

Cold Weather Assistance
Organization	Contact	Website	Notes/Overview
Caring Place	512-943-0700 2000 Railroad Ave, Georgetown 78628	https://www.caringplacex.org/news-events/media.html/article/2024/01/09/cold-weather-and-transportation-reminder-for-2024	The Caring Place is able to provide Cold Weather Shelter to unhoused families with children enrolled in a school district within The Caring Place service area. When Austin activates its cold weather/warming center protocol, TCP is able to provide gas, Uber, or CARTS vouchers (when available) for those in our service area experiencing homelessness to get to the designated staging area.
Get Ready Central Texas		https://www.austintexas.gov/readycentraltexas/stay-informed#app
Austin Warming Centers	Cold Weather Shelter Hotline 512-972-5055.		City of Austin Warming Centers Map https://www.google.com/maps/d/viewer?mid=1FU5AKX5guhwM3OWJgKeftJaxwrThDME&femb=1&ll=30.312323136603194%2C-97.74581539999997&z=12
One Texas Center (Active Emergency Information)		https://www.austintexas.gov/alerts	This information is subject to change as weather conditions change. For the most up-to-date locations and hours please check austintexas.gov/alerts for the most current emergency information in multiple languages 505 Barton Springs Rd, Austin Registration between 6 and 8 pm
Salvation Army of Bell County - Temple	512-305-4233 254-774-9996 McLane Center of Hope 419 W Ave G Temple, TX 76504
Active Emergency Information Hub		https://www.austintexas.gov/department/homeland-security-and-emergency-management/alerts

Texas Department of Emergency Management Local Shelter and Seasonal Relief Center Map		https://tdem.maps.arcgis.com/apps/instant/interactivelegend/index.html?appid=063f8332ed024ebe8cf0760576311d0f	Click on green "dots" to see location information for active seasonal relief centers during extreme weather events.
--	--	---	---