a cave town, by ancient Hebrew definition.Both Isaiah and Jeremiah prophesied about Moab being a people that had not mingled with others, not even with strangers as God's people had done and at the end of the "Last Days of the Israelite" their scent (DNA) was still pure but they had worshipped and served gods of wood and stone and taught God's people to do the same. And so, they had to drink the cup of God's fury poured out during the Day of The Lord when He came to punish Jerusalem and the world for wickedness; but in Moab's demise God was weeping for them until his heart was sounding like pipes. God shook the earth (once, according to Haggai and book of Hebrews in the NT) and destroyed everything on its surface by fires from volcanoes spread by hurricanes and tornadoes (Jeremiah 25) while men hid in dens and caves of the earth. At Turkey there is an underground City called Derinkuyu that has several stories full of housing and other types of areas any large city would need for survival. Also in the far East there's an underground area that sports not only cities, but a river and lush valleys with towering rock features.

2019-06-07 4:37 am - Mithradates: did research... found a U-tube version of a warrior who lived a couple or so centuries before Christ and went conquering on the order of Alexander the great, but was finally outdone by the Romans. Shared the U-tube story on my Facebook page dl Andrews.

2019-05-29 At 5:38 pm - I was saying "truncate" meaning to shorten something by cutting off the top or the end or to shorten anything; "cut short." Synonyms are: foreshorten, nip, strip away, abridge, slip, slippage, lessen, let-down, let-up, shave, slash, step down... "Something traumatic may cause a person to truncate himself or herself in that way." "The divine Presence of God via the Ark of the Covenant was truncated from the temple at Jerusalem and given to a people who would show their appreciation."

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

2019-05-29 5:35 pm - Kebra Nagast: A 14th century account of Ethiopian religious activities written in an ancient South Semetic language that originated in modern-day Ethiopia and Eritrea. Wallis Budge, an English Egyptologist who worked for the British Museum created an English translation called The Glory of the Kings. It describes how Menelik, son of King Solomon and Makeda Queen of Sheba, along with fellows appointed to him by Solomon... went into the temple and took the Ark of the Covenant on their journey back to Ethiopia, causing the citizens of Judea to mourn for their "Zion" and other stories of those times in Ethiopia and in Judea.

2019-05-07 At 3:13 am - I wake with a very short vision of a young horse, all alone without saddle or rider and just running fast toward me, but almost as if dancing. The terrain is bare except it could be a seashore with ocean or sea to my right. The fledgling's head is high with nostrils and eyes dilated as if worried or scared. The word "fledgling" came to me and I recalled being given this word for research in the past and remembered it was descriptive of a young bird whose first feathers were grown and it was almost ready to be out on its own.

2019-05-04 5:07 am - segue - pronounced SEG-way: an imperative verb meaning: "to proceed to what follows without pause," or simply "a smooth transition from one topic or section to the next." When you segue in conversation, you change the topic so smoothly that people might not even notice. Comedians have this skill, as they segue from one joke to another the term is derived from the Italian word segue, meaning "follows." It is used as a direction in music and for films. The prophecies of the Bible from Moses to Malachi if taken literally, will segue through the story of Earth's Ages from the re-creation for Adam to the end of the Gentile Age in which we exist today.

2019-05-02 7:55 pm - Kolinda: Entered this on the "names" timeline, and prayed for this person; but felt urged to do research and found that Kolinda Grabar Kitarović is the current president of Croatia; their first woman president to be elected since the first multi-party election, and the youngest. She is a practicing Roman Catholic and declares adherence to traditional Christian values. Her party is "independent" and she holds to conservative values and reforms. Kolinda speaks fluently in Croatian, English, Spanish and Portuguese and has basic understanding of German, French and Italian. I see Kolinda as being chosen by God for this hour in the history of the world; not only by the gifts placed within; her beauty and peace-loving attitude; but also for the spirit of authority with which she speaks and commands.

2019-04-30 2:46 am - woke with a start with two words: "larger life" and imaginations of how a larger life may be; along with the memory of Jesus saying "I am come that you might have Life, and that you might have it More Abundantly."

2019-03-15 5:32 am - Efficacy: The degree to which a method or medicine brings about desired results is its "efficacy." Some children don't like to eat green vegetables, not having been taught their efficacy as a health benefit. Efficacy is a more formal way to say effectiveness, stemming from the Latin verb efficere... "to work out, or accomplish." The effectiveness, or efficacy of something is how well it works, or brings the desired results. A scientist does research to determine the efficacy of a medicine under development, or a homeopathic remedy. If it is efficacious, it will cure or prevent an illness or disease.

2019-03-14 1:23 am - inure: accustom someone to something, especially something unpleasant. Synonyms are: harden, toughen, season, familiarize, climatize, acclimatize, adjust, adapt, attune. Mystery Babylon robbed the Age of the Gentiles of their legacy they could have enjoyed, by committing genocide upon anyone who could read and write, thus pulling a covering over the eyes of the nations as written in the Bible, making the world oblivious to the technologies of ancient Ages and the First Dominion of the Messiah during the first 8 or 9 hundred years after His birth. Isaiah said that the covering will be removed from the same mountain where it was first placed, and that was Rome, and the Vatican hill where all the forbidden ancient documents are stored in secret libraries... Documents that will prove the existence of ancient high technology and the First Dominion of the Messiah that came to the remnant daughter of Jerusalem. It is my job, and I'm sure there are others who are called and given tools to inure Christ's followers of our generation... to the true legacies we could be enjoying as the Zion/body of Christ, of our generation. The tools I've been given are relevant "words and phrases" and photos of cloud formations illustrating the ancient prophecies.

2019-02-18 12:36 am - "Provost": 1) A person appointed to superintend or preside as administrative officer in any of various colleges and universities who holds high rank and is concerned with the curriculum, faculty appointments, etc. 2) Ecclesiastical: chief dignitary of a cathedral or collegiate church 3) An important official who helps to run a college or church

2019-02-12 10:36 am - "brandishing": I was talking to God and suddenly felt this awesome euphoria and said to Him "I can feel your liquid love brandishing me." and realized I wasn't sure of the meaning, so did research. Brandish: something that comes with a wave of excitement...flourish, wave, shake, wield, raise, swing, hold aloft, twirl, wag, swish, flap, display, flaunt

2019-01-18 9:16 am - Walking around doing housework thinking "In due process." My name is dl, my mission is to change the world and my credentials are all the photos illustrating ancient prophecies. The change will come in due process... in God's perfect timing!

2019-01-16 5:19 am - Woke with a dream I've woke-up with in the past... that I was finishing up writing a book and before printing I was checking it to see if it measured-up to the one in heaven. This time it was the book of Ephraim.

2019-01-10 3:51 am - Woke saying "She has a business plan... She has business goals."

2018-12-21 5:56 am - Woke this morning with this thought: People who set goals and move consistently toward them - earn more and live more than others who have not set any goals

2018-12-09 2:10 am - Igoro, a character in my next book.

2018-11-30 4:48 am - Trying to go back to sleep ... thought I heard Joel Osteen say "He'll bring you through this."

2018-11-08 8:28 am - Doing housework I began repeating the word "effigy" and looked up the meaning. An effigy is a crude figure representing someone who is hated. Are we Christ's effigy? Will the reproaches thrown at us form us more into His Image? We must retain the right attitude, being willing to be formed ... Our destiny in His invisible kingdom will be worth it all! His invisible kingdom is within us, but at the end of this Age of the Gentiles (The Revelation chapter 16) YHSWH gathers those who've kept their garments (in His "horses & chariots" which are ships and motherships) and He gathers them to a place called in the Hebrew "Armageddon" to fight in the last battle against evil. The earth will then be changed to have no Islands, mountains nor sea; there will be no more "dirt, blood and guts" to use General MacArthur's quotation; and everything will be everlasting, like streets made of gold, etc. "Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured and were destroyed of the destroyer. First Corinthians 10:10 In Every Thing Give Thanks; For this is the will of God in Christ YHSWH Concerning You. First Thessalonians 5:18

2018-10-14 7:17 am - I was thinking about the phrase "avid assumptions" and in looking up correct definitions, I found reasons to think about it. avid - having a keen interest-in, or enthusiasm for something. assumptions - things that are believed or accepted as true without noticeable or positive proof. YHSWH/Jesus said to Thomas, [the disciple who had told the others he would not believe except he could put his finger into the print of the nails and thrust his hand into His side] "Thomas, because you have seen Me, you have believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed." Two thousand years later, we have these avid assumptions that Christ the hope of glory is living inside us because He said, "Behold! I stand at the door and knock; if any man hear My voice and open the door - I will come in and will sup with him, and he with Me." as well as other "examples written for our admonition upon-whom the ends of the world are come." But how often do we take time to think of Him as the One who has prints of nails in His hands and a hole in His side from which His blood poured-out? The One Who took-on flesh and blood so that He could feel our infirmities? If we never take time to think about Him in this way, we take His Presence for granted and He doesn't receive the fellowship and praise of friendship He sooo greatly desires and deserves, and we miss-out on many favors He desperately desires to bestow upon us...

2018-09-30 6:48 am - Had gone back to sleep and woke up saying "Mountain after mountain shall be removed."

2018-09-23 8:53 pm - Was saying "waste-howling wilderness": Deuteronomy 32:10 "He (God) found him (Israel) in a desert land, and in the waste howling wilderness; He led him about, He instructed him, He kept him as the apple of His eye. I just did a research with Hebrew root-word meanings for the "cloud" that went before them that turned into a pillar of fire by night, leading them. Exodus 13:21: "And the Lord went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light; to go by day and night:" definitions are: Pillar - #5982 - `im eem from 6004; adverb or preposition, with (i.e. in conjunction with), in varied applications; specifically, equally with; often with prepositional prefix (and then usually unrepresented in English):--accompanying, against, and, as (X long as), before, beside, by (reason of), for all, from (among, between), in, like, more than, of, (un-)to, with(-al). see HEBREW for 06004 5973 `im eem from 6004; adverb or preposition, with (i.e. in conjunction with), in varied applications; specifically, equally with; often with prepositional prefix (and then usually unrepresented in English):--accompanying, against, and, as (X long as), before, beside, by (reason of), for all, from (among, between), in, like, more than, of, (un-)to, with(-al). see HEBREW for 06004:--accompanying, against, and, as (X long as), before, beside, by (reason of), for all, from (among, between), in, like, more than, of, (un-)to, with(-al). see HEBREW for 0 `ammuwd am-mood' or amud am-mood'; from 5975; a column (as standing); also a stand, i.e. platform:--X apiece, pillar. see HEBREW for #05975: cloud - #6051 `anan aw-nawn' from 6049; a cloud (as covering the sky), i.e. the nimbus or thunder-cloud:--cloud(-y). see HEBREW for 06049 6049 `anan aw-nan' a primitive root; to cover; used only as a denominative from 6051, to cloud over; figuratively, to act covertly, i.e. practise magic:--X bring, enchanter, Meonemin, observe(-r of) times, soothsayer, sorcerer. see HEBREW for 06051

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

2018-09-23 2:34 pm - began thinking about the word "estuary": It is the mouth of a large river where the tide meets the stream with a free connection to the open sea. Estuaries form a transition zone between river environments and maritime environments; used in the mid 16th century as denoting a tidal inlet of any size; from "aestus" meaning "tide."

2018-09-12 3:12am - woke up saying "The monkeys will change; they will all change for the better." and knew immediately it was confirmation that the change is coming soon. He gives me little clues in a way that sounds funny. He cherishes those times of teasing with us just as He did with His disciples when He came to them walking on the water. He knew it would scare them, and that He would calm their fears by saying "Don't be afraid; It's just Me!" And at the same time He was showing them scientific possibilities the knowledge of which had been lost in prior Ages of Earth's existence. He had already started the ball rolling when He discussed some of those things with world leaders in the Temple at Jerusalem at the age of twelve. He was at that time "about His Father's business" of educating them regarding higher technologies so that He could fulfill His determination to have everyone on earth at Jerusalem during the siege of C.E. seventy. Isaiah had said "He will hiss for them and they will come from the ends of the earth with speed, swiftly."

2018-09-06 8:29 am - "aversion": 1) a feeling of repugnance toward something with a desire to avoid or turn from it 2) a settled dislike 3) a tendency to extinguish a behavior or to avoid a thing or situation and especially a usually pleasurable one because it is or has been associated with a noxious stimulus 3) the act of turning away. [Because of my up-bringing and as a female, I have a very decisive aversion to trousers. At times I have even bought them thinking that because it is the norm for the times, I should become accustomed to them; I would love to be able to dress with pants to the foot and a blouse to the knee. :)]

2018-09-05 10:06 pm - "organize": Mr. Webster says it means 1) to form into a coherent unity or functioning whole 2) to set-up an administrative structure-for 3)to arrange by systematic planning and united effort 4) to form an organization

2018-09-02 5:24 pm – “prioritize”: to arrange in order of importance so that you may deal with the most important things before the others. God is dealing with me about the time being short ... He is about His business of changing the world by lifting the cover or veil Mystery Babylon cast upon all nations with her inquisitions, killing off everyone in the world who could read and write; but as Isaac Newton predicted ... now, about the time of the end, a body of men is being raised-up who will turn their attention to the prophecies and insist upon their literal interpretation. In the novel that God has given me to write, a group of theological seminary students are unraveling ancient mysteries that gives a true historical account of what really happened during Mystery Babylon's Dark Ages. History books will be re-written as the kings of the earth denounce every religion and religious organization in the world.

2018-09-02 4:44 am - “optimize”: 1) to make as effective, perfect, or useful as possible 2) to make the best-of (to make the best use of your time, energy, finances, talents and other capabilities, opportunities and any other situations or circumstances).

2018-08-26 6:00 am - Warwick: will make research...

2018-07-24 11:59 pm - "You must get your letters written.": Trying to go to sleep - dozed, then like I had a short dream and woke with these words and it has been on my mind to write letters to heads of state.

2018-07-20 6:51 am - Invictus: A popular poem from the late 19th century by William Ernest Henley. The name means "unconquered." The poet is proclaiming his strength in the face of adversity, and the last most popular lines: "I am the master of my Fate; I am the captain of my soul." - I used to look upon as statements we should not make; but now I can see how very true it is: that we are the master of our fate and captain of our soul because we are creatures created with power of choice; and the outcome of our fate and final destiny of our soul depends completely upon the choices that we make. But we have promises for when we fear God and submit to the work He has already begun in our life - He will complete it until our final day in the physical realm.

2018-07-18 2:14 am - "St. Monica Hi-backs"

2018-07-12 4:36 am - Nobleman: A man who belongs a high social class; If you say that someone is a noble person, you admire and respect them because they are unselfish and morally good. A noble idea, goal or action is admired because it is based on high moral principles.

2018-07-07 3:31 am - Woke up and began saying "Isaac, son of Abraham in Gerar" You can find the story in Genesis chapter 26, and using your imagination paired with other stories in the the Bible, this could be worked-up into quite a long epic story or book, sticking closely to the written Word of God.

2018-06-16 10:10 pm - "Essence": 1) a volatile substance or constituent. 2) The intrinsic nature or indispensable quality of something abstract that determines its character 3) a property or group of properties of something, without which it would not exist , or be what it is. "Quintessence": 1) The most perfect or typical example of a quality or class 2) the aspect of something regarded as the intrinsically central constituent of its character 3) a refined essence or extract of a substance 4) in classical and Medieval philosophy - a fifth substance in addition to the four elements thought to compose the heavenly bodies and to be latent in all things.

2018-06-12 early am - History is not what we were taught in school!

2018-03-28 7:41 am - "stark realities": utter, sheer, complete, literal realities. If you can believe that YHSWH reigned over the earth in His First Dominion during Mystery Babylon's Dark Ages; then folded-up His kingdom and changed it into another of earth's dimensions when Satan and his disgruntled army came up against the camp of the saints at Jerusalem - then all of the prophecies of the Bible will become stark realities and in your hunger to search them out, you will enjoy a most exhilarating ride! I promise you!!! I have been there, done that for the past twelve years and am still finding more stark realities verified by new archaeological finds and innovative scientific discoveries of our universe - already recorded in the pages of the Bible among the deceiving phrases of the translators' covering-up of many stark prophetic realities.

2018-03-25 4:14 am - woke and trying to go back to sleep I heard in my spirit the Lord YHSWH saying: "When will My people begin to literally believe what I said to the Scribes and Pharisees?" Did He not tell them they were hypocrites and just like their fathers who had killed the prophets, and their generation would fill-up the cup of His wrath that would be poured-out upon that generation? To begin believing these statements of Jesus found in Matthew chapter 23, we must first begin taking the ancient prophets literally!!! They outlined in detail those events that would take place at the end of that generation of Israelites! Why is it so hard to believe God could do anything He wanted-to with the earth, when we say we believe He created it in the first place - by His wisdom??? Why did God stand and measure the earth? as per the prophet Habakkuk... Why did Isaiah, Haggai and writer of the New Testament book Hebrews prophecy that God would shake the heaven and the earth? and Haggai say it would be "just a little while" Can we still say truthfully "If God said it, I believe it, and that settles it?"

