Happy New Year from Time to Thrive

It's Time to Thrive! We have some exciting changes coming this year, and you don't want to miss them! Meet the 2025 cohosts, Anna Kimmins and Haelle Hollman.

Anna has always loved a good story, one that keeps her engaged leaving her feeling inspired to change the world. She has had the privilege of being able to personally sit down with each one of the former podcast guests and hear their stories that bring both hope and joy as well as their testimonies where the Lord pulled them up out of a deep valley. Anna has gained wisdom from the advice of women who seek the Lord, observed how the love of Jesus can change a life, and personally heard the Gospel message being proclaimed through trials that seemed impossible to overcome. It takes one story of the Lord's goodness, one testimony shared, and one victory proclaimed to others to see people's lives change. She wishes that you will share your story with the world; you may never know who needs to hear it.

Haelle isn't new to the team. She was the voice at the beginning and end of all former podcasts. Haelle loves genuine and intentional conversations and is looking forward to joining as a cohost this new year. She is excited to discover how God has shaped people's lives and how His truth has led them to live in true joy and peace. Haelle believes God did not promise us a life of comfort and ease. Many of us have been through tests and trials that few of us can imagine. Oftentimes, Haelle wonders how many people would be encouraged and inspired to know that there are other believers struggling in the same season or situation as them, but if we stay silent, they'll never know. Her passion is to bring encouragement and hope to all listeners of this podcast and bring glory to God as they testify of His faithfulness, grace, and mercy.

Anna and Haelle have been working hard to bring an exciting series this year called Love Like That which will be brought to the thrive! Ladies Ministry's YouTube channel, the podcast channel, and the Come and See magazine. Each month will be packed with memorizing scripture, learning about relationships from the Bible, and meeting our very own members here at Central Baptist.

So, join us each month as we learn how to Love Like That. Help Time to Thrive share this series by subscribing to the thrive! Ladies YouTube channel and liking each week's video. You can scan the QR code on the calendar or go to the link at the bottom of the calendar. Also, give us a like on Facebook and Instagram so you won't miss what is going on each week.
