

The Most Important Story You'll Ever Hear

If you're a city dweller, take an excursion out into the country on a cloudless, smogless night; look up and see millions of shiny stars, remembering that each star has its own planets with creatures that were created to subsist and operate under laws formulated for their own unique planet.

But the Creator also made a planet called Earth in our Galaxy especially for “Friendship”. He wanted this friend to be a creature like unto himself, so He created an image through which He could walk and talk with the creature He would call 'man' and He called His image--His son. [Colossians 1:15-19].

Then God made man both male and female, for His pleasure [Revelation 4:11], and planted a very delightful garden Eastward, in Eden; there He put Adam and Eve, to dress the garden and to keep it.

He also told them to be fruitful and multiply and replenish the earth.

We can't be sure how long Adam and Eve were in the Garden of Eden, but since most of Earth's Ages have lasted close to a thousand years or more, it seems right to say they were there close to a thousand years, eating of the Tree of Life, communing with God, dressing the garden with many technical items; playing games with a humanoid robot of their design--walking up and down in stones of fire [Ezekiel chapters 27-28] and multiplying to create the watchers, also called 'sons of God' and 'angels'.

But one day Satan came to Eve in the form of a serpent and beguiled her to partake of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, which was forbidden with promise of death. When she saw how beautiful and wise she could become, she chose the knowledge of good and evil, over her friendship with God, and shared it with Adam also, which displeased God; because when they chose knowledge of good and evil their bodies were changed to include flesh and blood so that they could experience both the good and the evil and die a little every day. But they couldn't remain in the Garden of Eden and have access to the Tree of Life and live forever.

Because God cannot look upon sin which is called scarlet or red in scripture; He made a way for man to enjoy friendship with Him by bringing the blood of a clean, healthy animal to an altar and present it to Him. When He saw the scarlet blood, He could no longer see their sin. It was like a homeopathic remedy He'd planned for in creating our 'laws of the universe'.

Since man's nature was now evil--this relationship with God went on for thousands of years until, in the fulness of time, God sent His own Son, born of a virgin--to live a sinless life in the flesh so that He could offer His own life and blood to the Father as substitute payment for the sins of the whole world; past, present and future.

Scripture tells us Jesus set His face to go to Jerusalem knowing all that would happen to Him--to be marred more than any other man and be nailed to a cross to be cursed and to bear all the sins of the world "in His own body on the tree."

"God sooo loved the world, that He gave his only begotten son; that whosoever believeth in Him--should not perish but have everlasting Life!" John 3:16

"For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God." Romans 3:23

"For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." Romans 6:23

It was forty days after Jesus was raised from the dead, that He went up to His Father in heaven. During those last days on Earth in the flesh, He revisited all of the Lost Tribes of Israel He had visited during the eighteen years not accounted-for in the Bible; that He'd told His disciples He must also bring [John 10:16].

Then Jesus commissioned His disciples to go into all the world preaching the gospel and baptizing them in His name, with the promise He would be with them always; and was then received up into a "cloud".

Fifty days later, on the Day of Pentecost, God sent the Holy Ghost in Jesus' name, to abide with all Believers, and on that day Peter, to whom Jesus had given the keys to His kingdom—stood up and told everyone who witnessed this occasion - to "repent, be baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ for the remission of sins and they could be filled with the Holy Ghost because the promise was to them, their children, and to all who are afar-off... even as many as the Lord our God shall call" [Acts 2:36-39]

Scripture says Jesus came down in the form of the Holy Ghost, to fill all things, as God always did, and His eyes are in every place: beholding the evil and the good, showing Himself strong in behalf of them whose heart is perfect toward Him; and will give us beauty for ashes the oil of joy for mourning, and the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness.

Now look at these promises: "There is therefore now--no condemnation for them which are in Christ Jesus; who walk not after the flesh but after the Spirit" Romans 8:1.

"But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, He that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you" Romans 8:11
