Amended December 2, 2022

ARTICLE I

Name

The name of this organization shall be the National Council of Negro Women, Incorporated hereinafter referred to as “NCNW.”

ARTICLE II

Purpose

The purpose of the National Council of Negro Women is to:

- Unite non-profit national organizations of women in a council of national organizations primarily concerned with the welfare of Negro women;
- Promote unity among women’s national organizations and among all women and girls in matters affecting the educational, cultural, economic, social, and spiritual life in America;
- Build a common fellowship of women devoted to the task of developing creative relations among people at home and abroad; and
- Serve as a clearinghouse for the dissemination of information concerning the activities of organized women.

ARTICLE III

Membership

Section 1. Organizations and Sections

- A. Membership is composed of national women’s leadership and service organizations having active branches in at least five (5) states, whose purposes are consistent with those of NCNW and are willing to abide by the Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws, Policies and Procedures and all other criteria of NCNW. National organizations seeking affiliation with NCNW shall be accepted by a majority vote of the Board of Directors.
- B. Sections are chartered by NCNW as follows:
1. Community-based sections in urban, suburban or rural areas;
 2. Campus-based sections at accredited colleges and universities;
 3. Youth sections for young women attending middle school and high school; and operate under the supervision of a recognized Community-based section.

- C. Community-based Sections chartered by NCNW shall abide by and be governed by the Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws, and Policies and Procedures of NCNW and must meet and remain in compliance with all certification requirements at all times.
 - 1. Each Section shall adopt as its name, the community or area where it is located.
 - 2. Each section shall be separately recognized by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) as a 501 (C) (3) organization and maintain said designation to retain membership as an NCNW section.
 - 3. No section that is not separately recognized by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) as a 501 (C)(3) organization may use the NCNW name, mark, logo or otherwise represent itself as a Section of NCNW.
 - 4. Each Section shall adopt and be governed by its Bylaws, which shall not conflict with the Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws or Policies and Procedures of NCNW.
 - 5. The Bylaws of all NCNW sections and any Amendments thereto shall be forwarded to the National Bylaws Committee Chair for approval and be filed in the National Office.
 - 6. A Section shall be chartered by the NCNW Executive Committee.
 - 7. Each chartered section is encouraged to include a representative of at least three (3) national affiliates.

- D. Community-based Sections in urban and suburban areas shall consist of and maintain at least thirty-five (35) members to maintain an NCNW charter.

- E. Community-based Sections in rural areas shall consist of and maintain at least twenty-five (25) members to maintain an NCNW charter.

- E. The Board of Directors shall have jurisdiction over all appeals by personnel from decisions of the Executive Committee.
- F. A quorum shall consist of fifteen (15) members of the Board.

ARTICLE VII
Standing Committees

The Standing Committees shall be:

Section 1. The Bylaws Committee shall consist of a minimum of five (5) persons. It shall receive and consider all proposed amendments to the Bylaws and shall be responsible for sending the notice of such proposed amendments to the membership in the manner prescribed in the Bylaws. It shall report on the proposed amendments to the Biennial Convention.

Section 2. The Election Committee shall consist of seven (7) members elected by the delegates to the Biennial Convention to serve for the ensuing biennium. No candidate for national office or nominating committee may serve on the Elections Committee. The duties of the committee shall be to prepare the ballots, supervise elections, check the credentials of voting delegates, count the ballots, and report the results to the Convention. Voting shall be by ballot and conducted in accordance with regulations formulated by the Board of Directors. A majority shall elect except where there is only one nominee for an office; the Presiding Officer can declare the nominee elected by acclamation (unanimous consent). The Committee shall set the place, time, and requirements for voting.

Section 3. The Executive Committee shall consist of the elected officers, seven members elected at-large by the Convention, and Chairs of Standing Committees. The immediate past Chair shall serve on the Executive Committee for two years following her term. The Committee shall act in the interim between meetings of the Board of Directors in the execution of the business affairs of NCNW. The committee shall approve the President and Chief Executive Officer on the recommendation of the Chair of the Board, within policies and conditions recommended by the Human Resources Committee. The Committee shall appoint a subcommittee to consider and report to the full committee on all grievances. The Committee shall approve an annual budget. Before the adoption of the annual budget, there shall be no spending authorization without the approval of a majority vote of the Executive Committee. The committee shall consider all violations of NCNW policy by Sections and members and take appropriate action thereon. Members of the Executive Committee who fail to attend at least one meeting of the Board of Directors or Executive Committee during the year shall automatically forfeit such office.

