HUGS for the Homeless

Our Early Rising Men are taking donations again this year for the HUGS program. This program provides hats, underwear, gloves, socks, coats, umbrellas, ponchos, towels, washcloths, soap, toothbrushes, toothpaste and food for the homeless through several area shelters and recovery centers. We are nearing winter, and the cupboard is bare. Won't you consider helping "the least of these", our homeless brothers and sisters in the Midlands ask you to make a donation to our HUGS program.

For $25, you can provide a quilted vest, winter hat, ski gloves and socks for a homeless man or woman. Please make your check payable to Mt. Tabor and designate for HUGS.

Thanks for you support!

Live Nativity

Join us as we tell the story of Christmas.

If you want to drive by, you are welcome to do so. If you would like to park and fellowship, you are welcome to do so. If you would like to park and observe from the comfort of your car, you are welcome to do so.

The best way to drive by will be to approach the church on B Avenue from 9th Street, heading towards 12th. There will be parking designated for park and observe.

If you would like to park and fellowship, please be mindful and chat to the sides of the Nativity so those driving by and parking and observing can see. We also ask for you to park on the sides of the church so the front parking remains open.
