Mastroianni

Anthony and Rosemarie (Cantiello) Mastroianni of Yonkers, N.Y., and Long Beach, Long Island, met as teenagers living in the same Bronx neighborhood.

They were married on April 23, 1955, at Mount Carmel Church in the Bronx where they received a Papal Blessing; they honeymooned in the Pocono Mountains.

Anthony served in the United States Army during the Korean Conflict and after his discharge worked as manager for a vending company. Rosemarie worked as a secretary for Met Life on 23rd Street in New York City.

The couple renewed their vows on April 10th at Saint Patrick's Cathedral and celebrated with a family dinner.

They are the proud parents of Michelle and James Dunn of Yonkers, Nick and Naomi Mastroianni of Somers, and Peter and Kathi Mastroianni of Pelham Manor. Their pride and joy are their five grandchildren: Jennifer, Nicholas, Matthew, Michael and Samantha.

almost forgot to post today, but even if I'm a few hours late I had to get this one in.

obvi a lot of you know how big a fan I am of decorating for Christmas, but what many of you might not know is that I fell in love with this because of the huge displays my grandfather, Anthony Mastroianni, amazed me with when I was a kid. one of the most memorable of these was a dancing robot Santa Claus that we LOVED, that danced to the original recording of this tune. Samantha & I were fixated on this thing as kids, and the song, in all of its catchy 50s glory, makes me think of Grandpa dancing along with it to make us laugh.

Grandpa would have been 89 years old today, and he was one of the most incredible people I have ever known. I was lucky enough to know him, spend time with him, live with him, and love him. The holidays aren't the same without him.