Section 4. The Budget and Finance Committee shall consist of the Chair of the Budget and Finance Committee, the National Treasurer and Assistant Treasurer, and such other members as deemed necessary. It shall be the responsibility of this committee, in collaboration with the-Chair of the Board and the President and Chief Executive Officer or their designee, to submit a budget, to devise ways and means of meeting the budget, if not provided for elsewhere, and to study the financial operations of NCNW to ensure the most beneficial returns for expenditures. The annual budget is due to the membership during the second quarter. The committee consults with the auditor and reports the annual audit to the Executive Committee and the Board of Directors

Section 5. The Membership Committee shall consist of a minimum of five (5) members, including a Vice Chair appointed by the Chair of the Board. Working closely with the National Office, the committee shall develop initiatives to recruit, retain and reclaim members at all levels of NCNW, ensure NCNW community-based, youth, and collegiate sections meet all legal and organizational operating and reporting requirements and engage NCNW's Life and Legacy Life members as active, life- long supporters of NCNW.

Section 6. The National Affiliates Committee shall consist of the five (5) heads of national affiliate organizations or their representatives. Working closely with NCNW's Chair of the Board, this committee shall identify opportunities for coordinated action.

Section 7. The National Headquarters committee shall oversee the general upkeep of the NCNW Headquarters and make recommendations regarding repairs, capital improvements, furnishings, maintenance staff and special services.

Section 8. The Nominating Committee shall consist of seven (7) members, elected by the delegates of the Convention, and serve no more than two (2) consecutive terms. The chair of the nominating committee shall be appointed by the Chair of the Board from the individuals elected to the committee. The committee is responsible for securing nominations for the elected officers and ensuring that all candidates for the elected office meet the minimum requirements for election contained in the Standing Rules.

The Committee shall submit a slate of officers consisting of at least one name for each office to be elected. No name may be placed in nomination without the written consent of the nominee. The report of the Nominating Committee shall be made at a designated business session on the first day of the Biennial Convention. Additional nominations may be made from the floor. No person may be a candidate of a local section or national affiliate unless in goodstanding in the Section and/or good standing with the national affiliate of which they are a member.

Section 9. The Human Resources Committee shall formulate personnel policies to be approved by the Board of Directors, establish salary scales, and other personnel practices that are usually undertaken by such committees.

Section 10. The Program Committee shall study, analyze and evaluate, on a continuing basis, the needs and issues affecting Black women and recommend program, policy and outreach consistent with the purposes of NCNW.

Section 11. The Resource Development Committee shall work closely with the Chair of the Board to attract direct contributions to or influence the funding of the various programs of the National Council of Negro Women.

ARTICLE VIII

Property

Section 1. All real property, whether conveyed by gift or purchase, shall be the property of the National Council of Negro Women, Inc. and shall be properly deeded and conveyed as such.

Any property used or occupied by a Community-based Section for NCNW and shall be used, and maintained, as a place of community outreach, program development and information clearinghouse for the use of members of the NCNW section(s) and the general public subject to the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws and Policies and Procedures of NCNW. Absence of proper deed or conveyance shall not in any way exclude a Section from, or relieve it of this provision.

ARTICLE IX

Parliamentary Authority

The rules contained in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised (RONR) shall govern NCNW in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with these bylaws and any special rules of order NCNW may adopt. Each Section of NCNW shall adopt the parliamentary authority of NCNW.

ARTICLE X
Amendment of Bylaws

These bylaws may be amended at the Biennial Convention by a two-thirds vote of the delegates present and voting, provided the proposed amendments have been presented in writing to the members at least thirty days prior to the Convention. All proposed amendments shall be submitted and received by the Bylaws Committee not later than six (6) months before the Biennial Convention. No amendments shall be proposed to the bylaws, which are in conflict with the Certificate for Incorporation of NCNW.

ARTICLE XI
Dissolution

Upon termination or dissolution of the National Council of Negro Women, Inc. (NCNW), any assets lawfully available for distribution shall be distributed to one (1) or more qualifying organizations described in Section 501 (C) (3) of the 1986 Internal Revenue Code (or described in any corresponding provision of any successor statute) which organization or organizations have a charitable purpose which, at least generally, includes a purpose similar to the terminating or dissolving corporation.

The organization to receive the assets of NCNW hereunder shall be selected in the discretion of a majority of the managing body of the corporation, and if its members cannot so agree, then the recipient organization shall be selected pursuant to Alternative Dispute Resolution, either by binding arbitration or mediation.

Amended December 2, 2022