2018-01-31 6:38 am - alienated: This morning I began musing on the word "alienated" - remembering Ezekiel used the word in relating God's words to Aholah and Aholibah the two branches of Israel. They wanted "one-night-stands" and military aid from other nations, but otherwise - they never thought about them; in other words: their minds were alienated from them! (Hebrew #3363 yaqa` a primitive root; properly, to sever oneself, i.e. to be dislocated; figuratively - to abandon; causatively - to impale (and thus allow to drop to pieces by rotting):--be alienated, depart, hang (up), be out of joint.) Ezekiel told Israel that because of their manner of life: God's mind was alienated from them! The Apostle Paul also used this word in Ephesians 4:18 and Colossians 1:21. Being the main minister of God to the Gentile nations - he encouraged his converts to not walk as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind - Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart. Then he reminded them they had not so-learned Christ; and encouraged them to put-off the former habits of the old man, which is corrupt according to deceitful lusts; and to be renewed in the spirit of their mind; And to put-on the new man, which like unto God, is created in righteousness and true holiness; and that's why we should put-away lying, and speak truth with our neighbour: for we are members one of another. Greek definition #526 apallotrioo - to estrange away, i.e. (passively and figuratively) to be non-participant:-- alienate, be alien. Perhaps, when we get up in the morning and go hurriedly about our day without making time for honoring God's Presence - thinking that it was sufficient that we have repented of former life, been baptized in His Name; and even received the Baptism of His Holy Spirit - could it be that our minds are alienated from Him for days at a time; and His mind may become alienated from us? Yes, we say our quick morning prayer and then fill our mind with things we have to do, without counting on His Presence as a friend that sticks closer than a brother throughout the rest of the day ... I've been guilty; and I suppose the reason for writing this, is that He has been reminding me throughout the days more and more - that He is right there to help me in all that I do. Thank You, YHSWH; and we can know we're forgiven when He reminds us, and we repent.

2017-12-30 6:27 am - "It is of The Lord's mercies that we are not consumed..." (the rest of the saying is in Lamentations 3:22,23 "because His compassions fail not; they are new every morning ... Great is Thy Faithfulness!" But in, or around the year C.E. 70, the consumming of all things prophesied by Isaiah, took place; and it is the story God wanted to be told to the nations, so that the "Fear of The Lord" would be upon all people: Isaiah 33:9-13: The earth mourneth and languished; Lebanon is ashamed and hewn down; Sharon is like a wilderness; and Bashan and Carmel shake-off their fruits. Now will I rise, saith the Lord; now will I be exalted; now will I lift up Myself!!! You shall conceive chaff, ... And the people shall be as the burnings of lime: as thorns cut-up shall they be burned in the fire. HEAR, YOU THAT ARE FAR-OFF, AND YOU THAT ARE NEAR - ACKNOWLEDGE MY MIGHT." Also see Isaiah chapter 34, and perhaps I should say the whole book, because the Lord told Isaiah he would be used as Salvation to the Gentiles; And also Jeremiah 25:13-33.

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

2017-12-30 8:01 am - Amraphel: I did research, and found that he is probably one and the same as Hammurabi, king of Babylon during the time of Abraham, and shortly after Lot's rescue. The old idea I'd had about Babylon and the land of Chaldea, was that everything to do with it was evil; but today, The Lord's instructions changed my thinking about that! He said that - altho some places on earth are known for wickedness, or evil; that does not mean their leaders, or other entities in those places are evil! It is my belief that Hamurabi was to Chaldea, the same as Melchizedek was to Canaan; that the Huangdi was to China; that Oden was to England and Scotland; and the list could go on and on. And I believe the "Code of Hammurabi" was imprinted by the finger of God - the same as the Ten Commandments were given to Moses on the Mount Sinai. There was no other way, at that time, or even in our times - for those marks to be set-in-stone so precisely, accurately, decisively, clearly - other than by the God of Creation - whether He gave the tools to Hammurabi ... or however. Jeremiah, in chapter 32 claims it was God, Who set the Signs and Wonders in Egypt, Lebanon, and to all other people of earth - by His loving kindness, and to make for Himself a Name! Praise the Lord!!! His fierce love has always extended to people of all parts of the earth!!!

2017-12-07 5:20 pm - Had a most amazing experience today! Yesterday I made a very important decision to accomplish something that may turn my life in a whole new direction; and asked my Father in heaven for a token of His approval. It appears He had been working in the background in various ways, and with certain people - to be able to give me that token of His approval. There were three or four persons I could've gone-to, to turn in my application; but the one to which I was called, had the name of one of the best-known Egyptian queens next to Cleopatra and Hatshepsut, and her demeanor, even - seemed to be that of a queen! insomuch that I wondered if I'd seen an angel. Now then, because of my recent interest and research into Egyptian history, I went to my car with a fresh realization that God is involved in every detail of our lives, and it pays to always do things that would be pleasing to Him.

2017-11-25 9:21 am - nemesis: 1) something or someone that always causes you major problems, like someone whose skills are similar to yours; yet always seems to finish ahead of you. 2) something that always causes you problems, like in public speaking - always getting tongue-tied when nervous 3) a type of affliction always causing misery 4) something or someone standing in the way of your total surrender to God and His will for your life.

2017-11-10 early am - "His ways are past finding out." Musing about this phrase, I went to the concordance and saw that Job said (9:1-10) "God ..... which doeth great things past finding out; Yea! and wonders without number..." Jeremiah, in chapter 32, said "Ah Lord God! Behold, You have made the heaven and the earth by Your great power and stretched out arm, and There is Nothing too hard for You! .....You have set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even unto this dayu (Yes, and they are there today in this 21st century A.D. because they're set in megalithic stone) and in Israel (ancient observatory at Lebanon), and among other men; and have made for Yourself a Name..." Apostle Paul wrote to the Romans, "Oh! the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are His judgments, and His ways - Past finding out!" If you watch TV at all, then you'll know that men today are wondering how, why, and Who made the megalithic structures worldwide; not taking time to consider Jeremiah's account and realize they are God's "calling cards" built to last as long as the physical world shall last; and how were they built??? ...His ways are past finding out! Remember - Job had said "He does things past finding out; and WONDERS WITHOUT NUMBER!"

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

2017-11-03 6:48 am - "effulgent": shining brightly; radiant - Having a difficult time waking up this morning, so was asking The Lord to give me the right train of thought, and proper feelings. Then this word came to me: "effulgent." I grabbed the cellphone and asked the meaning of "effulgent," and a voice spoke - "shining brightly; radiant." How awesome is our God! In 1st John 4:8 He is pure Love, and in John 8:12, Jesus said "I am the Light of the world; he that followeth Me shall not walk in darkness, but have the Light of Life." And by Jeremiah He said "Do not I fill heaven and earth?" God is everywhere we go - Yes! But It's up to me, to yield to that radiant Light and Love in every situation, everywhere we go, and allow Him to shine through us.

2017-11-02 6:06 am - inexorable: not able to stop. Isaiah prophesied the Messiah setting His face like a flint with an inexorable determination to go to Jerusalem and finish the work of man's redemption from evil - which His Father had given Him to do.

2017-10-29 7:22 am - while working in the kitchen I began musing about Pythagorus, an ancient philosopher, astronomer, scientist and spiritual leader. His life reminds me of Enoch's because it appears he walked with God and received knowledge and instruction from Him, and taught those things to a school of other men, who, along with Pythagorus - led very asthetic lives, striving to find the way to ascend into heaven without dying; as it was with Enoch.

2017-10-22 5:31 am - "The Lord will Not do Evil; Neither will He do Good." I read this last night, in the Bible! It's what the Israelites were saying while involved in the Siege of Jerusalem. Isaiah said The Lord had given them up to be spoiled and robbed because they would not walk in His ways until finally He poured upon them the fury of His anger, and they were in a fierce war, being set on fire all around; yet they did not lay it to heart, and realize it was punishment from God Himself! There was no fear of God in their land! But to get to the bottom line ... is that not what we are literally saying in our day? Speaking for myself also; MOST OF THE TIME, we go about our duties WITHOUT EXPECTATION that God is working in the background either for us, or against us, depending upon our submission to His will. When asked in an interview - what was the secret of his success: Joel Osteen answered there were two things he practiced every day; and that was (1) to live with expectation that God is doing something good in his life, and (2) that as far as humanly possible, he keeps his heart pure. And Joel's life and ministry are a blazing testimony to the power and lovingkindness of the All-mighty God of Creation.

2017-10-17 5:25 am - literal/literal-mindedness: As I woke this morning, the words "literal" and "literal mindedness" were rolling around in my head. What does it mean to be literal? I've heard it said of English mathematician, Alan Turing, that he was the most literal-minded person they had ever seen; and that by being literal-minded, he was able to go farther in his accomplishments than others of his caliber. But it is also said of this man, that he harbored a habit that to the British government was a crime - which eventually led him to commit suicide! So then this leads me to believe that being literal-minded about positive things can push you higher into obtaining favor with God and man; but being literal-minded about negative things can actually lead to destruction! So, I have come to the conclusion that being literal-minded is to concentrate deeply upon a task at hand, knowing the results will be as you expect. Or you can say it this way: "He that cometh to God must believe that HE IS, and that He is a rewarder of them that diligently seek Him." Hebrews 11:6

2017-10-13 2:55 am - Dross: looking up the word in the Bible I found in Ezekiel 22:18 "Son of man, the house of Israel is to Me become dross: all they are brass and tin and iron and lead in the midst of the furnace; they are even the dross of silver." Now I know what the dross of silver is when making colloidal silver, a liquid that kills germs upon contact. The c.s. generator sits on top of a glass quart jar, holding two 6" silver rods into the jar filled with distilled water and after three hours or so of having electric current oscillating between the silver rods, you have the final product of at least 30 parts per million of the silver-water that may be used to stop the breeding of dangerous germs, whether viral or fungal. A few places in the Old Testament allude to the fact that Colloidal silver was manufactured and sold in ancient ages. 1) Tyrus was a place similar to the stories of Atlantis, the Prince of Tyrus being a humanoid robot created in the Garden of Eden. They cast gold and silver as powder into the streets, and with every batch of c.s. I make, there is a residue of fine, powdery dross that is left in the filter. 2) In the Day of The Lord when they could not buy nor sell without the mark of the beast, Zephaniah said "they that bear silver" were cut-off. When I read that I could imagine at the sports events in the colosseum at Rome, Jerusalem and other great cities of the world at that time, there were those as today, that bare alcohol beverages, snacks and such as colloidal silver up and down the rows of bleachers. 3) Hosea said nettles would possess the pleasant places for their silver.

2017-10-07 12:55 am - protocol: a system of rules that explain the correct conduct and procedures to be followed. In formal situations: a plan for scientific experiment, for medical treatment, for governmental procedures, etc; in informal situations, it could be a daily schedule, or ethical rules to follow in any given situation. As relating to God: Nicodemus came to YHSWH, asking about the protocol for entering the kingdom of heaven, and YHSWH said he must be born again: by water and by Spirit; on the Day of Pentecost, Jews and proselytes asked what they should do, after finding they had killed the Lord of Glory, and Peter gave them this protocol: repent, and be baptized in the name of Jesus the Christ for the remission of sin, and they would be "filled with the Holy Ghost;" and on that day, 3000 souls were born again by Water and by Spirit." The ancient prophets gave protocols for escaping the wrath of God that would be poured out on the generation that refused and sought to destroy the Son of God.

2017-08-13 Mangosteen - A tropical evergreen tree widely available in several S.E. Asian regions and also in some regions of Africa; it's fruit often revered for its unique appearance and flavor, and as a storehouse of essential nutrients required for normal grown, development and overall nutritional well being. Its various antioxidants have healing properties which heal cells damaged by free radicals, slow down aging, and ward-off degenerative diseases and physical and mental deterioration. Other properties: it contains no saturated fats and is rich in dietary fiber; a good source of vitamin C; facilitates blood flow; promotes development of red blood cells; increases amount of blood flow to the eye, curbing cataracts, and improving vision; it has strong antibacterial and anti-fungal properties, so is effective for patients suffering from tuberculosis & cancer. Mangosteen also contains high amounts of minerals like copper, manganese, magnesium, potassium - providing protection against strokes and coronary heart diseases. It also contains anti-inflammatory properties. Powdered rind of the fruit, and its paste can be used to treat eczema and other skin disorders, as well as repair and protect your body's cells, and its nutrients can help you look more refreshed and youthful, and provide a boost of energy.

2017-07-17 7:45 am - "Othello": was saying this word, and so I researched, and read an English version of the Shakespearian play by that name. If Othello had allowed his love for his wife - to blind his eyes to rumors and even seemingly tangible evidence of dishonesty on her part ... He would not have destroyed the love of his life. When I asked God what the story meant in my life, He led me to Isaiah 42:19&20: "Who is blind, but My servant? or deaf as My messenger that I sent? Who is blind as he that is perfect, and blind as the Lord's servant? Seeing many things, but observes-not; opening the ears, but he hears-not." Jesus told us in His "Sermon on the Mount" - what it means - to be perfect: "But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you; that you may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for He makes His sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust ..... Be you, therefore - perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect."

2017-06-14 early am - "God would shake the heavens and the earth" - but when? Isaiah said in chapter 2, that it would be in the Last Days of Judah and Jerusalem, also called "The Day of The Lord." In chapter 12, Isaiah said it would be in the Day of The Lord and at the time of the destruction of Babylon, never again to be inhabited. The prophet Joel, in chapters 2 and 3, said it would be in the Day of The Lord, the time of the desolation of Egypt, and the cleansing of the blood of His people in Judah and Jerusalem, along with the promise that no strangers (aliens) would pass through her any more. The prophet Haggai said it would happen once; and it would be in just a little while - God would shake the heavens, the earth, the sea and the dry land, and all nations; and then the Desire of All Nations would come and fill His house. Jesus/YHSHW said (Matthew 24, Mark 13, Luke 21)it would be immediately after the tribulation of the Last Days of His disciples' generation, and after the gospel had been published among all nations (In Colossians chapter 1, Paul said the gospel had been preached - to every creature under heaven.) The author of the book of Hebrews said in chapter 12, that God would shake the heaven and the earth - once.

2017-06-13 8:14 am - Veracity: Conformity to facts, accuracy - When taken literally, the ancient prophecies as found in the Bible and some sacred texts of other nations - tell the story of the earth in veracity. On the other hand, much of the "Truth has been lost in translation." Isaac Newton

2017-06-12 1:15 am - Tengri: Ancient God of the mid-east or Asiatic countries. The way he is described, he was originally the same monotheistic God that the Israelites claimed; although since His adherents in that part of the world did not have scribes that faithfully copied information about Him - His image was marred by their descendants who did not love the Truth and Holiness.

2017-05-28 5:04 am - Sosthenes: Ruler of the Jewish Synagog at Corinth; was beaten by the Greeks for refusing to bring Apostle Paul into trial; and was included in the salutation of the Apostle's First Letter to the Corinthians - as being with him ... assuming it was the same Sosthenes that was beaten at Corinth.

2017-05-09 2:05 am - "Famed Secret" - During the night I awoke and began repeating this phrase, and thought of a reference in The Revelation of the Christ chapter eighteen, verses 23 and 24: "And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived. And in her (Mystery Babylon) was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth." (Basically: anyone who could read and write were slain, to silence the nations regarding high technologies of former ages, and the fact that the First Dominion of the Messiah had transpired during the Dark Ages ... this is Mystery Babylon's "famed secret."

2017-04-26 6:09 am - Had been up late last night, altho I woke early and thought I'd go back to sleep, but began saying "Akashic Record." In searching for an appropriate definition, I stumbled across this, on the Edgar Cayce site: "The Akashic Records, or "The Book of Life," can be equated to the universe's super-computer system. It is this system that acts as the central storehouse of all information for every individual who has ever lived upon the earth. More than just a reservoir of events, the Akashic Records contain every deed, word, feeling, thought, and intent that has ever occurred at any time in the history of the world. Much more than simply a memory storehouse, however, these Akashic Records are interactive in that they have a tremendous influence upon our everyday lives, our relationships, our feelings and belief systems, and the potential realities we draw toward us. Upon time and space is written the thoughts, the deeds, the activities of an entity – as in relationships to its environs, its hereditary influence; as directed – or judgment drawn by or according to what the entity's ideal is. Hence, as it has been oft called, the record is God's book of remembrance; and each entity, each soul – as the activities of a single day of an entity in the material world – either makes same good or bad or indifferent, depending upon the entity's application of self towards that which is the ideal manner for the use of time, opportunity and the expression of that for which each soul enters a material manifestation. The interpretation then as drawn here is with the desire and hope that, in opening this for the entity, the experience may be one of helpfulness and hopefulness."

