from the lips of sin - ners un - to whom he came,
all that is not ho - ly, all that is not true.

It is God's good plea - sure we should call him Lord, thrones and dom - i - na - tions, stars up - on their way, faith - ful - ly he bore it spot - less to the last;
Crown him as your cap - tain in temp - ta - tion's hour;
for all wreaths of em - pire meet up - on his brow, who from the be - gin - ning was the might - y Word.

all the heav'n - ly or - ders in their great ar - ray.
brought it back vic - to - rious when from death he passed.
let his will en - fold you in its light and pow'r.
and our hearts con - fess him king of glo - ry now.

Though dust and ash - es in your sight, we may, we must draw near.
And when to meet you we pre - pare, Lord, meet us on our way.
a strong de - sire, with con - fi - dence, to hear your voice and live;
to cast our hopes, to fix our eyes on Christ, on Christ a - lone.
we, through your Spir - it and your Son, shall pray, and pray a - right.

It features a vocal line with a melodic contour that rises and then falls, and a piano accompaniment of chords. The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature and time signature, providing a harmonic foundation with chords and some melodic movement.

set your seal up - on my heart and live in me.

The second system of music also consists of two staves. The upper staff continues the vocal line from the first system, ending with a final note and a fermata. The piano accompaniment continues with chords and a melodic line in the bass clef. The system concludes with a double bar line.
