All Glory, Laud, and Honor

Refrain

All glory, laud, and honor to you, redeemer, king,
to whom the lips of children made sweet hosannas ring.

1 You are the king of Israel and David’s royal Son,
2 The company of angels are praising you on high;
3 The multitude of pilgrims with palms before you went;
4 To you, before your passion, they sang their hymns of praise;
5 Their praises you accepted; accept the prayers we bring.

our praise and prayer and anthems before you we present.
To you, now high exalted, our melody we raise.
great author of all goodness, O good and gracious King.
Make Your Face to Shine
Haz resplandecer tu rostro
(Psalms 31)

Make your face to shine upon your servant, and in your loving-kindness save me. Make your salvame por tu misericordial Haz res--

These selected verses of Psalms 31 are slightly reordered here (as 16, 14-15) to give initial emphasis to the petition for God’s favor, expressed in the typical Hebraic image of a radiant face. That plea is then reinforced by affirmations of the psalmist’s unwavering trust in God.
Now Behold the Lamb

1 Now behold the Lamb, the precious Lamb of God, who bore all my sin, that I may live again: the precious Lamb of God.

2 Holy is the Lamb, the precious Lamb of God. Why you love me so, Lord, I shall never know; the precious Lamb of God.

3 Thank you for the Lamb, the precious Lamb of God. Because of your grace I can finish the race; the precious Lamb of God.