Togarmah is another country aligned with Russia. He was a son of Gomer, son of Japheth (Genesis 10:1-3), known in Assyrian records as Tilgarimmu, a city state in Eastern Anatolia (Asia Minor, modern Turkey), more specifically "the south-eastern part of Turkey near the Syrian border." This identification is generally acknowledged by all. Once again, we have a region in present-day Turkey..... The other Russian allies of Ezekiel 38 are already in position. The watershed player is Turkey, which until recently, has not been in position for this Prophecy to be fulfilled because of its alliances with the West and Israel. However, the Flotilla Incident in 2010, when boats from Turkey tried to break the Israeli blockade of Gaza, resulting in the loss of life, has revealed the growing anti-Israel mood in Turkey. Relations with Israel are largely broken and Erdogan is enjoying popularity in the Islamic world for posturing as a strong leader against Israel. In his response, he has moved Turkey further away from the West, towards the East. He is also strengthening ties with Russia. Now it is not hard to see Turkey joining with all the other Islamic nations in their disastrous invasion of the Land of Israel. All the pieces have now come into place for Ezekiel 38 to be fulfilled! Turkey will join this end-time Islamic Coalition! It is no coincidence that the Muslim nation of Turkey, that has turned against Israel, stands right between Russia and the Israel, for this massive invasion from the far North must both go through and involve Turkey.

2017-04-18 Just thinking - Woke with a feeling I needed to pray; then afterwards, trying to go back to sleep, the thought came: we really need to believe in high-technology during Ancient Ages - not only for Rightly Dividing of the Word of Truth; but also for understanding of the Bible as we are reading it. By means of their Inquisitions, the churches of Rome, France and Spain killed off all Philosophers, Scientists, Astronomers, Physicians and anyone else who claimed knowledge of former Ages, and forbade anyone to translate the Bible into any common language. King Henry the VIII was the first king of England to rebel against the teachings and practices of the Roman Catholic Church, and afterward, kings of nations began making their own translations of the Greek and Hebrew scriptures - deciding for themselves which writings to include. So by the time King James made his translation, the common people knew nothing about technologies of former ages; and just as it is today - heads of nations may have had knowledge of former technologies; but withhold it from the commoner, to retain total control of the masses. As result, when the Hebrew word (and I will copy Strong's definition for you) - from an unused root meaning to skip (properly, for joy); a horse (as leaping); also a swallow (from its rapid flight):-- crane, horse((-back, -hoof)). 2017-04-02 1:54 pm - "emissaries" Those who are designated to be agents of another; perhaps secret agents. Many of my Facebook friends are emissaries of the Lord Jesus/YHSWH, to be used by Him in the building up of Zion so that He may return in His glory. "His watchmen will see eye to eye when the Lord shall bring again Zion." Isaiah 52:8; "When the Lord shall build up Zion, He shall appear in His glory." Psalm 102:16 "Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watches, and keeps his garments; lest he walk naked, and they see his shame. And He gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon." The Revelation 16:15-16

2017-04-01 8:18 am - Just thinking: "If God said it, I believe it, and that settles it!" Why should we have to wait until Mystery Babylon releases those bundles and stacks of ancient manuscripts from her secret libraries - before we begin taking the ancient prophecies literally? Let's think about this: Why would Jesus/YHSWH carry out His determination to melt His people in that furnace of affliction called the Siege of Jerusalem, if there would not be enough refined individuals to be able to carry out His plan of having a righteous nation to rule over; and from which to rule the earth? Isaiah said that His strange acts would accomplish His strange work of regeneration and their hearts would be purified! Isaiah said it would be in that same day ... The Day of The Lord ... the Mountain of the House of The Lord would be established in the tops of the hills at Jerusalem! Thank God for His faithfulness to His People!!! Their elect ones received their "rapture" and David reigned as king until the end of the First Dominion of the Messiah. Let us begin to think about, and claim our heritage as the Body of Christ -the Zion - the Church of the Age of the Gentiles, and enjoy working with our soon-coming King in the building up of Zion so that He may come in His glory! Psalm 102:13-28 and Hebrews 1:10-12

2017-03-19 12:55 am - woke from a turbulent dream: a newspaper entity in Prescott, Arizona had published an article about our Facebook page Let us Think, including information about the novel "HIS STORY is substantially the same as HISTORY."

2017-03-08 1:00 am - woke up thinking about sharing articles from other Facebook pages: I must read them entirely before sharing on our timeline.

2017-03-01 2:58 am - Woke up hearing a short loud blast kind of like a foghorn, or two keys next to each other on an organ - being played together; and at the same time, felt it in the left side of my back close to the pancreas area.

2017-02-21 1:23 am - Just thinking: If no one was wiser than King Solomon: neither before nor after... then his wisdom exceeded that of Albert Einstein who developed the A bomb and rocketry plus more; Werner Von Braun, by whose wisdom men travel to the moon and mars; Nikolai Tesla who harnessed electricity, developed a way for wireless electricity and hundreds more inventions of which we have never heard... Why, then - would it be so hard to believe Solomon's throne was like a helicopter, and he built mansions on top of inaccessible mountain mesas that are seen only from the sky, and lie in ruins today? Did he have "Camp David" type appointed meetings with the kings of the earth? Regarding Solomon's throne: if you check out the meanings of root words in the Hebrew, you'll find the top of the throne revolved, and the "lions" on the sides were like jet engines, or something having the meaning of violence + pluck-gather-pluck. King Solomon also wrote many wise sayings, and one of them is this: "It is the glory of God to conceal a thing; but it is the honor of kings to search out a matter." Proverbs 25:2

2017-02-12 3:33 am - Babylon and Mystery Babylon - the 2 women Zechariah saw carrying the ephah with a heavy lid of lead, and a talent of lead was cast inside: the first woman was Babylon of earth's ages before her destruction in C.E. 70, and the second woman is Mystery Babylon described in The Revelation as having deceived the nations. How has Mystery Babylon deceived the nations? 1) by changing names and times and seasons as the scriptures have noted. 2) They have covered up any information that would threaten their power over humanity; especially scientific and healing technologies. Take Joseph in the book of Genesis ... he must've been a very important character to God and to the world; as his story occupies at least a third of the book; but he is not acknowledged by the world as doing all that he did - by the power of his God, the creator of all. Then what about the translators of the Old Testament calling the Roman Empire "Assyrians" and the emperor "Sheshach." The kings of the earth will soon realize what the inquisition was all about, and will burn Mystery Babylon with the fires of their latest technology.

2017-02-09 8:01 am - Yesterday on Facebook, someone posted a beautiful harvest-oriented photo with this verse of scripture written upon it: "Blessed are they that do His commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city." During the Age of the Israelites beginning at Mt Sinai and ending with the C.E. 70 siege of Jerusalem, God's commandments were very grievous for them. Ezekiel related this: " Because they had not executed My judgments, but had despised My statutes, and had polluted My Sabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers' idols. Wherefore I gave them also statutes that were not good, and judgments whereby they should not live;" and the keeping of them WAS grievous to them because of their eyes being upon their idols instead of the One that brought them out of slavery. Now, because of Jesus' sacrifice of His own self to pay for our freedom from sickness and sin ... we have a new law that He writes in our soft repentant hearts; and that is His new law of LOVE! and the apostle John said that this new law is not grievous; and in the keeping of this law of love, we are fulfilling all the other commandments that affect our fellow-man.

2017-02-02 3:13 am - Just thinking; trying to go back to sleep: We like to say about the Bible: "If God said it, I believe it, and that settles it!" but if we knew it all, would we still be saying it? We all must admit there are portions of ... especially the King James Version of the Bible that are confusing, and so we just skip right over them ... thinking that someday, we will understand ... and that's ok, because God talks to us personally from His Word - giving us the food we need for the day.

2017-02-02 3:33 am - Just thinking again: I cannot believe I'm the only one out of thousands ... even millions of Believers - who has begun to feel an overwhelming drive to not just know; but to understand fully - portions of scripture that seem to be completely absurd! If you will admit it ... you have also begun to feel that drive, and have begun doing the same as I. Take, for instance the fifth chapter of the book of Judges, where in Deborah and Barak's prophetic song of victory - they were singing praises to God for helping them; but also giving honor to the various tribes that rose up to the occasion and did what they were gifted to do in gaining victory over the Canaanite king Jaban and Sisera, the captain of his armed forces - who had been harassing them for 20 years, with their chariots of iron! They had fled from their cities and were surviving in caves of the mountains, until they finally repented of their idolatry and began crying out to God. There are soo many parts of this chapter that are impossible to understand without going to a Hebrew dictionary and getting the meaning of the (usually "unused") root words. How could the stars of heaven fight in their courses against Sisera? What could the tribe of Dan do from the ships in which they remained?... I am desperate with desire to hear your story. Please write to me at PO Box 1, Avondale, AZ 85323; even if you do not agree ... I'm open for criticism, whether bad or good...or you may find my Facebook pages called "DI Andrews", "Doris Shankle" and "Let Us Think."

2017-01-31 5:45 pm - Just thinking: Is the Isle of Atlantis actually mentioned in the Bible? The Isle of Caphtor, by Hebrew definitions could be Atlantis. It is described as an encircled/wreath-shaped island with a central elevated hub from which the Philistines originated. Amos said God had brought the Israelites up out of Egypt, the Philistines out of Caphtor, and the Syrians out of Kir (they were taken captive and transported to Kir when Tiglath-Pileser had invaded Damascus); and the Caphtorim - inhabitants of Caphtor (Genesis 10:14) were descended from Ham through his son Mizraim. Never know what you might find while digging into the Hebrew meanings with a Strong's Dictionary of the Bible! When something doesn't make sense - just check out meanings for the individual words. For instance: what were the "white asses" in Judges chapter five; whose riders sat in judgment, walked by the way, were delivered from the noise of archers, and rehearsed the righteous acts of the Lord toward the inhabitants of His villages in Israel? The Lord Jesus is about His work of building up Zion in our age - so that He may come in His glory (Psalm 102:16-28 and Hebrews 1:10-12) Isaac Newton made this epic statement: "About the time of the end a body of men will be raised up who will turn their attention to the prophecies and insist upon their literal interpretation, in the midst of much clamor and opposition!"

2017-01-20 2:02 am - Just thinking (couldn't sleep): Reading through Isaiah ... If people could just take the prophecies of the Old and New Testaments literally, there would be much more fear of the Lord in the land! It is my estimation that the only reason it's hard to believe most of those prophecies were fulfilled in the first century, is that we don't believe God can do anything we have not seen nor heard-of ... like making things appear and disappear; but if you've ever heard of the Higgs boson particle discovery and all the possibilities connected with it; then why can we not believe He folded up that First Dominion Hebrews chapter one and Psalm 102) and changed all that was worth saving ... into another realm or dimension? ...Leaving Jerusalem a barren land after the northeastern armies came up against the "camp of the saints" (the last Shemitah Feast of Tabernacles of the First Dominion that had come to the remnant daughter of Jerusalem at the end of the Age of the Israelites) It was Ezekiel who described those armies as having been destroyed with atomic energy; and archaeologists have discovered a layer of greenish glass below the ground surface around Jerusalem.

2017-01-16 5:11 am - "Commendable": An act or quality that is admirable, awe-inspiring, impressive, respected, worthy of recognition and repetition... On Saturday my son who stays with me had a need for his business, and began praising God aloud for the answer, which was commendable ... it so happens, that we are keeping a dog for someone until they can find a new owner; and not being used to us, it barks and whines a lot. Later-on that day, I wanted it to be quiet, so I began singing thankful praises to God for helping her to be satisfied; and she immediately fell in line with my wishes. Praise the name of The Lord!

medicine. Moringa is used for anemia, arthritis and other joint pain, asthma, cancer, constipation, diabetes, diarrhea, epilepsy, stomach pain, stomach and intestinal ulcers, intestinal spasms, headache, heart problems, high blood pressure, kidney stones, fluid retention, thyroid disorders; and bacterial, fungal, viral, and parasitic infections. The leaf of this tree is said to contain more healing properties than any other herbal remedy. The root may be utilized for medicinal purposes also, but should be used only in certain circumstances, as it may cause nerve damage if not properly prescribed.

2016-12-16 4:17 pm - Just thinking: Have been busy with lots of research by consulting original Hebrew definitions of words used in the King James Version of the Bible. I've found that in many instances, the word translated as "horses" means something that goes rapidly, jumps and darts here and there; and are most likely the watchers in the heavens - also called sons of God by the writer of the book called Genesis. The "chariots" in Zechariah chapter six are actually four motherships with various colored spaceships coming out of them; and the "stars of heaven" that fought in their courses against Sisera's army were the Watchers in their spaceships. These also spoke to the Israelites at the wells of water - telling the wonderful works of God for His people, and encouraging them to go back and possess the gates of their cities.

2016-11-22 11:01 pm - "white magic": dozing off to sleep I awoke sharply with these words. I had an idea of its meaning; but went to the dictionary and was afterward convinced that it is not magic at all, because faith and creative spoken words are laws of the nature of our universe. The Bible teaches us that for a situation to be as we want it to be, we can call it into existence; we should never declare defeat, but positively call things that are not - as though they are. Faith is the substance of things hoped-for, and the evidence of things not-seen! Hebrews 11:1

2016-10-15 4:44 am - "fulcrum": a part of anything that serves as a hinge or support; one that supplies capability for action; this word comes from the Latin word fulcire - to prop up. In Psalm 102 we see a promise for the end of the age of the Gentiles in which we live today. Jesus will return in all His glory when Zion is built up. For this to happen, all religions and religious organizations must be torn down. What will be the fulcrum upon which this action is supported? [Missing manuscripts, hidden for thousands of years will be released by Mystery Babylon.]

2016-09-25 10:27 am - "A City on the sides of the North": In the 25th year of captivity in Babylon, and the 14th year after Jerusalem was burned, the hand of the Lord was on Ezekiel and he was taken in a vision, and set upon a very high mountain in Israel, by which was the frame of a city on the south. Then he saw a man whose appearance was like brass standing in the gate of this city - with something like a plumb-line in his hand, and a measuring stick. He told Ezekiel he had been brought there to take note of the city and everything in it, so that he could go back and declare it all to the house of Israel. By all appearances, it must have been Zion, the city of God that was beautiful for situation - "on the sides of the north" (Psalm 48) perhaps the same city Abraham and other heroes of faith in Hebrews chapter 11 were looking for - and I was surprised to see it was being offered to Israel at that time - if they'd only repent and turn to God, who made them and was still their king and friend. The city was real! It had already been built, but was invisible because according to Hebrews 11:1 - it takes faith to give things substance! This "law of faith" explains a lot of promises in the Bible...

2016-09-13 1:21 am - "Impervious":in grammar, it is an adjective: 1) not permitting penetration or passage; 2) incapable of being injured or impaired; 3) incapable of being persuaded, influenced, or affected; 4) non receptive. Refer to entry for 2016-08-15. I'm acquainted with people who are impervious to the truths found in the ancient prophecies when taken literally. They have been taught by trusted ministers - that the Great Tribulation is yet to come; and the "rapture" did not happen for the ones to whom it was promised - even though they were suffering the onslaughts of Nero and the rulers of their synagogues. They did not use musical instruments in their meetings together - not wanting to draw the attention of their persecutors. Thank God, that in our generations we are free to use and develop the beautiful gifts of music in our places of worship, and be impervious to the lies of demonic voices that try to keep us from receiving truth.

2016-09-12 1:09 am - woke up thinking about this: Students of Bible prophecy are beginning to realize they should take the prophecies literally; but are reluctant to do so - not being able to see visible evidence of the First Dominion of the Messiah. Why don't we just wake up and realize the God of creation can do anything! He has seemingly magical formulas that scientists know nothing about! How do angelic beings appear and disappear? Perhaps they have knowledge of how to operate in the "Higgs field" and how to manipulate the Higgs boson particle...? and what about "time warps" or whatever ... not having studied the sciences, I have not much knowledge of these phrases. Mystery Babylon will soon relinquish the facts that have been withheld from the nations; perhaps hidden within in her libraries of secrecy - and the blood of philosophers and martyrs of old will have retribution! Every false religion and religious organization not of the Gentile-age Zion - will crumble as the Lord builds up His Church ... and who will be willing to help Him, by forgetting their doctrinal issues and teaching simple faith in what Jesus did for all humanity at Calvary; and what we can become because of Him?

2016-09-07 11:55 pm - "In My Father's house are many mansions; and if it were not true, I would have told you." What are mansions for? To live-in? That means there's a lot of activity going-on in that dimension! Jesus also said, "I am come that they might have life; and that they might have it more abundantly." The Amplified Version: "I came that they may have {and} enjoy life, and have it in abundance (to the full, till it overflows)."

2016-08-28 5:30 am - Just thinking - Watched Joyce Meyer the other day and she said this: "God plays Hide & Seek ... He hides so that we'll seek Him." And I'm thinking ... He knows that our human nature is - to allow His presence to become commonplace in our minds ... but isn't it such a neat feeling He gives - when we do seek Him and He renews within our mind - the greatness of the privilege to be in the awesome presence of One who is our King; and not only king, but the Master Scientist and creator of all; and our redeemer from sin and sickness!

