

TARGETED JUSTICE, INC

Guidelines for Podcasts and Conference calls

1. Targeted Justice does not condone violence or threats of any kind.
2. Opinions expressed by the host or guests are their own, and not Targeted Justice.
3. Issues discussed on the show, do not constitute medical or legal advice - for educational purposes only.
4. No topics are off limits, however, we are professional and respectful. For example, If there is a discussion on human trafficking - it needs to be done respectfully.
5. If suicide intentions are disclosed by your call participants, you are obligated to report it to the Suicide Hotline. "988" is the three-digit, nationwide phone number to connect directly to the 988 Suicide and Crisis Lifeline.
6. No slander, libel or defamation. It is against the law in every state. If someone wants to discuss a bad neighbor or family member - do not use their real name.
7. TJ has a basic outline of the technologies being used - see our HOME page for diagrams. It does not involve "witchcraft" or "voodoo," etc. Let's steer away from these types of allegations, because it does not help the TI Community.
8. TJ generally does not allow the promotion of for-profit goods or services, without our approval.
9. The creator owns the creative content, and TJ is allowed to distribute freely, under a Creative Commons license, CC BY-SA 4.0 This means the creator is given credit, and the recording can be shared-alike. The TJ rotating logo should be added at the beginning.
10. TJ reserves the right to withdraw our sponsorship, from Podcasts and Calls that do not follow the guidelines.
