Psalm 8

Here is a psalm of humility, a psalm of adoration. It was no doubt written as David beheld the sky and the heavens at night.

He began to feel how good God is and how simple he is. God became bigger; David became smaller. David beheld the stars.

DAVID TELLS US OF THE _____ OF GOD. Psalms 8:1

1. In this verse God is likened to a great _____.

He is about to perform; the curtain is pulled and the world is His stage. He begins His performance only to find that the stage is not big enough.

2. He builds His _____ in the heavens; then He begins the performance again.

3. Again He finds that the platform is not big _____, and so He has to stretch His platform above the _____.

4. God's _____, God's _____, is so great that it must be carried on above the heavens.

How mighty is our God!

DAVID REMINDS US THAT THIS GREAT GOD IS _____ ABOUT EVERY _____ DETAIL. Psalm 8:2.

1. The same great God Who had to have his platform stretched above the heavens in verse 1 _____ the cry of the suckling child in verse 2.

2. We need to be mindful, that in the Bible there are things that get the _____ of God.

3. We are reminded that not a _____ falls from the sky but that the Father takes notice.

4. We are reminded that He feeds the _____.

5. He clothes the _____ of the field.

6. He _____ the hairs on the head of each person.

DAVID REMINDS US OF _____ THAT GOD HAS DONE. Psalm 8:3.

1. The _____ were made by Him. The _____ were made by Him.
2. David looks at the stars and _____ that God made them. He looks at the _____ and realizes that this, too, was the object of God's creation.

DAVID REMINDS US THAT GOD WANTS TO _____ WITH _____ PEOPLE SUCH AS WE. Psalms 8:4

The word "man" in the Hebrew implies "weak man, insignificant man, little man, puny man."

1. In other words, regardless of the _____ of man, God is mindful of him. God thinks of him.
2. Not only is God mindful of us, but God _____ us. This implies _____.
3. David is consumed by the blessed fact that the _____, _____, _____, _____, _____, _____ God would want to visit with man, who is ever so weak.

DAVID REMINDS US HOW GOD HAS _____ MAN. Psalm 8:5-8.

1. Here we are reminded that man is the "_____." Everything was made for man.

DAVID _____ WHERE HE STARTED.

Psalm 8:1a, "O LORD our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth!" Then in verse 9 he ends the chapter the same way, "O LORD our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth!"

1. David felt the same way at the _____ that he felt at the _____.
2. _____, to David, God was excellent; but more than that, notice the words, "our Lord." Ah, the possessiveness here!
3. This entire psalm is trying to tell us how _____ God is, how _____ God is, and yet how _____ we can be of God.