2016-08-24 12:59 am - was having trouble going to sleep; and a while after sleep finally came, I woke suddenly saying "Esarhaddon" ... wrote it down and went back to sleep, then woke shortly after 4:00 hearing two short sounds like popping of a bubble, and knew I was to research Esarhaddon. To my surprise - by Hebrew lexicon look-ups of words in the text - his father Sennacherib had bragged that he and his fleet had ascended to the heights of Lebanon, cut down their tall, strong ones; entered their lodgings and had sexual relations with strange (from another world) women. Sennacherib's youngest son was Esarhaddon, and was probably the offspring of that relationship and was destined to become king of Assyria. It came to pass that when Sennacherib had bragged against the Lord God; that the two older sons (perhaps out of jealousy) killed their father and fled to another country.

2016-07-10 late evening - Still thinking about Jeremiah chapter 32: Since God, in His loving kindness to men in all nations of earth—built for them magnificent cities, temples and obelisks that would have been impossible for any human being to accomplish; do you suppose that perhaps He sent to them their first kings and emperors with knowledge and wisdom to rule and develop civilization—just as He did for the Canaanites by sending King Melchizedek who was not only king, but also priest? We have no way to tell how long Melchizedek had been King of Salem; but we do know he was there in the days of Abraham; and was possibly the one to whom Isaac's wife Rebecca went when she wanted to enquire of the Lord about her pregnancy with Jacob and Esau.

2016-07-10 1:05 pm - just celebrating! Finding out that it was God who set the Pyramids of Giza and the Sphinx in the land of Egypt! I have books with pictures of various ancient ruins around the world that seemingly could not have been built by man, because of the enormity of the stones in the structures, and the way they are placed together so tightly and precisely, etc.! Now in reading chapter 32 of Jeremiah's prophecies - I can see that it was God who set them in those places, imprinted with writings and depictions of life that was indigenous to each civilization where they are located! Jeremiah had just been told to purchase property in Israel at the time the inhabitants of their cities were all carried away to Babylon, and the temple Solomon had built was being destroyed. But God told him that nothing was too hard for Him, and Jeremiah could see that His loving kindness for not only His people; but for men of other nations had moved Him to set signs and wonders in Egypt, in Israel, and among other men - to make for Himself a name; and they were still standing in Jeremiah's day. There's no way any human could have built these places; and no human entity can take them away!

2016-04-30 6:06 am - Went to sleep listening to Ezekiel chapters 36-48; and woke up remembering the "end-time" phrases sooo unequivocal to anything that could possibly transpire in the "last days" of our generations! and right now my mind has been drawn to the top of this page with an explosion of stars around the words "A New Talmud:" talmud meaning education and instruction. God wants us to remember He set the heavenly bodies for times and seasons. Astronomers tell us that in the year 2012 our universe entered another age of enlightenment; and that was the year of the Higgs boson particle discovery - the particle of the atom that causes everything to take on substance! And with this enlightenment - we can see how the ancient prophecies about Jesus bringing iniquity to an end were all played out by the C.E. seventies - along with His sharpened and furbished sword leaving dead bodies lying all over the earth; and then burning it off while His strange act of great tribulation had all the repentant ones hiding in dens and caves of the earth. His strange work of once and for all - cleansing the blood of His people was realized. He said "What do you think of Me?" (do you think I'm a weak coward) No! The furious jealous acts of the God of creation accomplished His desire to have a people who would love and serve Him; He said He would never have to do those strange things again. Satan and his evil forces did not win at the C.E. 70 siege of Jerusalem! Nor at the end of the First Dominion when he came up against the camp of the saints during the last Feast of Tabernacles for that age! Let God be God! He knows how to manipulate the "Higgs boson particle" to make a whole era disappear. He simply folds it up as a garment, and changes it, and begins again - Hebrews 1 and Psalm 102. He alone is God! and He still wants friends!

2016-04-19 3:54 am - Just thinking: Thinking about darkness and light. When I want to see something more clearly, I always get closer to the light. God wants to bring us out of darkness into His marvelous light.

2016-04-19 5:00 am - continuation of "darkness and light:" There is sooo much confusion about the "end of the age!" And all because Mystery Babylon (the religious systems of the world) hid all the truth about the dark ages. Someday soon, the scientific knowledge will be dug up, or found within a locked vault somewhere - that reveals how God and His angels and heavenly forces have always been able to appear physically and then disappear before the eyes of men. And I would venture to say it's all because of their ability to manipulate a little particle of the atoms that make-up anything visible to us. Believe it or not - the end did come for the age of the Israelites ... the writers of the New Testament were living in the Last Days. God became tired of fooling around with a people that had no respect for Him and His love - so He asked Ezekiel to judge them for Him; calling Ezekiel the son of man; and He had Ezekiel to cry out and say "An end! The end is come upon My people!" God then folded up that age as a garment is folded; and He changed it; and it was during that same day - the Day of The Lord - that the New Jerusalem was exalted above the hills of Jerusalem, and Jesus reigned for the length of the First Dominion Micah prophesied; and then that age was folded up and changed, and we are now living in the Age of the Gentiles! And there's no such thing as the "Age of Grace." God IS grace, mercy and love for all who believe. Isaac Newton's prophecy is now coming to pass - about men taking the prophecies literally at the end of the age; and it's all made possible because of God shining His light upon the reality of the little particle of the atom that causes substance! With this marvelous light, we can now see how God folds up each of earth's ages, changes them, and begins anew.

2016-04-18 3:22 am - Just thinking: We say we believe that Lot's wife was turned into a pillar of salt when she disobeyed God and turned to see what was happening at Sodom; perhaps hoping God would change His mind and allow her to continue using the credit card in her pocket, or whatever was on her mind. In the writings of Enoch we read about the giants that were becoming a threat to the human race; and for their punishment, God imprisoned them and their fathers the sons of God that left their first estate - in a valley of the mountains somewhere; and in watching videos of films taken from helicopters over the monumental areas of the southwest United States - you can imagine the same thing happening to them, as God did to Lot's wife in turning her into a pillar of salt. And since the discovery of the Higgs boson particle which opened up a whole new scope for more discovery - a person might wonder if that particle may be manipulated by God in many different ways with a variety of mathematical equations; and didn't Albert Einstein come close to figuring that out? Can God really do "anything?" If we believe He did those things in ancient ages; and believe He loves us as much as He did them - then why don't we just let God be God in our generations?

2016-04-09 midday - While cleaning the kitchen after breakfast, I was listening to Joel Osteen's messages on XM radio (recently obtained). He was talking about "unlocking your genes;" and I wondered how many messages did Jesus teach regarding His kingdom - that held similar scientific knowledge - thus making His kingdom more intriguing; and easier to grasp by the hearers!? In one of His messages, He told the multitude that their soul was worth more than gaining the whole world and all its pleasures; and that if anyone was ashamed of Him and His message - the Father in heaven would be ashamed of them. He then told them there were some standing there, who would not taste of death until they'd see the kingdom of God come with power... Did that mean they would be saved and enter His kingdom if they lived to see that day? What if one who was living at the time He came to set up His First Dominion - and they had been ashamed of Him and of His teaching? ...That's why we need to read the Old Testament as well as the New - to understand - many of Christ's and the apostles' sayings may be only scientifically understood! The Apostle Paul said - "If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature ... old things are passed away, and behold! - All things are become new! And if you've read God's message to Ezekiel - about the saying that the fathers have eaten wild grapes and the childrens' teeth are set on edge - you'll see that he was prophesying about the freedom (from generational curses held in the genes and chromosomes) - obtained by the washing of regeneration in the blood of the Lamb of God - when a person truly believes, repents of former worldly pleasures, and makes Jesus the Lord of their life.

comment; or i'm also on Facebook now as dl Andrews. I'm excitedly looking forward to learning anything the Lord has given to you; or I'd be happy to answer any questions to the best of my knowledge ... or any insight the Lord has entrusted me with. He dearly loves us all, and wants us to flow with the understanding He is giving of Himself and His agenda ... in this (possibly final) "age of enlightenment." His agenda for us - "the people which is to come" is to build up Zion so that He may come in His glory! Then He will fold up the Age of the Gentiles as a garment and change it - Psalm 102 and Hebrews 1:10-12.

2016-04-02 6:50 am - Just thinking: from listening to a CD of Ezekiel chapters 20-35, it's sooo easy to see the role of Alexander the Great in the stories about Egypt and Tyrus. He and his soldiers were the ones that were paid by the Lord God ... for taking Tyrus - by helping them to take Egypt also! Mystery Babylon was busy orchestrating her agenda - in the King James translation - by calling him Nebuchadnezzar King of Babylon! You can also see the role of Alexander the Great in the prophecies of Daniel: chapters seven through eleven.

2016-03-30 4:48 am = Just thinking: In every one of earth's ages since the fall of Adam and Eve - the Book is played-over! God is seeking a godly seed, so to speak - as stated by the ancient prophet Malachi. For the age of Adam's race, He raised up Seth, Enoch, and finally Abraham as progenitors for the people He would make strong for Himself (Psalm 80) out of which He would bring the man of His right hand that He'd make strong for Himself. In the Age of the Israelites, we see them as a people made strong both physically and spiritually through obedience to laws of cleanliness in habits for eating, work, and worship (could be stated more profoundly) In New Testament of the Bible times - Timothy, for one - came from a family that were made strong by those habits . And in every generation of our Age of the Gentiles, God has raised up "men of His right hand" in every nation, that would bring humanity back to a proper perspective of life (see Ezekiel 20 "he shall even live in them")

2016-03-30 5:47 am - Just thinking: On this Resurrection Sunday morning, we were listening to Joel Osteen's XM radio broadcast; and for the opening statement, his wife Victoria's oration about the heroic acts of the Son of God - made the hairs of my arms stand on end! These people have been raised up to bring our ideas about God - into proper perspective. On the day before - a bright and well-meaning lady told me - they don't listen-to, or watch the Joel Osteen ministry, because they heard it's a "prosperity message." If they would only listen just once, to a full message by Joel - they'd see that he teaches as Jesus did - with parables! and he teaches all the principles of the kingdom of God with an anointing that draws your heart to God and His ways of Life - without making you angry because he stepped on your toes, so to speak. I do believe ... that right now, God has ministers He has made strong for Himself - all over the earth - who are in this same way - building up Zion so that He (in the image that He made for Himself - that we can see physically ... YHSWH/Jesus) may come in His glory. Psalm 102 was written for a people to come - and that could be our generation.

2016-03-22 7:28 am - Just thinking - wanted to share a little song to sing in the shower; it goes like this: Everything that you do ... do it as unto Jesus; every thought that you think ... may it be pleasing to Him. He is our life and our strength ... much more than you'd ever think; sooo, everything that you do ... do it as unto Him. This is how you'd sing it in the key of c: (e)Everything (d)that (c)you (e)do ... (e)do it (g)as (f)un (e)to Je (d)sus; (f)every thought (e)that (d)you (f)think ... (f)may it be (g)plea (d)sing (d#)to (e)Him. (g)He is our life (f)and (e)our (g)strength ... much more than you'd (a) (g)ver (f)think; (g)so (f)oo, (e)everything (d)that (c)you (d)do ... do (e)it (d)as (c)un (b)to (c)Him.

2016-03-20 6:20 am - "maleo" - woke up saying this word, and upon looking up the definition on my cellphone: found - it's a bird that can fly as soon as it hatches. The mother lays her 4-5" long egg in the sands of an Indonesian island and watches over it until the young chick breaks out and flutters its way up to the freely abundant oxygen above ... and then they fly off into the shelter of the nearby forest. Now ... this is what I'm thinking about that: By all evidences - we're living in the latter times of the Age of the Gentiles; and God gave a prophecy by Isaiah ... that in the last days of the Israelites - a child would be born before Zion travailed ... and because sooo many prophecies in the Book are played-over in our generations - I believe God is doing a quick work in the lives of whosoever will come to Him for cleansing through His blood that's still flowing from Calvary (perhaps a part of the dark matter scientists today can see all around us and flowing right through us) - and make Him Lord and best friend of their life! And it's ministries like that given to Joel Osteen and others like him all over God's earth - that comprise the incubator that hatches these sons of God in our generation - that can fly as soon as they make up their mind to allow God to cleanse them and change them into His image. He is doing a quick work in these latter times of the Age of the Gentiles, and has ordained ministers who are helping Him to build up Zion so that He may come in His glory! Psalm 102 was written for a future generation; for a people to come - and that's ours! We give a big "Thank you" to these ministers that God has made strong for Himself (Psalm 80) - for remaining pliable in His hands.

2016-02-15 2:33 am - woke thinking about the Little Red Hen story; in our generation it was first widespread in the Russian language. This is my rendition: There was a little red hen that lived on a farm with a pig, a dog and a cat. The little red hen found a little wheat seed, and knew that something great could come of it; so she asked the pig, the dog and the cat if they would help her to plant it and they each said "I will not." So the little red hen said "Then I will." When the ground became dry around the seed, she asked each of them to help her water the seed, and they again said "I will not;" and the little red hen said "Then I will." When the wheat was ripe, the little red hen asked the pig, the dog and the cat to help her reap it and they each said "I will not;" and the little red hen said "Then I will." The same answer came with her pleas to help her thresh and grind the wheat and to make bread of the wheat flour; but when she said "Who will help me to eat the bread, the pig, the dog and the cat all said "I will;" and the little red hen said "You will not."

2016-01-28 early am - just thinking: by reading with understanding - Apostle Paul's second letter to the Corinthians chapter five, verses fourteen through twenty one - (keeping in mind the fact that we, and all things of earth were created for God's pleasure) we see that since Jesus Christ YHSWH died for the sins of all men of all time; then all should consider themselves to be dead to sin... But since this act of God did not take away our power of choice, sadly that does not happen! All men are not willing to live their lives unto God; but mostly for our own pleasure instead of unto Him who died and rose again for us! The apostle looked at every person in Christ - as a new spiritual creature from God Who was in Christ reconciling the world He had made for His pleasure - unto Himself - by the sacrifice of Jesus Christ the Lamb of God! And since He provided the way for our freedom from sin; He now expects us to carry on the ministry of reconciliation - having actually committed to us this ministry.

2016-01-13 1:52 pm - Just thinking - Last night I watched President Obama's Speech; and afterward, he took quite a bit of time greeting people - some of whom would hand him a program guide, notebook page, or even a scrap of paper for his autograph. At the end, there was this young man - beaming with joyful excitement - holding out a small note page to him; but the president was done; or perhaps he did not notice. To me, the young man's face held the expression of possibly being a follower of Christ, and I thought: Why should it matter - when you can have the Name of the King of all kings written upon your 2015-11-02 early am - Just thinking: So much of the time, we take the crucifixion of the Lamb of God for granted, so to speak. Perhaps we've entertained the feeling that since He was also God, it wasn't so hard on Him??? !!! Actually, at that time, He felt the Father had forsaken Him momentarily, while all the sins of everyone of all earth's ages - were placed upon Him, just as if He was the one who had committed them! He was bearing our sins and carrying our sorrows. In the Psalm 22 prophecy we see He, at that time felt like a worm and not a man; He was despised by people, and being loudly ridiculed. People were shaking their head and saying "He trusted in the Lord, let Him rescue Him;" people were circling around Him like wild bulls gaping at Him, and roaring at Him like a raging lion! We can't imagine how unmercifully He was beaten-up, but the prophecy said that all of His bones were out of Joint! Can you imagine how badly He was disfigured? Isaiah said in chapter 52:13-15 that His visage was so marred more than any man; and His form - more than the sons of men - no one was ever beaten so badly as He! There was no one to help Him; His heart was melted like wax within; His strength was completely gone and His tongue was sticking to His jaws; His hands and feet were nailed with spikes to a cross, and His bones stuck out while people were staring; and on the sidelines, people were dividing His garments and gambling for them. In the Photos page of this website, there's a cloud formation that resembles what He may have looked like during the crucifixion, and if you'll notice, there's a bright white crown on His head; and there was one hope to which He clung: He knew His Father would not completely forsake Him because He always did those things that please Him. And then, around forty years later, He revealed Himself in all His glory as Who He said He was - to the same soldiers that had pierced Him, and to the High Priest who had questioned Him - Read it in the first chapter of the Bible book "The Revelation of Jesus Christ" and in Matthew chapter 26, verses 63,64.

2015-10-31 6:45 am - To understand the prophecies, there are at least three things we must consider: 1) King Solomon of Israel's statement "That which has been is now; that which is to come has already been; and God requires that which is past." Think about this in the area of earth science and technology - can we believe it? God said there would never be anyone who would attain unto the wisdom of Solomon; and there was never a human before him who had. So we must believe that by the end of every one of earth's ages - all the scientific and technological knowledge and inventions would have been known, and in use; but destroyed by God at the end of each age - because God requires it of men; 2) In the Bible book called Hebrews (chapter one) and also in Psalms (102) we see that when one of earth's ages begins to decay, God simply folds it up as a garment and changes it, and that the children of the righteous live on (in another dimension?); 3) When Jesus, at the age of twelve, spent at least five days in the temple asking questions of learned men from all over the world, and giving them answers, - it was God's way of getting the world ready for the end of that age; for His audience included not only rulers of the temple - but doctors, lawyers and scientists. 4) Now I'm thinking of a fourth: In the book called The Revelation of Jesus Christ, God said that Mystery Babylon has deceived the nations; and we know that the early religious organizations hunted down and killed anyone who dared teach those things of the Dark Ages they had surreptitiously hidden from the common people - even commanding the people be taught in Latin - a language they did not understand.

