Healthy Options Program for the Elderly - H.O.P.E (60+)	Please call 512-943-0700 for participation information at The Caring Place.	https://www.caringplacetx.org/ourservices/food-programs.html	Reduce hunger among low-income seniors age 60 and older by providing them with free monthly distributions of nutritious food. Each month, HOPE clients receive 15-20 pounds of shelf-stable grocery items to supplement their diets. The Caring Place distributes HOPE to those eligible people living in our service area. A short application is required annually to participate in this age and income or crisis based program. Self-declaration of name, address, number in family, age and basis for eligibility (income/crisis) is needed. This program is made available through our partnership with Central Texas Food Bank (CTFB) in Austin. Please call 512-943-0700 for participation information at The Caring Place.
Commodity Supplemental Food Program (C.S.F.P.) (60+)	855-366-3401	https://www.centraltexasfoodbank.org/get-help/help-seniors	Every month, each C.S.F.P. participant receives a free box of 25 to 30 pounds of groceries. Exact contents vary, but every box includes cereals, juices, proteins, peanut butter or dry beans, milk, grains, canned fruits and vegetables, and 2 pounds of cheese. Find Senior Programs distributions near you using the Find Food Now tool and the "Senior Programs" filter. Click on the organization's name to see if they offer H.O.P.E. or C.S.F.P. Be sure to verify the distribution day and time on the CSFP calendar before going. We are able to offer C.S.F.P. delivery only at select sites. Please contact the Central Texas Food Bank to check where delivery is available.
