Love Like That: Commitment

We live in a society that is ever changing. We live in a society that constantly moves from one thing to another. We live in a society where people find commitment a struggle. With this ever-changing world, how do we find it easy to make a commitment? Well, we don't! Commitment is a struggle.

During the month of February, "Time to Thrive" is committed to bringing you biblical insights as to how to stay committed. Whether committed to a relationship or committed to something in your life, we know that when you are committed to Christ, nothing is impossible. With a dive into Ephesians 5:24-25, Anna and Haelle look at Mary and Joseph and interview Pastor Dean and Laura Jane Hunter gathering wisdom of commitment to share with their listeners.

Don't miss this month's episodes! With one click of a button and one turn of a page, we are committed to making your life change. You can find our episodes on the church's website, on the thrive! Ladies Ministry Facebook or Instagram page, or on the thrive! YouTube channel.

Ephesians 5:24 Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing.

25 Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it;