2015-10-31 7:30 am - three more items gleaned from the Bible that will help us understand the ancient prophesies; and also to drop each into the proper slot as to which of earth's ages it's for: 1) After Jesus shared information with masters of the universe at the age of twelve, do you think His parents would have wanted Him to remain in their home and be open to predators wanting more information? After all - they, too were amazed at the wisdom coming from Him that day they found Him in the temple. There were at least two of the prophets who said that He would grow up out of His place; 2) the Greek word "parousia" carries a meaning not only the coming of Christ for the righteous; but also His coming to punish Jerusalem and all the wicked of the world - and Jeremiah said it so well in chapter 25, as well as almost all of "Isaiah", "Zechariah", "Haggai", "Nahum", and more; 3) Another way Mystery Babylon has deceived the Gentile nations is by changing names in the Bible, and switching chapter around within some of the books - for example: the Romans are called Assyrians in the Old Testament; spaceships and Motherships are called horses in the book "Zechariah"; and the two women that carried the ephah to set it upon its base at Babylon are the religious organizations of earth called Babylon and Mystery Babylon; they are also the beast that lived again in the book "The Revelation."

2015-10-29 8:00 am - just thinking about Yom Kippur and Ramadan: under the Old Covenant those holy days were necessary. Under the New Covenant our Redeemer YHSWH cleanses us from all sin as we walk in the Light as He is in the Light (1 John 1:7). Then in Matthew chapter 5 - we see something of how He is - in perfection. He sends rain upon the just and upon the unjust alike. Could we walk in that light? Then we can walk in perfection, with the blood of Jesus Christ cleansing us from mistakes at all times; but we can't walk in those mistakes - and He even helps us out with that, by allowing us to have to pay for those mistakes (may be painful in some way). One afternoon last week I was listening to 1010 radio in the Phoenix AZ area: A program called The Narrow Path came on, and I heard Steve Greg the narrator describe these truths so neatly! When we follow Christ in His Regeneration, it is possible to enjoy friendship with Him every single day - regardless of our temporal feelings and emotions.

2015-10-27 6:44 am - Yom Kippur: (this is my observance) a Judean holy day established (Leviticus 16:29) for a Day of Atonement, celebrated yearly beginning at sundown on the ninth day of the seventh Hebrew month, at which time a complete fast is begun and no productive work is performed until sundown of the tenth day. On the tenth day, five prayer services are held which include the reading of certain parts of the Torah; confession of sins; apologizing to God, with promise to never return to those sins; petitions for forgiveness; and sacrificial offerings that are made only in their prayers since the destruction of the second Temple at Jerusalem. The main theme for this day is: to be returned to a pristine state of body, mind, soul and spirit.

2015-10-27 7:44 am - "Ramadan": (this is my observance) a ritual held during every day of the ninth month of the Islamic lunar calendar. This month is used to re-evaluate their lives in light of Islamic guidance; make peace with those who've wronged them; strengthen ties with family and friends and do away with bad habits: essentially - to clean up their lives, thoughts and feelings. It is a time to cleanse the soul from impurities and re-focus one's self on the worship of God. Every day of this month, Muslims and Buddhists spend daylight hours in a complete fast, which is much more than not eating and drinking. During Ramadan, every part of the body must be restrained: the tongue - from backbiting and gossip; the eyes - from looking at unlawful things; the hand - not to touch or take anything that does not belong to it; the ears - from listening to idle talk or obscene words; the feet - from going to sinful places.

2015-10-08 9:15 am - "malleable": 1) capable of being extended or shaped under pressure or blows without breaking;; 2) capable of being altered or controlled by outside forces or influences.

2015-09-13 7:30 am - just a thought: I was in a second hand store with a friend; she found a beautifully decorated plaque in the shape of a cross that had this inscription: "With God, all things are possible. Matthew 19:26b" Luke said it this way: "The things which are impossible with men, are possible with God" Luke 18:27. When I saw my friend's purchase, it immediately brought to mind the discovery of the Higgs boson particle that was called by some scientists - the God Particle. It's the part of the atom that gives substance to whatever. It could also be called "faith" because in Hebrews 11:1 we see "faith is the substance of things hoped-for; the evidence of things not seen." With this bit of scientific knowledge in mind, it's much easier to take the ancient prophecies literally - knowing it's possible that the Assyrian/Roman king was burned in Tophet as prophesied by Isaiah, and the New Jerusalem was exalted above the hills and all nations flowed into it; and the First Dominion of Messiah was folded up and changed at around the year C.E. 800. We can take all those prophecies literally, by believing that - with God, all things are possible.

2015-09-08 6:30 am - "things that are made": In Hebrews chapter 12 the writer is saying - things that are made may be shaken and removed; but things invisible, that are not made with hands or machinery - will remain. We read in Jeremiah chapter 25, how that when the wickedness of all nations had filled up God's cup of wrath - they were all made to drink, and fall. They were warned to take notice when God would begin to bring evil against the city called by His Name. Jeremiah said the Lord would mightily roar and give a shout against all the inhabitants of the earth. He had a controversy with the nations for what they had done in serving themselves of His People: If they must be punished; then so should the rest of earth's inhabitants! Isaiah said God would shake the earth and the heavens would roll back as a scroll (chapter 34), and Revelation 6:14-15 says it this way: "And the heavens departed as a scroll when it is rolled together, and every mountain and island were moved out of their places and the kings of the earth, and the great men, the rich men, the chief captains, the mighty men, every bond man and every free man hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains..." Bodies of those slain lay from one end of the earth to the other; then God in His mercy burned it all off with fire from volcanos, etc. The earth was cleansed for the repentant remnant to have a fresh start. All visible signs of wickedness had been shaken and dissolved; but there were still those invisible demons from the giants that perished in Noah's flood - left to try the children of men; we can't see them, but we can see the products of their works. God is also invisible; but we can see the products of His works.

2015-09-06 midday - "Ariel": 1) gatherer of food; 2) altar of God and of judgment; 3) scene of a holocaust. Isaiah 29:1-8 refers to the C.E. 70 Siege of Jerusalem. I had been wondering why God, at times, called Jerusalem—Ariel. Did research and found these meanings. Isaiah chapter 29 is in reference to Jerusalem during and after the siege of C.E. seventy. (The A.D. method of counting years should refer only to the years of the First Dominion of Messiah; as it means "in the year of the Great King.") "Gatherer" as part of the meaning is showing fulfillment of the prophecies that the Lord would gather all of Israel from all the world; to melt them at Jerusalem as metals are melted—in the fire of His great wrath upon the generation of His wrath: the generation that rejected Him.

2015=09-04 6:36 am - If Jesus. The Only Begotten Son of God, at the age of twelve—told His parents He must be about His heavenly Father's business—do you think He procrastinated? There are at least two prophecies in the Old Testament saying He would grow up out of His place. Sure! After He spent at least five days in the Temple at Jerusalem with the masters of the world; answering their questions and giving them all kinds of information that would enable them to make inventions that would be of use to God also in His agenda of bringing to a close that Age of earth's existence—yes: He did go back home with Mary and Joseph as subject unto them. Yet they feared God enough to know that it was time for Jesus to begin doing whatever His Father had sent Him to do; and His mission was—taking the message of the Kingdom of God to all the lost sheep of the house of Israel. Besides, They would not have wanted Jesus' life to be held in danger because of word leaking out that He was a mastermind of wisdom and knowledge. Oh, I almost forgot to say something that would back up the verity of this message; and that is: we can be sure of God's purpose for His Only Begotten Son's visit in the Temple at that time, because of King Solomon's statement in the message of 04/03/15. At the end of each Age, God requires knowledge of past wisdom. And even though wise men of humanity go beyond, and make inventions for wicked purposes; it was prophesied that some repented when the fierce anger of God was unleashed upon them, and God forgave their inventions and had mercy upon them. For this great love, we thank You, and praise Your holy Name!

2015-09-03 early am - "God requires that which is past.": This type of quotation by the wisest man ever to live on earth—has a purpose, and should not be passed-by nonchalantly! In the 9th century B.C. when King Solomon said "That which has been is now, and that which is to come has already been," he was saying that all the modern technologies in use during his times, and all that would be discovered in the future—had already been at some point in the past: either in another area or era of earth's existence. But then he added this statement: "And God requires that which is past." And by this, he was saying that before each time the earth was folded up and changed—all possible technologies would have been discovered and invented. Can you imagine what the world was like in the year C.E. 70? It was the end of an age for all of earth's inhabitants! And every possible technology had been invented and in use by the end of that Era. We say we believe every Word of God—Can we believe this?

2015-08-31 8:40 pm - "Negev": a desert region of southern Israel; Judah's tribe inhabited the northern part and Simeon the southern; it has been a trade route for spices; those who live there are mostly tent dwellers; and Beersheba has been the main city of that area. It must've included Midian and Cushan mentioned in Habakkuk 3:7—whose curtains trembled when God stood and measured the earth to drive asunder the nations and scatter the everlasting mountains.

2015-08-07 7:59 am - If every minister of the gospel; every Bible commentary and scholar; every layman minister; and every school of education fails to acknowledge the events of the C.E. seventies and the Dark Ages as the ancient prophets have described them - does that mean these things never took place? The book of the Revelation says that Mystery Babylon has deceived the nations... But she's not the only one keeping the ancient mysteries from the rank and file of humanity! It's also heads of nations that are keeping their citizens in the dark - hiding realities! Albert Einstein said, "Blind belief in authority is the greatest enemy of truth" The truth is: God can do anything! How did He snatch Judah out of the midst of Jerusalem during that last war? How did He "save the tents of Judah first, so that Ephraim and the inhabitants of Jerusalem would not boast about winning the war when the jealousy rose in God's face and He strengthened them to fight and turn the battle to the gate; even giving them some type of machinery to work with - while the enemy outside the city were turning their hand on each other with weapons that caused their eyes and tongues to melt - ? According to Hebrews 1:10-12, God can even take one of earth's ages that's ready to decay; fold it up like a garment, and change it (into another dimension of earth?)! I want to know Him!

2015-08-06 12:24 am - We have no idea Who God is: when we can lightly explain-away His Word as if it weren't there! I was listening to Psalms before going to sleep: sooo much of it is prophecy of things happening in the Day of The Lord and the C.E. 70 siege of Jerusalem - there's no other time for some of those things to have taken place!

The fan was working for me, keeping me comfortable; it was my part of the work in helping to build up Zion of the Gentile Age! The world needs to know what happened during the Day of The Lord and the Dark Ages. When this information is found, perhaps by archaeologists or some other entity, - all other religions will have no platform upon which to stand; and we can help the Lord to build up Zion - a comfort to all! and the Lord will come in His glory! Psalm 102:13-22 and Hebrews 1:10-12 And I need to stop pushing it out of the way in lieu of other things!

2015-07-13 early am - The Lord used my cat to confirm a very important rule regarding how to act in "church." Yesterday I was in a worship service at Fire and Water in Phoenix AZ. The Presence of God was felt as most everyone worshipped with joyful shouting and jumping. With most everyone joining in, it was easy to enter in and enjoy worshipping with all your heart, soul, mind and strength; and Pastor Gus was anointed to keep us praising, saying just the right things to help us realize the Presence of the true God, Creator of all, Who gives us all things to enjoy - as long as we enter-in and receive all that He offers. There were people with me who did not enter in with their strength, as the moment demanded, and they left the same way they came. This morning, I gave my cat a little of the soft food he loves; it wasn't as much as he usually gets, but this time there was a little gel, which he licked up and pressed out of the rest. When he refused to eat the rest, I locked him away from my presence with the food he didn't eat - and immediately thought about how God feels when we have opportunity to worship and feel His awesome Presence without "eating it up!"

Meaning of the Greek word Eureka - "I have found it!"

2015-06-23 4:44 pm - Was there a reason why the Lord God of all creation allowed the "Christians" of the Age of the Gentiles - to call Him by the name Jesus instead of the name He was known-by to the Israelites? Yes! Before He destroyed all wickedness from Earth in the seventies, even they had reinvented Him as a god who did not require holiness, and were calling Him Baali! (per Hosea)

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

Mystery Babylon covered up the true personality of YHSWH, who is to be feared as well as loved - and substituted a personality that's weak and does not require His holiness! When we can elevate our image of Him to His proper place - then He will reveal His true Name and we will know the power of His might!

2015-06-23 2:05 am - "He stayeth His Rough Wind in the day of the East Wind" - Isaiah 27:8 can be explained by Isaiah in chapter 25, especially verse 4 - For Thou hast been a strength to the poor, a strength to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat - when the blast from the Terrible Ones is as a storm against the wall" - God allowed the Sheshach and his forces to destroy and bring all nations under his control; Jerusalem being the last - and then He, the real Lord of all the Earth allowed His Rough Wind to clean dissolve all the rest of wickedness from the Earth in His Day: the Day of The Lord!

The Count said he had nothing to respond; then Napoleon said this: "Well then, I will tell you: Alexander, Caesar, Charlemagne and I have founded great empires; but upon what did these creations of our genius depend? Upon force? Yes! Jesus alone, founded His empire upon love; and to this very day, millions will die for Him. I think I understand something of human nature, and I tell you: all these were men, and I'm a man; but no one else is like this Jesus! He seems to me to be more than a man. I have inspired multitudes with such an enthusiastic devotion - they would have died for me; but to do this it was necessary that I should be visibly present with the electrifying influence of my looks, my words, & my voice. When I saw men and spoke to them I lighted up the flame of self devotion in their hearts; - Jesus alone has succeeded in so raising the mind of a man toward the unseen, that it becomes insensible to the barriers of time and space. Across a chasm of 1800 years, Jesus Christ makes a demand which is beyond all others - difficult to satisfy: He asks for that which a philosopher may often seek in vain at the hand of his friends, or a father of his children, or a bride of her spouse, or a man of his brother ... This Jesus asks for your heart! He will have it entirely to Himself; He demands it unconditionally; and forthwith His demand seems to be granted! ...Wonderful! In defiance of time and space, the soul of a man with all its fears and faculties becomes an annexation to the empire of Jesus! All who sincerely believe in Him experience such a remarkable supernatural love for Him! This phenomenon is unaccountable to me. It is altogether beyond the scope of man's creative powers. Time - the great destroyer, is powerless to destroy the sacred flame; time can neither exhaust its strength nor put a limit to its range. This is it which strikes me most - I have often thought of it - This is what proves to me quite convincingly - The Divinity of Jesus Christ!

2014-11-17 5:30 am - "The Lord delights in them that rise up unto Him in peace."

2014-11-12 5:16 am - "What is The Day of The Lord?" 1) a day not to be desired - Amos 5:18 - He actually said: "woe unto you that desire the Day of The Lord..." ; 2) A Day of Darkness and gloominess - Joel 2:2; 3) A Day of Wrath, Trouble, Distress, Wasteness, Desolation, Darkness and Gloominess Clouds and Thick darkness; 4) A Day of Trumpet and Alarm against the fenced cities and high towers (cities of Israel in 70 A.D.); 5) A Day when The Lord would make a speedy riddance of all that dwelt in the land - Zephaniah 15:18 (Compare with Ezekiel chapter seven).

What else happened in the Day of The Lord when the towers fell? Isaiah chapter 30: there were rivers and streams of waters upon every high mountain and high hill; the light of the moon was as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun was sevenfold; The Lord bound up the breach of His People, and healed the stroke of their wound

2014-10-20 6:46 am - Holiness: holiness is Love, Joy, Peace, Long suffering, Gentleness, Goodness, Faithfulness, Meekness and Temperance. It's a good thing that Yahweh, the one true God - is holy! Just think about it! His Wisdom controls Earth's ocean tides, Earth's Seasons, and the Movements of Heavenly bodies so that man may know what to expect in all his work that he does "under the sun." It is true - that man's 'crimes against nature' causes problems for himself and others; but God is faithful and doesn't mess with the courses of Heavenly bodies just because of the sins of one man or of one nation! He related by the ancient prophet Hosea: "I will not execute the fierceness of My anger (at that time); I will not return to destroy Ephraim: for I am God, and not man: the Holy One in the midst of thee; and I will not enter into the city."

seeing the mystery of God that was revealed to the Early Church which is: CHRIST IN YOU - THE HOPE OF GLORY.

2014-10-11 4:44 am - Three reasons why we have difficulty recognizing God's Presence: 1) We have little knowledge of Who God Is: what He is like and what He can do (because we haven't taken the ancient prophecies literally: He wanted the nations to know what He had done in the day of His fierce anger; and without recent scientific discoveries alongside archaeological and geological realities, it's been fairly inconceivable - that He actually shook the Earth and burned off all evidence of man's wicked inventions while saved people of all nations hid miles inside of sandstone caves, meditating the terror that was going on outside - and then worked miracles for them as when the Hebrews came out of Egypt). 2) We don't believe He'll do for us what His Word declares He'll do (He has no "respect of persons"; How do we feel when someone doesn't believe our word?) 3) Because of our disobedience to what we know would please God. (Jesus said: "The Father has not left me, because I always do those things that please Him.")

