Pastoral Ponderings

“Let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.” Hebrews 10:24-25

You have heard it said many times, “We (the people) are the church.” And that, “Church isn’t the building itself, but the people.” And “we don’t have to be here (at Mt. Tabor) for the Church to be active and alive in the world.” These are all true statements! During COVID in 2020, these were important ideas and concepts. They helped us imagine what faithful living and meaningful worship experiences could look like in a time when being together was not an option.

However, since that time of social distancing and quarantine ended, many have continued to view regular participation and church attendance as voluntary, or worse, not necessary at all. We have been tempted to think that maybe catching a part of a sermon online, or coming to worship once every few months is enough to sustain us on our journey of life – it’s not. We have been lured away by shiny things like sports, vacations, or just an opportunity to sleep a little later. Yet, the following Sunday we find that something else has “popped up” and another opportunity to worship at church has been missed. We have excuses, but in reality, that’s all they really are – excuses. We blink and realize that we, “regular Church goers”, have become Christmas and Easter people, and we become ashamed that so much time has flown by without us darkening the doors of our once beloved Church.

There is good news though! Mt. Tabor’s doors remain open, your pew is still here and waiting for your return. Our call to “Meet Together”, as Hebrews 10 reminds us, is essential to who we are as the people of God in our community. Our Sunday morning worship is where we, not only connect with God but connect and support one another in our faithful walk as God’s people. Church is where we come to hear new and fresh words of grace for our lives. It is where we are reminded not only of who we are, but whose we are. We are forgiven children of the Father, and Church is where Christ hosts us at his banquet with a feast that is abundant and eternal.

Church is where the people that know you, and love you, are waiting to see you once again. It is where you can expect a hug from family and friends alike, and a place that has space and grace already set aside for you to rest and enjoy. It’s the place we eat together, sing together, pray together, and love together. It’s home.

So welcome home in 2025. Come, find your place in the pew, find your seat at the table, and find your heart falling in love once again with God and His people at Mt. Tabor Lutheran Church.

THE MUSIC CORNER

THANK YOU!

I would like to thank each director and member of the many ensembles for a wonderful Christmas Concert and Christmas Eve Services. Everyone worked hard and presented their best efforts to the glory of God and in ministry to the People of Mt. Tabor. I also appreciate everyone that attended and the very gracious compliments on the concert. A special "Thank you" to BJ Roof for the lovely reception after the concert. I also must thank Jeff Clearman for playing the organ on hymns and accompanying the Adult Choir and Youth Choir and Jenny Wright for accompanying the children's choirs. Also, thanks to Francisco (Pacho) Ballestras for the trumpet introductions and descants on the hymns for the concert.

Lexington School District 2

Positively Fit meets Monday and Thursday at 5:30 - walking at 4:30
All ability levels are welcome! Variations to exercises are offered!
Ask Tammy O'Quinn, Brennen Hutto or Carol Busbee for details!

Positively Fit: Body, Mind and Soul

Body:

Oh my! I just ate all those Christmas cookies! Can I exercise them off? We do this every year. We say we are going to be careful, but those cookies keep calling us back! They are so delicious that you can't eat just one! If the basic sugar cookie has 110-120 calories you could go for a 20-minute walk or an extra 20 minutes of yoga to work off that one cookie. But let's face it, we never eat just one! It's not just sugar cookies either. The beloved fruitcake with an approximate 320 calories per slice will take an hour or longer to walk off. However, a 3-inch square of peppermint bark will only take 50 minutes to walk off, as long as it is a thin piece of bark. Let's wash those goodies down with a cup of plain cocoa and add another 40 minutes to the walk. Who has an extra 2 or 3 hours in addition to your regular workout!

Here are a few tips to enjoy those baked goodies!

Eat like the French! They have less heart disease and are considered some of the healthiest people even though they drink red wine and eat croissants full of butter. However, they take their time and enjoy every bit. Just slow down when eating treats and savor every bit. Enjoy the flavors and don't gobble it down. It takes about 20 minutes for your brain to recognize that your tummy is full, so eat slowly!

If you bake too much, share some with friends and neighbors, or simply put them in the freezer! They will taste just as good in March as they do in December!

Don't skip your regular meals or your exercise routine! Keep your regular routines. Include your regular exercises and workout routines as usual. You may want to take an extra walk if you are feeling full or over-stuffed.

Mix up your workouts! Changing up your exercises and/or workout routine. This can stimulate your energy levels in a different way and may burn a few extra calories.

Include strength training. Adding extra weight can engage the large muscles like your quads which burn more calories.

Make sure to move every day! Use an app to track your steps! Try to get in 8,000 to 10,000 steps per day. During the holidays you may find that you are getting in more steps while decorating the house, raking the leaves and/or doing fall chores. All movement counts!

Mind:

Even though those cookies tasted delicious, we know that we should not have eaten so many. Sugar affects the brain causing it to release dopamine that makes the brain sense pleasure and leaves a feeling of satisfaction. This feeling can lead to a potential addiction to sugar. So, how do I work off the sugar cookie? Don't worry about it! Just don't eat a whole plate of them! Enjoy a little bit and not the whole plate. Remember to exercise and move every day. Christmas is the time of year to enjoy friends and family. Don't blame yourself or dwell on overindulgence. Embrace the love and happiness of Christmas!

Soul: 1 Corinthians 6:19-20

¹⁹Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit, who is in you, whom you have received from God? You are not your own; ²⁰you were bought at a price. Therefore, honor God with your body."

MTLC Needs You!

November is Stewardship month, a time to assess your gifts of time, talent, and treasure to Mt. Tabor. We particularly need your gift of time to fill the many rosters of worship assistants to make our Sunday services work. Sign up sheets for April 2025 – March 2026 are on the bulletin board near the water fountain and on tables at the back of the sanctuary.

The biggest need is for assistants at the 11:00 service. Families are encouraged to take a month with youth serving as acolyte or crucifer and parents as ushers, lector, greeter, or communion assistant.

Training is provided for all positions so don't be shy about writing your name down.

Shepherd's Center of St. Andrews

Calling all seniors!

Are you interested in learning about the Golden Years of Hollywood; the real Jane Austen; The Tudors of England. Perhaps you might be interested in perfecting your watercolor skills or learning to play the ukulele.

Plus many other interests.

Please join us for “Adventures in Learning” at The Shepherd’s Center of St. Andrews held at 2600 Ashland Road, Columbia, South Carolina.

Winter session runs from January 21, 2025 - March 13, 2025.
