Letting your light shine

Have you heard this song? It goes, “This little light of mine, I’m gonna let it shine.” Jeremiah let his light shine by telling everyone he met about God. You can let your light shine, too.

Color in the flame beside each way you can be a messenger of God’s love.

Dear God, please let my light shine when I share your love with others. Amen

This week

Invite a friend to come to church with you.

Fourth Sunday after Epiphany

gather

Welcome to worship. During the church season of Epiphany, we hear Bible stories about Jesus, who filled the world with the light of God’s love. Candles in our worship space remind us of that happy light. Do you see candles burning? Where are they?

Draw the candles you see inside the star.

What did you learn today in worship?

Jeremiah, one of God's messengers

Jeremiah 1:4-10

Jeremiah loved God, and God loved Jeremiah.

God said, "Jeremiah, I choose you to be my messenger to all the nations."

Jeremiah said, "Lord, I don't know what to say. I am only a boy."

God said, "Do not be afraid. I will be with you to protect you. I will give you the words to say."

Follow the arrows around and around until you reach the center of the circle. As you come to each letter, write it in order in a blank space below.

Jeremiah was _____

Welcoming others

God wants us to welcome everyone to worship. Here are some ways people welcome others to worship.

The pastor welcomes people visiting your church. Write Welcome! inside the cartoon balloon.

Ushers greet people, give them bulletins, and help them to find a place to sit. Draw bulletins in the usher's hand.

When people share the peace, they welcome each other with hugs, handshakes, and cheerful words. Add smiles to the people's faces.

How can you welcome someone at worship today?