You must realize I am calling out My own - out of every religion and religious organization! Some are coming out hurt and confused and Your agenda (if you have been walking humbly with Me) at this late hour, is to forsake worldly desires and pray earnestly for those coming out; and minister to their needs in My Name and Capacity. You must not ask from them, anything; and take for your needs, only that which is offered in love. Do not voice your needs to them; for I Am your provider, and know all things. And as I have said before: to love the Lord your God with all your heart, soul, mind and strength, and love your neighbor as yourself - is your catalyst for all deliverance."

2014-10-04 2:02 pm - "To understand the ancient prophecies, you have to believe in an explosion of higher technology toward the ends of Earth's Ages."

2014-10-03 4:45 am - God began talking to me about His name. In Apostle Paul's letter to the Romans - chapter 1, he talks about even those who have never heard of God, being able to know Him through things that are made; for example, the sun is its own light; but the moon can have light only as the sun shines upon it; which may be compared to the Father and the Son; so all men everywhere may know about God by things that are made. But each one may call Him by a different name - a name that has meaning in their own language - although when they pray to Him by whatever name they have given Him - it is translated before it reaches the throne - by whatever is in the heart of the one praying to Him. For example: in the Far East He is known as Issa, the ancient people of the Americas named Him Quetzalcoatl, and Egypt's Akhenaten combined the Re and Shu to be the one powerful God and the only one to be worshipped, calling Him Aten and writing many hymns to Him and denouncing all priesthood that did not worship Him. We in the Americas today know Him as Jesus. That name is sacred to us; and when we pray in that name with a sincere heart, He honors it and translates it to the throne of God.

We are in the Latter Times of the Gentile Age and the Book is played-over in that knowledge is increased and men are running to and fro; but the End of this Age is very different from the End of the old Jerusalem and all wickedness of the world in the seventies. The Jews today have no idols to throw to the moles and the bats as when they entered into caves and dens of the Earth to hide themselves while meditating the terror transpiring outside; Jerusalem has no temple for Jesus to appear suddenly and 2014-08-31 6:06 am - "Personal Issues": The Lord said to me—You have way too many personal issues and diverse agendas. You want Me to return and rapture you into My Personal Space at an undue time for My Predetermined Return at the End of the Age of the Gentiles! You are too busy spinning your webs of personal issues and agendas; that do not even include the data given in the Bible regarding My Agenda for the Latter Days of your Age. It is not in My agenda—to punish Jerusalem a second time; you will not find that—there! My Agenda is to tear down all religions and religious organizations until they have no leg to stand upon; My People will come out of them and I will build up My Zion in the Age of the Gentiles. Psalm one-o-two was written for you! When all your agendas become one with Mine—that will be the catalyst for all deliverance! My People who are now under religious bondage will be delivered and healed of all religious issues; you will hear of wars and rumors of war; but I will come in My Glory only when Zion is built to perfection! You have this saying: "Prayer changes things." Do you believe I can do this? Or are the deceptions of Mystery Babylon lingering as scales to cover your eyes to this understanding? You must wash off these scales in the pure water of My Word—taking literally, the ancient prophecies instead of twisting them to fit your own agendas; for when I come, My ministers will be seeing eye-to-eye!

2014-08-27 8:55 am - "host": (in the Bible) a great number of people or other entities that are under command; (in society) one who receives and entertains guests, or organizes for an event; (in biology) an animal or plant on which another organism lives; (ecclesiastical) The consecrated bread or wafer of the Eucharist; (Computer Science) a computer that provides facilities to other computers and their users. (It is my estimation, that by the 70s of the common era, because of technical info. given by Jesus at the age of twelve - to master-minds of all the Earth along with material wealth - there was a host of space stations and outer-space activity corrupting the heavens; and that is why God had to bring them down and renew the heavens while Earth went through a period of time when it was neither light nor dark. That was a day that was not understood by man - a day known only to The Lord.)

2014-08-08 7:40 am - How ironic!... King David wrote Psalm 102:13-22 for a generation to come; that would be created: "You will arise and have mercy upon Zion (The Lord's body on Earth); for the set time to favor her - yes, the set time has come!...So the heathen shall fear the name of The lord, and all the kings of the Earth - Your glory! When The Lord shall build up Zion, He will appear in His glory!" What is so ironic about that? News reports for the last few weeks, have been of ungodly religions ousting anyone who will not cleave to their beliefs and practices and they are leaving - some even being stranded upon mountains... But the Book is played-over for all generations! He said through the ancient prophets that He would perform miracles for them as when the Hebrews came out of Egypt. He has always used evil nations to accomplish His will, and then when He has gathered His own from their midst, He brings destruction upon the evil. His people should not fear, but thank Him for what is happening, and trust Him to provide for them. He is gathering and building up His body on Earth, for the time when He shall appear in His Glory is near!

2014-08-01 12:38pm - By saying that Jesus did not come into His kingdom "the First Dominion of Messiah" we are robbing ourselves of the heritage we should have as living in the Age of the Gentiles! There were 24 elders = 12 O.T. prophets and 12 apostles of The Lord - who fell on their faces and worshipped God saying "We give Thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which are, and were, and are to come; because You have taken unto Yourself Your great power, and have reigned." In our thinking that Jesus has not yet reigned - what's wrong with this picture?! Why were there not 36 elders; or why not any leaders of the Gentile Age Church honored to rule and reign with Christ? What about great men of God like Martin Luther, the Wesley brothers, Wm. Tyndale, Jonathan Edwards, Isaac Newton, Billy Sunday, Ellen G. White, John G. Lake, Smith Wigglesworth, Kathryn Kuhlman, William Branham, Charles Spurgeon, Ford Porter and the like? Will not these men and women of God rule and reign with Christ during His next Kingdom Age? By her deceptions, Mystery Babylon has robbed us of our heritage as Christ's body on Earth during the Age of the Gentiles!

2014-07-30 2:00 pm - "Every prophecy has a mate." - Isaiah 34:16: Seek ye out of the book of the Lord and read: no one of these shall fail; none shall want her mate: for My mouth (Yahweh's mouth) it hath commanded; and His Spirit it hath gathered them. Isaiah also prophesied (chapter 40:4) about mountains being leveled and valleys being filled-in, to prepare for the revealing of the glory of the Lord; Josephus in his "Wars of the Jews" book 5:3:2 related the fulfillment of that prophecy when he described how the Roman armies had cut down all the trees and vegetation around Jerusalem, and shaved-down the hills - to fill in all the valleys and low places - to have sure-footing for the use of their engines of war! Josephus also describes the fulfillment of Revelation 14:20 in book 6, chapter 8; and fulfillment of Amos 5:3, in book 5, chapter 13.

2014-07-28 6:00 am - According to Psalm 102, Jesus cannot come back for His Church until His people become interested in His agenda - to build again Zion (the Church)! From what I've heard: believers -in-Jesus' main interest is being delivered from a life of problems and temptations, and in not being "left behind." Isn't that a sign that our love is centered upon ourselves and our agenda - instead of upon Him and His agenda? He will come back as soon as He builds-again Zion! According to the entire meaning of the Greek word "parousia" He returned at the end of the Age of the Israelites - to punish them and all of the wicked of the whole world, leaving dead bodies laying all over the earth with none to bury them. Oh, yes, He had already sent His angels to gather His Elect that followed Him in His agenda.

2014-07-27 5:30 am - "By the offense of one..." By the offense of one, sin reigns unto death; By the righteousness of One, grace reigns unto Life everlasting. 2014-07-27 4:52 am - The Lord God allowed the kingdoms of men to reign over the Earth by the power of choice - until the cup of wickedness and of His wrath was finally filled to the brim. Then He stood up for Himself and His own agenda for Earth; took unto Himself His great power; and reigned! When wicked men killed the Lord of Glory - that was their day and the power of darkness; The Day of the Lord was His day - when He stood up for Himself and righteousness, and reigned!

peoples that were different - as in stature, including villages of tiny people. From Psalm 102, we learn that Jesus will return only after all religions and religious organizations have been torn down, and He builds up His body in the Earth (Zion) and all His ministers see eye to eye! He is calling for spiritual conquistadors who will want to see His return - strong enough; that they'll seek His face and cry out to Him because of all the wicked practices among religious organizations. Does Jesus (YHSHW) not have people among all religions - who fear His name and desire His friendship? Who will be brave enough to join His body of men who are arising in these Last Days of our Gentile Age and declare the ancient prophecies literally? - which is the only way to tear down the religions that are not like Him! As God's children come out of these organizations, they will be shepherded by non denominational ministries that major on the positives of God's Word; and be healed of their hurts.

2014-03-27 2:38 am - Woke up sharply at 2:38 and said "Acts 2:38." There were nations of "saved people" in the seventies C.E. who were saved by hiding in dens and caves of the Earth and did meditate terror, - while the Bride of Christ were rejoicing in another of Earth's dimensions with Him. The Bride had taken-on His Name in water baptism and walked with Him in newness of Life and were gathered by angels at the time appointed by the Father. At that same time, there was war in heaven; Michael and his angels fought with evil angels and the evil-ones were cast out of heaven. It was then that the devil began stalking the woman (the church of that Age) that brot-forth the man-child. In this Age of the Gentiles, - the Book is being played-over! If we're willing to take on His Name in water baptism, walk in newness of life and keep our spiritual garments clean and spotless, we can be a part of the group gathered by Him - mentioned in Revelation 16:16; or otherwise be left-behind to suffer through the tribulations of the Latter Days..

2014-02-06 10:20 pm - "I must be about My Father's business" & "God was in Christ reconciling the world unto Himself." - During his teen years and twenties, Jesus must have gone into all the world, teaching the kingdom of heaven to the lost ten tribes of Israel who were scattered. He could have traveled with His great-uncle, Joseph of Arimathea, who according to history, owned a worldwide trading business; or, He may have been transported by the Watchers that did not leave their first estate; or His Father may have translated Him to another place just as Stephen was translated to the desert to meet up with the Ethiopian eunuch (in the book of Acts)

2014-02-04 4:49 am - "exegesis": a thorough scholarly study of some thing; in exegesis of Bible passages, it would be like picking apart each verse and gaining the purest meaning of each word as it appears with the context.

2014-02-02 4:00 am - Woke up saying "His horse, piece by piece" and immediately thought it sounded foolish; but then then The Lord said, in the Bible that has come down to us, - that He has chosen foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and weak things of the world, to confound the things which are mighty. Then I was thinking about the word horse as it appears in the Bible: I learned long ago, by referencing Mr. Strong's concordance and dictionary, - that it means simply a conveyance; and in at least one instance of use, it carries the meaning of something that whirls, skips, and perhaps darts from place to place. Also the word horseman means: a driver. Mystery Babylon has used various means to Deceive the Nations! When we search for Truth, and she crumbles, then The Lord can build up Zion (His church of the Gentile Age) and He will come in His glory! [Hebrews 1:10-12 and Psalm 102]

2014-01-30 9:00 am - Ezekiel chapters 29 and 30 are all about Sheshach (a Roman Emperor) taking down Egypt and Ethiopia. The Lord had given it to him and his armies, as wages for destroying Tyrus. But The Lord helped them by causing earthquakes, and volcanoes covering the sky with darkness, - and by sending messengers in ships to make them afraid. By a possible Hebrew rendition of "ships" it was probably spaceships, as a regular ship on the sea would not put fear upon them! The prophecy said that after 40 years, Egypt would come back as a base nation (the basest of the 3 nations during the Dark Ages - Israel, Assyria (Rome) and Egypt).

2014-01-25 10:50 pm - Had been asleep and woke saying "I have blotted out as a thick cloud, thy transgressions; and have removed thy sorrows from thee." In looking up that verse in Isaiah 44, it goes on to say: and as a cloud (thunder cloud), your sins; for I have redeemed you." He wants us today, to be sure that He has also removed our sorrows; but He also wanted the world to know that there was a repentant remnant whose sins and sorrows He removed.

2014-01-22 2:19 am - awoke with this phrase: "That He might seek a Godly seed" (meaning of Malachi 2:15) - God was seeking for favorable DNA that He could use in bringing forth His Son into the world with human flesh, and He was seeking among the 'seed of Abraham' who did not deal treacherously against one another - in other words, a man and wife who were one in spirit. Perhaps for us it means: if we allow

Christ's love, holiness and meekness to rule our spirits, - it will create the atmosphere He needs for building up His 'body on Earth' so that He may return and set up His Universal Kingdom (Psalm 102 and Isaiah 52)

2014-01-19 5:05 am - "intrinsic": philosophers place this word into various levels of meaning: intrinsic value would be the estimation of the essence of a thing or being; intrinsic worth would be the estimation of the role it, he or she plays in our lives.

2014-01-18 4:55 am - "People of today are centering their attention on the Jews in Israel," - to be the people of the ancient prophecies; and have no pity for those in 70 AD, - those Israelites and believing Gentiles to whom the promises were given! The ones who were spared by hiding in dens and caves of the Earth were the Remnant Daughter of Jerusalem. God said by Haggai, He would shake the Earth once! In other words, the world itself came to an end and had to be sort of re-formed; whereas, - at the end of the First Kingdom Age, around 800 AD, civilizations just disappeared; because when that Age had begun to decay, God just folded it up and changed it into another dimension!

2014-01-18 5:10 am - a thought: There were no prophets during the Dark Ages, and if an aspiring young man would claim to be a prophet, his parents "thrust him through" whatever that means; for during that Age, The Lord was King over all the Earth and there was no need of a prophet!

2014-01-18 5:15 am - trying to sleep again, The Lord said, "Write this:" People of every generation have sought after God and wished for the End of the Age; so why should we think we're the only ones! Many people are writing many books for self-esteem; but now God is saying to us: "I want the Nations to know what I Did when I Shook the Earth, Once! Who will write about that?"

2014-01-11 11:40 pm - "Populonia": Archaeological Park of Baratti and Populonia, between the slopes of the promontory of Plombino and the Gulf of Baratti (N.W. coast of Italy).

2014-01-09 6:00 am - Just a thought: I have a Siamese cat that I got about 3 yrs. ago, to help me with a scorpion problem in the house. When I came out of my room, I picked him up and told him "Good Morning, Baby Blue" He immediately wanted to get down. Then here comes the little feral cat I got at the pet store, to keep-company with Blue. She comes close around my feet, but will not allow me to pick her up. Then when she wants attention, she runs and hides in an area of no escape. Baby Girl is like the Gentile nations of the Israelite Age; and Baby Blue is like the Israelite of that Age. He is sure of my love; but turns his back to me, - heading for the place where he knows I will soon be putting down a little canned food. He loves me for the food; but she loves me out of respect & fear. How do we love The Lord?

2014-01-04 4:19 am - "Bogotah": Jews in Columbia are concentrated in Bogota; could be an area where some of the lost ten tribes of Israel were settled during the First Dominion of Messiah. Perhaps some did not go to New Jerusalem for that last Shemitah Feast of Tabernacles.

2014-01-04 4:23 am - "inadvertently": unintentionally; carelessly

2014-01-01 12:43 am - "problematic": open to doubt, debate or suspicion; subject to being questionable

2013-12-31 6:03 am - "romantica": someone or something that is impractical, visionary or idealistic; a person given to fanciful speculations and enthusiasms, with little regard for that which is actually possible; an optimist; The Word of God tells us that: With God, - all things are possible, - to them that believe. To have all the ancient prophecies fall into place, - then it's easier to believe the first dominion of Messiah came to the remnant of the daughter of Jerusalem - commencing in the first century AD, and then was folded up and changed into another dimension when the devil came up against the Camp of the Saints (Feast of Tabernacles) With God, - the Master Scientist, - All things are Possible! To believe this and talk about it—we may be called a 'romantica'.

2013-12-31 6:45 am - "rocket scientist": 1) a specialist in rocketry; an engineer who builds and tests rockets 2) a clever thinker: someone who exercises the mind in an effort to reach a decision, or to form a new system 3) 'rocket science' is an activity requiring considerable intelligence and ability, no matter whatever field of endeavor referred-to; "You don't have to be a rocket scientist to figure this one out."

2013-12-31 8:08 am - "calculus": 1) a hard lump produced by the concretion of mineral salts found in the hollow organs or ducts of the body, such as kidney stones 2) the mathematical study of change, in the same way that Geometry is the study of shape, and algebra is the study of operations in solving equations. A course in Calculus is the gateway to more advanced mathematics devoted to functions, limits, processes, etc. Calculus is used in science, engineering and economics, and can solve many problems which algebra alone cannot.

2013-12-24 6:44 am - "Brontosaurus": a fictional animal originally thought to be real because of bones found in an area of Wyoming. The large bones were assembled hurriedly in an attempt to beat another anthropologist 'to the punch' who was also digging nearby. Mistakes that were made therefore, brought about much conjecture regarding the animal, that is now considered to be a fake; and there is really no such animal. Isn't this exactly what has happened in Mystery Babylon's hiding from the nations, - many prodigious truths since around the year 800 C.E.? Religions and Religious Organizations have been assembled with much conjecture!

2013-12-23 8:45 am - "inundate": overwhelm; overrun; engulf; flood

2013-12-22 1:15 am - was dreaming that a well-known student of prophecy and others of his peers - had come up with photos of cloud formations to illustrate ancient prophecies of the Bible.

2013-12-17 2:30 am - woke with short dream: an automobile parked at a curb with a young man at the wheel; some people standing around in front of the auto; the young man started the engine and began slowly backing out, then changed his mind and eased back to the curb, saying, "I have to pray."

2013-12-14 7:50 am - "innovative": being fresh or unusual, or capable of producing ideas and things that are ahead of the times; being or producing something like nothing thought of, experienced, or done before. The Lord God called Abraham from among the great men of the earth to form a people for Himself, to show forth His glory by their innovative ideas and craftsmanship for His tabernacle among them, and for their own survival techniques. It was in their DNA.

2013-12-06 9:30 am - Was listening to an Isaiah cd and remembered writing something about "The Lord will work, but who will let Him" and realized that in this instance, (Isaiah 43:13) He meant that He is going to do a work, and who is it that will be able to stop His work. I was recently listening to a minister of the Gospel who said that in the near future there will be no supply, for any type of physical need; and I am thinking that could be the main thing God will use in breaking down all religions and religious organizations so that true believers will come out from among them and form new ministries of support. It will be spiritual support, as no other type of support will be available when God does His strange work in the Latter time of the Gentile Age, - that no one will be able to stop.

2013-12-02 6:45 am - "presage": something that foreshadows a future event; a warning or indication of something that is about to happen; to point to or indicate in advance; giving prior indication-of by natural means

2013-11-30 4:30 am - "liturgical": relating to rites prescribed for worship: right now, each religion and religious organization has their own set of liturgical values; but in the near future there will be perestroika and pandemonium among the 'church world' and every prevailing religion, as they learn truth about the

Dark Ages (truth that Mystery Babylon has hid from the nations). The Body of Christ in the Latter Days will meet together in their own communities, with no liturgical necessities; their leader will be the Holy Spirit of God Himself.

2013-11-25 7:39 pm - "procure": to obtain by particular care and effort. The leaders in Jerusalem labored to procure a way to rid themselves of Jesus (YHSWH), who they considered to be their enemy.

2013-11-22 6:44 am - "The Lord will work, but who will let Him?" One time I woke up saying something like, "He's still not in the wind, He's still not in the rain, but He is still in the still, small voice." Are we willing to listen when we find ourselves thinking those little Godly thoughts, - or do we just put them out and go on with our plans for the moment? After all, God said He fills all things! He is closer than our own breath! Why should we not listen to Him; He's always waiting for our attention: while dressing for the day; while cooking; while preparing to go to work; while driving, or riding a bus; while doing housework; and yes, even while taking out the trash, - He will do His work in us, ... but who will let Him?

2013-11-15 10:55 pm - woke up with these thoughts: "Although it was I who awoke with these thoughts and dreams; and although it was my hand that wrote them, it still seems as if I've had nothing to do with it; and it seems as if I am not capable of such things." I do not feel as if I'm being ostentatious in proclaiming them and distributing the little black and white business-type card advertising the website,- because I am just being faithful in promulgating those things that were given to me - just as if I'm a watchman on a wall, calling out and relating whatever I have observed.

2013-11-15 1:28 pm - "primordial": something original or fundamental; a first principle or element

2013-11-14 3:00 pm - Was reading the 'Odes of Solomon' and thought, "How much easier it would be to believe the promises of the Bible if we can just believe Solomon's statement when he said, 'There is nothing new under the sun: what has been is now, and that which is to be, - has already been...' King Solomon saw the various dimensions of our universe and said, 'I beheld all the work of God, that a man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun: because though a man labor to seek it out, yet he shall not find it; yes, further; though a wise man think to know it, yet he shall not be able to find it.' Today's scientists are seeing a lot of 'black matter' but they do not know what it is; nor do they know how to find it out. In chapter 8:15, he said there is a place where there is no sleep to the eyes, neither day nor night (which is undoubtedly another dimension of our Earth and by King Solomon's wisdom he was able to see it).

2013-11-14 2:32 am - woke up thinking about a question my friend Barry Mehden had proposed to me (Barry is the one who has helped me immensely in putting together the materials I've collected in years of research. He has degrees from four universities including a doctorate in philosophy. We met at the Senior Center in Buckeye, Arizona and learning of his education, I asked for his help). The question he asked was: Why are there no philosophers of note coming from the Americas? It comes to me that the United States of America was founded upon Biblical principles, - the Bible being the first textbook for use in mathematics, grammar, geography, etc. - and the Bible has all the answers to all situations of life.

2013-11-14 2:35 am - trying to sleep again, I thought about the heathen icons in our nation's capitol. Our forefathers came to this land in search of freedom from religious tyranny and ideas of gods and goddesses. Then Babylon came along and added the icons that give the idea of our first presidents becoming gods! She is still trying to set up new gods and goddesses and on the whole, Americans are unaware of the meaning behind those statues; and most are not even aware of their presence.

2013-11-07 6:03 am - "jealous" YHSWH was jealous for Jerusalem. I've read in the Bible where YHSWH said His Name is 'Jealous'

- 2013-11-04 5:00 am - "ostentatious" displaying wealth, knowledge, etc. in a way that is meant to attract attention, admiration or envy; marked by conspicuous or vainglorious display
- 2013-11-02 7:07 am - "rank and file" the people who make up the majority of any group or organization as opposed to the leaders and officers.
- 2013-10-31 6:30 am - woke saying "The United States isn't there any more."
- 2013-10-27 2:00 am - "Waldron, Arkansas"
- 2013-10-24 Woke at 4:30 - was dreaming about a transitory tunnel into another universe or another dimension of our own universe.
- 2013-10-15 9:40 pm - "Parity": levelness, state of being equal; uniformity, congruity, unity
- 2013-10-15 10:53 pm - a thought: there would be fewer non-believers in the world if eschatologists would all agree that the Word of God did not contradict itself. For example: when Jesus said He was coming soon, He meant it! and when the Apostle's letter to the Hebrews said "Just a little while and He that shall come, will come and will not tarry, - he meant it, or let's say, "he did not lie."
- 2013-10-11 12:24 am - woke saying "intaglios" see definition for 2013-10-8. There was a purpose for them during the first millennium C.E.
- 2013-10-09 Woke at 4:44 saying the Spanish word 'entregar' meaning to give-in; to devote ones self-to.
- 2013-10-08 10:30 am - "intaglio" process in which a design is permanently etched upon a surface, like the 'lines of Nazca' or like the giant figures on the ground near Blythe, Arizona; that can only be seen from an airplane.
- 2013-10-08 11:am - "Sepphoris" a large city not far from Nazareth. No doubt Joseph and Jesus were very popular and sought-out in that place because of their carpentry skills.
- 2013-10-05 6:00 am - "ubiquitous": present everywhere, found everywhere, appearing everywhere at the same time
- 2013-10-03 woke at 12:20 am - Had been dreaming about putting a file on the website, of various photos so that when you click on one, it would go to that place in the site or story.
- 2013-09-28 7:30 am - "ubiquitous": existing or being everywhere at the same time; constantly encountered widespread
- 2013-09-28 7:11 am - "riveting": having the power to fix the attention; engrossing, fascinating, breath-taking, electrifying, exhilarating, captivating, spell-binding
- 2013-09-28 7:36 am - "eloquent": marked by skilled, easy and pleasing communication of thought, idea or feeling; usually in a fluent or vivid manner.
- 2013-09-27 9:50 am - "empirical": relying on experience or observation alone without proper regard for consideration of system, science and theory.
- 2013-09-25 1:11 am - Had dreamed that I and others were part of some type of new ministry. When others would join the group, they'd have these scabs, and we didn't help with them, knowing they would go away in time. Then one of the first leaders of the group found that when we just washed our faces and scrubbed, they were falling off; because we all had them. We felt like misplaced children.
- 2013-09-23 1:45 am - woke up after a dream where some large capitol of Russia or China was separated; each side having differing views about something. Last week I had the same dream about Paris, and a few nights earlier, about London - without writing them down, assuming it to be unimportant.

- 2013-09-22 3:19 am - I saw New York sky scrapers falling or sliding into the ocean
- 2013-09-20 "In a month she shall be devoured": Josephus reported the destruction of Jerusalem took one month to complete, as also prophesied by Hosea (chapter 5) and Zechariah (chapter 11)
- 2013-09-20 6:20 am - a thought: most of the original Biblical scripture and writings of ancient historians has been torn out by Mystery Babylon, and pseudonyms have been substituted for the real, - making it scary for one to write about what really transpired during the Dark Ages, as one doesn't want to feel he's tampering with God's Word or to go against the teachings of his superiors.
- 2013-09-19 12:00 am - "inexorable": not to be persuaded, moved or stopped; relentless; Jesus inexorably went to the cross, knowing He would have the sins of the whole world upon Himself, just as if He had done them!
- 2013-09-17 7:05 pm - a thought: most modern scientists think the Earth belongs to man and God has nothing to do with it: Psalmist David said, The Earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof. The writer of the book of Hebrews in the Bible speaks of things being shaken (visible to our eye), so that things that cannot be shaken (invisible) may remain. Since God created and formed the heavens and the Earth in the beginning, how hard could it be for Him to cause periods of darkness over all the Earth; or over only parts, as in the case of Egypt as prophecy claimed? Sure, He could cause volcanic eruptions, etc. that would do the same...
- 2013-09-14 2:07 am - Thinking about 'trends' - Thought about the early British rulers wearing wigs, and wondered how it began. When America's (USA) president's wife set a standard of wearing mini-skirts, the women who were modest, yet did not want to appear 'out of vogue' began wearing pant-suits. For the days of the 'Punishment of Jerusalem' God said that He would punish all who were dressed in strange apparel. Were they dressed immodestly? I'm sure it all began as a trend: a respected, important person did it first, then others dared to follow.
- 2013-09-13 1:20 am - "He did it once, He can do it again": thought about Isaiah's prophecy that God would work miracles for the remnant, as He did when He brought them out of Egypt.

- 2013-09-04 2:30 am - Woke up thinking about how C.S. Lewis in the early 1900s wrote stories that intrigued the hearts of young and old. To the natural mind they were stories of fantasy and fame; yet these stories held great meaning for the spiritual life of many, worldwide. Now, in the Latter Days of our Age of the Gentiles, The Lord God is giving things to write, to many worldwide. If we can just break out of our box of made-up historical data and walk down a path of previously overlooked prophetic truths, we will see a quality of the quintessential we can't help but explore.
- 2013-09-03 2:35 am - woke up saying "You used-to just hear about it all the time; but now it is happening."
- 2013-09-02 2:22 am Woke seeing Israel as a middle nation in a lineup or contest. Isaiah prophesied that there would be a highway out of Egypt to Assyria and Israel would be the third with Egypt and Assyria. Perhaps this is where the saying started: "all roads lead to Rome," and perhaps it speaks of the Silk Road that is still travelled.
- 2013-09-01 9:39 am - "Atacama giant": a geoglyph believed to be the largest anthropomorphic figure in the world; it measures 390 feet in length and can be noticed only from a high aerial view.

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

2013-08-14 8:15 am - God told Adam and Eve to fill the Earth with sons of God: during the first thousand years or so, they were doing just that; those were the 'sons of God' that came before God for accounting (Job chapter 1), they are also the Watchers.

2013-08-10 3:18 am - woke from a dream: dreaming of a stack of something looking like stone slabs like you see the ten commandments pictured. Each one was one of Earth's Ages. I was invited to choose one to look-at, but was almost afraid to choose because it seemed either too ominous or perhaps illegal. Finally I chose and it was like looking at a web page.

2013-07-10 5:50 am - "patronizing ways": The reason it's so hard for us to realize ancient civilizations had higher technologies, is that our near fathers had not been taught that Mystery Babylon hid much of history from us; so we cling to teachings of our near fathers in our patronizing ways.

- 2013-04-29 3:18 am - woke up saying "continuity" the quality or state of being continuous, uninterrupted connection or succession; close union of parts; quality or state of continuing without essential change; without intermission; a connected or unbroken course or series. - and I knew this had something to do with the way His words to me are handled.

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

- 2013-04-22 5:52 am - "conjecture": French definition - thrown-together; an idea or conclusion drawn from defective or presumptive evidence, surmise or guesswork without significant evidence; Apocalyptic teachers promulgate their theories on the 'Great Tribulation' and 'End of the Gentile Age' - with much conjecture!
- 2013-04-21 11:30 am - "affrontal": an intentional insult, esp. openly: When someone condemns your walk in holiness, - it is also an affrontal offense to God who said You shall be holy, for I the Lord your God Am holy.
- 2013-04-20 4:05 am - "autonomy": having the right of self-government
- 2013-04-14 11:30 am - "promulgate": proclaim formally; announce officially 2. publish; spread far and wide
- 2013-04-13 9:25 am - "Strabo": Strabo was an ancient Geographer before and during Christ's years on earth.
- 2013-04-12 10:22 am - "defunct": dead extinct, finished; having finished the course of existence: Upon realization of the First dominion of Messiah, modern apocalyptic theories will be defunct. dla
- 2013-04-12 7:40 am - "albumen": any of a class of proteins soluble in water and found in the white of an egg and many other animal and plant tissues and juices; they can coagulate when heated, almost like an alchemic process.
- 2013-04-09 4:35 am - "Morgan Beatty" - Editor-in-chief and chief commentator on the NBC Radio Network's "News of the World" beginning in 1941. In 1963; was named one of three Radio men of the year by the National Association of Broadcasters. He had the unusual ability to anticipate the drama at political conventions; and wrote a book called "Our Nation's Capital." Passed away on July 7, 1975.
- 2013-04-09 5:10 am - "Evilmerodak": for research
- 2013-04-09 8:10 am - "Tiglath Pelezer": for research
- 2013-04-09 10:10 am - "Bucharest": for research or prayer
- 2013-04-02 10:25 pm - "Isaac Newton": was labeled occult because, among other scientific conclusions, he believed in the art of alchemy. So did Jesus. He turned water into wine, walked on water and through walls - just by believing He could. If man can control video games with their thoughts - why cannot we control substances with our thoughts? It's a law of our universe; why haven't we been taught this? Probably because of fear it would be used for evil purposes. Anyway, it may be God only allows faith for this to happen in dire necessities.
- 2013-03-30 8:45 am - "His people are children that will not lie," so He was their saviour: Isa.63:8: If we are truthful with ourselves, we will admit there are many prophesies we cannot understand or correlate because of not knowing what transpired during Dark Ages. We are His People of the Age of the Gentiles.
- 2013-03-24 5:20 am - "predominantly": as prevailing; as being most noticeable
- 2013-03-21 7:00 am - "Mozambique": for research or prayer
- 2013-03-20 3:20 am - "epilogue": the final section of a literary work, often added by way of explanation or comment
- 2013-03-14 9:45 am - "Love is the Basic Element of Life": in its absence, higher technologies may not work properly, or possibly not be discovered, even.

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

2013-03-13 11:45 pm - "quantum leap": any great sudden or discontinuous change; a dramatic advance, especially in knowledge or method.

2013-03-05 No time recorded - Was thinking - Just because technologies of former ages were destroyed and annihilated because of unlawful destructive uses and evil practices; ... that does not give us license to believe they never existed. After the destructions of 70-80 C.E. there were few people left on Earth and they were spared by hiding in caves and dens of the Earth. When God shook the Earth (which the writer of "Hebrews" said He would, and Haggai prophesied that it would be just a little while and God would once shake the Earth and the heavens), mountains were shifted with some sliding atop others while all tall trees and buildings were broken down and covered with earth and debris.

2013-03-03 4:49 am - "enigmatic": something intentionally obscure which for full comprehension depends upon the attention or ingenuity of the hearer or reader; an inexplicable circumstance, event or occurrence; incapable of being unfolded or unraveled; not capable of being explained, interpreted or accounted-for

2013-02-27 7:30 am - "ergonomics": Changing things around in the workplace for the sake of safety, efficiency and economy. Could also apply to one's spiritual life and work for Christ.

2013-02-17 4:00 am - "figment of our imagination": At times God allows us to sense what is going on around us in another dimension?

2013-02-17 12:30 am - Woke up saying "Dr. Zhivago": it was for research and learning

2013-02-13 4:20 pm - just a thought: The Mayas may have been one nation that sided with Satan when he came against the Camp of the Saints at Jerusalem (800-1000C.E.); but I like to think the Hohokam of Arizona, USA were camping at Jerusalem when this happened; because they had not built huge edifices displaying heathen script like the Mayas, ... for we find only petroglyphs of animals, circles, etc. They never went back to their homeland because it was the end of that Age of Earth's existence and like the writer of 'Hebrews' in the Bible said, - that Age was "folded up as a garment and changed."

2013-01-31 2:05 am - woke up saying "Brown University" At first I thought of John Brown University; but later gleaned information for a book on the internet site for Brown University.

2013-01-22 3:20 am - woke saying "freedom to see" - We live among a generation of humanity that believes only that which they can see with their eyes. and what they have been taught to be real. How blessed are the blind, for they have freedom of imagination, and freedom to see and believe-in all that is revealed to them. I'm just now grasping the meaning of what God meant when He told one of the ancient prophets to say, "Who is blind, but My servant..."

2013-01-18 4:30 am - woke up saying "They said she messed herself up; I say she's cleaning herself up."

2013-01-10 1:30 am - "Hammurabi": King of Babylon who set in stone the oldest known set of moral laws, using cuneiform, the oldest known script. On September 16, 2013, my grandson Jordan Hummer in the first grade of school, explained all this to me, having studied it in his class.

2013-01-09 1:25 am - "apocalypses" (plural): Uncovering - translated literally from Greek, is a disclosure of knowledge, hidden from humanity in an era dominated by falsehood and misconception; In religious contexts it is usually a disclosure of something hidden in the last book of the Bible called the Revelation of Jesus Christ. Today it is commonly used in reference to the 'end of the world' in general.

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

2013-01-06 5:45 am - "osprey": The name of a bird: they keep the same mate and go back to the same nest every year; repairing and adding more stuff until it can be seen on a telephone pole or fisherman's house for a mile or more.

2013-01-05 6:20 am - "gambit": a remark or comment designed to launch a conversation or telling-point; a tactical maneuver in which you await favorable opportunity to advance.

2013-01-05 6:20 pm - "polyglot": a mixture or confusion of languages or nomenclatures

2012-12-29 7:15 am - "The Fear of The Lord": The Lord reminded me of a book I'd been reading on the life of Joseph: The Life and Times of Joseph In the Light of Egyptian Lore. The author tried to reveal 'everyday conversations of the Egyptians. If his ideas were founded on truth, then they were constantly referring to their fanciful gods in hopes they would be pleased with what they were saying and doing. Their gods were not personal! and it was out-of-fear they served and tried to please them. Our God is personal, in the Person of YHSWH/Jesus Christ - the only Person in the God-head, and He speaks to us. We serve and please Him in love and reverential fear.

2012-12-29 6:09 am - "Scythian": ancient tribes of people who lived in the area between Turkey and Russia; mostly in an area known as the steppes. They were known as warriors; although a peace-loving people. Their language was akin to the Sanskrit that was widely used in the first millennia c.e.

2012-12-28 5:00 pm - "pterodactyl": had been saying this yesterday, but have been finding photos on my cellphone resembling a huge bird that could be an omen of the pterodactyl.

2012-12-25 1:54 am - "vassitudes" (Perhaps I'm coining a new word): attitudes of a person who is a servant, under the protection of his lord and is vowed to homage and fidelity to that other; one who owes to give allegiance and service to another as a superior; a person in an humble or subordinate or suppliant position; one wholly subordinated to some controlling influence - dla

2012-12-20 5:01 am - "You seek Me and do not find Me - Because you do not search for Me with all your heart."

2012-12-20 3:10 am - "derelict": neglectful of duty or obligation; remiss; deserted by an owner or guardian; abandoned - I thought of recent times that I had neglected the work He has given me, and repented, - not wanting to become derelict to God.

2012-11-28 6:10 am - A dream I had last night: There were a mixture of people at someone's home and the owners were there; but my niece's granddaughter had a toy box there and I was helping her clean it out. We found scorpions, and when we noticed them they came out and were in a pile at the front, on the floor. While I went to get something to smash them, they began flying around and one began chasing me all over the place. This girl has a great uncle (actually my own nephew)—a very dedicated Christian, who has been calling me a heretic because of my stance on the First Dominion of the Messiah during the first few centuries C.E. May we all be blessed to have Mystery Babylon's coverings removed from our eyes.

2012-11-16 11:05 am - "enigma": while eating and acknowledging God's awesome Presence, comes this word: a baffling or puzzling situation, riddle or person; something beyond explanation; something beyond our wildest dreams

2012-11-15 2:00 am - woke up saying "Man Cannot... God Can"

2012-11-10 3:40 am - woke up saying "uncertified baggage" after dreaming that I and my sisters were waiting for our father to return and move us to another location. We had gotten rid of almost everything in the house except our personal belongings. But there were still just a few dishes in the cupboard, and a box of old copy paper that we were still holding-onto. After waking I realized there were still things that I must just let-go.

2012-11-06 10:00 pm - "Sepharvaim": An area of Assyria whose inhabitants were moved to Samaria by their king - after he had removed the Samaritan inhabitants to Babylon; causing Samaria to be a mingled people. I've just now learned that is why the Samaritans were hated by the Jews.

2012-10-28 7:00 pm - "apartado": Spanish for apart, separated, far removed, remote, isolated

2012-10-21 9:50 pm - "happenstance": a circumstance regarded as 'due to chance'

2012-10-18 9:55 pm - Isaiah's prophecy is: "When The Lord shall bring again Zion, His ministers will see 'eye-to-eye'." The only way they will be able to see "eye-to-eye" is for them to see the full meaning of the Greek word 'parousia' and to believe in the first dominion of the Messiah. By the sorceries of Mystery Babylon, the eyes of spiritual leaders have been blinded to the fact that 'parousia' means "The coming of The Lord to punish Jerusalem and finally all of the wicked of the world."

2012-10-18 7:30 am - "equinox": either of 2 times each year when the sun crosses the equator and day & night are of equal length everywhere.

2012-10-15 6:45 am - "Soter": means a savior, deliverer; according to 'made-up history' ancient gods were surnamed Soter; also Greek and Egyptian kings; for example, Poseidon Soter, Zeus Soter, Ptolemy Soter, Antiochus Soter, Demetrius Soter

2012-10-14 9:30 am and 11:30 am - "super sensationalism": The use of shocking details to cause a lot of excitement or interest; - revealing the truth about the events of the 'Dark Ages' as found in ancient Bible prophecy, would be called super sensationalism by the majority of today's Bible scholars.

2012-10-13 1:45 - woke up saying "Acts chapter three, verse eleven" [And as the lame man which was healed held Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the porch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering].

2012-10-13 12:30 pm - "Machu Piccu": a 15th century Inca site located in the Cuzco region of Peru; it was a community high in the top of a mountain and often referred to as the Lost City of the Incas. It was abandoned at the end of the First Dominion of the Kingdom of Messiah, when families of the Earth were camping at Jerusalem for the last Feast of Tabernacles of that Age. Unlike the Mayas, Machu Piccu citizens did not build elaborately decorated temples, and it is believed its citizens were a part of the Kingdom of God Age that was folded-up and changed into another dimension of our universe.

2012-10-12 5:15 am - woke saying "intrusiveness": marked by intruding or meddling

2012-10-11 1:27 am - woke up thinking that no one likes to anticipate drastic change; no one wants to admit their ancestors were farther advanced than they, ... and in an evil way. Before the Lord comes back for His Gentile Bride, all will be in unity of faith; and for that to be possible, there will be drastic change in various doctrines. And for that to happen, there will be a revealing of truth about the Dark Ages that was cut-out and hid by Mystery Babylon, - so that none of our organizational ancestors had a solid foundation on which to stand in forming the doctrines held by various groups of Believers. There will be a conflagration of fire of the Holy Spirit that will burn out all animosity and bring-together true Believers into one body, ... in Christ. The survivors will be those who love their neighbor as themselves and love Jesus the Christ with all their heart, mind, soul and strength.

2012-10-02 2:45 pm - "entregar": Spanish word meaning: to give oneself up; to give-in, surrender, submit; to devote oneself to indulge-in 2012-09-26 3:38 am - dream: I saw nothing but dirt and sand swirling, and heard the words, "Israel was set upon its own base."

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

2012-09-22 5:30 pm - "consensua": having existence by, or brought about by mutual consent; The Lord God's first covenant with Israel was a consensual covenant.

2012-09-21 1:45 am - woke up having had a depressing dream of counting something over and over forever, it seemed; thinking I was right, ... but in the end, found that it was not going to be the right answer because something was wrong at the beginning. Arriving at a final date (Daniel chapter 12) for the Remnant to come out of the caves and dens of the Earth, is difficult, because of the sorceries of Mystery Babylon in changing of times and cutting-out & hiding information about those times.

2012-09-20 7:30 am - "Galatz": a radio station in Israel for governmental purposes, broadcasting mostly popular music and traffic reports

2012-09-17 1:20 am - "institutionalize": to make into or treat as or give the character of an institution; to commit a person to an institution

2012-09-14 12:25 am - "Hesiod": a poet who lived supposedly around 700 years before Christ. He wrote didactic poems of creation, history and nature. Some of his works resemble Edgar Cayce's readings that were for guidance in planting and reaping, etc. He wrote about Poseidon also and about his powers against evil, etc. It is a well-known fact that Hesiod's as well as Homer's works were adapted for theatrical plays; and changed over and over, to suit the cast.

2012-09-14 11:30 am - "Poseidon": supposedly a Greek God of the sea; was also saying "Hesiod." In doing research, I found that Hesiod wrote about a war between Poseidon and a god of evil. Then read Hesiod's poem and it was as if it were a prophecy or presage of what took place in 70 C.E. when God walked through the sea with His 'horses' and also shook the earth.

2012-09-14 12:50 am - "His Agenda"

2012-09-11 5:17 am - awoke saying "And the life of one three-year-old depends on it."

2012-09-09 8:00 pm - just a thought: The Lord is more involved in everyday situations of our lives, than we acknowledge. There are times we want to do a certain thing, but it just is not convenient; but then in doing whatever else is at hand, it turns out to be a blessing to someone else as well as ourselves.

2012-09-05 6:15 pm - "nuance": a subtle or slight degree of difference as of meaning, color or tone; In working a jigsaw puzzle, sometimes you will use a piece in the wrong place, that has the same shape; but with a slight nuance in color or tone.

2012-08-27 5:30 am - "amazing resilience": resilience=the power or ability to return to the original form, position, etc. after having been bent, compressed or stretched; ability to recover readily from illness, depression, adversity or the like.

2012-08-22 time not recorded - "livid": extremely emotional with anger fury, or even a positive excitement

2012-08-22 9:20 am - "portend": to serve as an omen or warning-of; presage. portent: an indication of something momentous or calamitous about to occur; prophetic or threatening significance; something amazing or marvelous

2012-08-17 during day - God gave me a little song to sing and it goes like this: "Under the auspices, Beneath His protection; Working underneath the auspices of YHSWH my Lord...Under the auspices, Beneath His umbrella; Working underneath the auspices of YHSWH.

2012-08-14 9:30 pm - "poignant": profoundly moving; touching; pungently persuasive

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

- 2012-08-13 6:00 am - "auspices", under the auspices: umbrella; protection; In serving God we are operating under the umbrella of His protection.
- 2012-08-13 5:10 a.m. - Woke up saying "May 30, 2029"
- 2012-08-09 4:24 am - "Aleppo": Aleppo Codex - the Torah and 19 other holy books copied and handed-down by Jewish sages; stored for 6 centuries at Aleppo, Syria; later stolen and taken to Israel; 200 pages are missing
- 2012-08-04 9:00 pm - Kept saying "Aleppo"; had not yet researched the Aleppo Codex.
- 2012-08-01 10:00 am - "Aleppo": Research the Aleppo Codex
- 2012-07-29 6:15 am - "unmitigable": not capable of being mitigated, softened or lessened; not capable of being softened or toned-down; having no redeeming features; I had said to my house cat, "Those wild black cats outside are unmitigable"—not knowing what it meant—I just felt like saying it. By 70 C.E. The elders of Jerusalem had become unmitigable.
- 2012-07-29 10:15 am - "Bogota" (with heavy feeling)
- 2012-07-25 8:30 pm - "Pterodactyl": any of various extinct flying reptiles

- 2012-07-18 6:45 pm - "harbinger": One that indicates or foreshadows what is to come; forerunner; to signal the approach of; presage (an indication or warning of a future occurrence; a feeling or intuition of what is going to occur; prophetic significance or meaning
- 2012-07-18 8:00 pm - "Perestroika": A very drastic term, originating with the restructuring of Soviet policies of the mid 1980s. It led, eventually to the end of central planning in the Russian economy. (To the 'church' it means reform, rebuilding, restructuring.)
- 2012-07-15 1:45 am - "vacate/placate": To make of no authority or validity: to make void: annul; to make useless, ineffectual, or without force or significance; ; to make vacant: deprive of an incumbent or occupant; also, to give up the incumbency or occupancy-of; to make free
- 2012-07-13 6:30 am - "provost": a person appointed to superintend, preside over, or be the official head
- 2012-07-11 12:45 am - (a number) "eighty-seven, ninety-four": started saying while trying to go back to sleep
- 2012-06-29 5:00 am - woke up saying "divorce": had been awake earlier with names and praying for them.
- 2012-06-27 10:30 pm - "pterodactyl": any of numerous flying reptiles considered extinct
- 2012-06-23 around 4:30 pm - took photos of cloud formations resembling a gigantic bird
- 2012-06-19 4:30 am - "villainy": extreme depravity or wickedness
- 2012-06-16 4:33 am - awoke saying "finances coming to her from every side." Woke again at 4:44 saying "He giveth you power to get wealth." That's exactly what The Lord God did for His People; but after a while, they began doing things that did not please God just because they thought they could, when they felt they had found the riches for themselves [Hosea 12:8]
- 2012-06-16 4:54 am -awoke saying "slow to anger, slow to wrath"

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

- 2012-06-08 3:30 am - awoke saying "resonate": to exhibit or produce resonance or resonant effects; to resound; send back a sound or message; similar to the word 'echo'.
- 2012-06-07 9:30 am - "morbid society": a society of people who are abnormally susceptible to, or characterized by unwholesome feelings
- 2012-06-04 1:10 am - "incongruousness": a. characterized by lack of harmony, consistency or compatibility with one another. b. characterized by disagreement or lack of conformity with something c. characterized by inconsistency or inharmony of its own propriety or suitability.
- 2012-05-19 6:15 am - "quintessential": of the fifth or last and highest substance in ancient and medieval philosophy above fire, air, water and earth that permeates all nature and is the constituent matter of the celestial bodies. (Jeremiah 23:24 - Do not I fill all things?)
- 2012-05-15 7:23 pm - dream or trance: while meditating on the Hill of Jerusalem (Isaiah 10:32), I saw a small aircraft landing ever so smoothly. What I noticed was there were no wings, or they were folded alongside the aircraft and seemed to be nothing but lights of various soft colors, all blinking slowly at various intervals.
- 2012-03-23 2:00 am - "Voltaire": A French philosopher; Voltaire said this: "I necessarily have the passion for writing this, and you have the passion for condemning me; both of us are equally fools, equally the toys of destiny. Your nature is to do harm, mine is to love truth, and to make it public in spite of you."
- 2012-02-20 6:33 am - "Haile Selassie": for research and learning also prayed for anyone with this name... Haile Selassie (1892-1975) was considered a direct descendant from King Solomon and the Queen of Sheba. Former Emperor and last Emperor of Ethiopia 1930-1974.
- 2012-02-17 7:45 am - "Dr. Zhivago" - did research

- 2011-07-12 "God is love"; but His people had become the degenerate plant of a strange vine to Him: Through the years of their existence as His People, He gathered 144,000 fruit and then burned the vine in 70 C.E. The descendants of Abraham are still heirs to all His promises, - whether in the natural, or descendants by Faith. Hosea prophesied of People who were not a People; but are now called the Children of God.

A New Talmud [instructions] to the Gentiles....

- 2011-06-22 2:30 am - "We must have an awakening; we are spiritually asleep!"
- 2011-06-22 2:45 am - "Our generation is still in darkness" - about what really happened at the punishment of Jerusalem and finally all the wicked, over the whole earth. The translation of 'The coming of the Lord' is not merely Maranatha; that is just the first part. It means: The Coming of the Lord to punish Jerusalem, and finally all the wicked of the world.
- 2011-06-22 evening time - just a thought: All the cities of Israel had their synagogues; but they gathered at Jerusalem on special feast days: because Jerusalem was a delight to The Lord
- 2011-06-15 11:30 am - "If we'll set our heart on Him, The Lord Jesus can give us feelings better than any we've ever known. He'll give us a language all our own; and the more we talk with Him in that language, the stronger we will be."
- 2011-02-11 evening time - "Tuzigoot National Monument": Had been saying this phrase now and then for a couple years; finally googled it and found it is a partially excavated mountain in Arizona that is like an apartment building buried inside. It was a part of the destructions of 70-79 C.E. along with well-known ancient cities of Europe and all other parts of the world: cities that are buried in mountains. Abandoned cities of the Mayas and other structures above-ground are from civilizations that disappeared more like 1200 years ago.
- 2011-02-09 evening time - "anomalous": someone out of keeping, esp. with established or accepted notions of fitness or order. When I was in Bible school, girls wore dresses. Today, they may be labeled anomalous.
