

MARCH 2021 (Continued)

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
28 Read and reflect on Mark 15:1-39.	29 O God, your Son chose the path that led to pain before joy and to the cross before glory. Plant his cross in our hearts, so that in its power and love we might come at last to joy and glory, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.	30 Lord Jesus, you have called us to follow you. Grant that our love might not grow cold in your service, and that we might not fail or deny you in the time of trial, for you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.	31 Gracious and holy God, lead us from death to life, from falsehood to truth, Lead us from despair to hope, from fear to trust. Lead us from hate to love, from war to peace. Let peace fill our hearts, our world, our universe; through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

ELCA World Hunger's <h1>40 DAYS of Giving</h1>				1 Gather all you've collected throughout your Lenten journey and add up your total gift to ELCA World Hunger. Make your donations online at ELCA.org/40Days or bring your gifts to your congregation. Thank you for working creatively and courageously toward a just world where all are fed.	2 "Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of our faith, who for the sake of the joy that was set before him endured the cross, disregarding its shame, and has taken his seat at the right hand of the throne of God" (Hebrews 12:1-2).	3 "Hope and freedom join the circle: Mary to the garden came, saw the radiance of the marvel, heard the Risen call her name; boldly may we heed Christ's call, step beyond the garden wall: beautiful the feed proceeding with good news of death's defeating." Christ is risen! Alleluia!

Read, reflect on and rejoice in Mark 16:1-8 or John 20:1-18.

WORSHIP: Begin your week with the word of God, preparing your heart and mind to learn more about what it means to hope during the season of Lent.

STUDY: Use ELCA World Hunger's 40 Days of Giving weekly Lenten study at home or with your church community to dive deeper into stories of hunger and hope this Lent. Download at ELCA.org/40Days.

REFLECT: Use these days to revisit and reflect on the weekly study readings, either in small groups or individually.

PRAY: Use the prayers of intercession shown throughout the calendar this Lent as, together, we humbly ask for God's care and blessing over all creation. Some prayers have been adapted from Sundays and Seasons (Augsburg Fortress, 2019).

GIVE: As you journey through Lent, consider the ways in which your own gifts to ELCA World Hunger can create hope throughout the world. Consider using a 40 Days of Giving jar, setting a specific goal amount (such as $2/day) or selecting one of the ideas shown through this calendar. See other ideas at ELCA.org/40Days.

HEAR: Read and reflect on each week's selected Bible verses on your own, with your family or with a small group, to listen to the word of God this Lent.

SING: To close each week — and to remind yourself of the salvation to come in the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ — read the included hymn text, either to yourself or out loud as a group, or consider singing the full hymn in your prayer group, Bible study or worship service.

Goal amount: $ _____

			17 Generous God, provide bread for people who are hungry, shelter for people who are homeless and protection for people who are vulnerable. Listen to the cries of all who are abused or imprisoned or who suffer due to pain, anxiety or illness. Hear us, O God. Your mercy is great.	18 Today would be a good day to set a goal for your giving to ELCA World Hunger as part of the 40 Days of Giving. That goal might be a specific dollar amount or one of the ideas shown throughout this calendar. Write it down on the line below and refer back to it throughout the season.	19 "So we are ambassadors for Christ, since God is appealing through us; we entreat you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. For our sake [God] made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God" (2 Corinthians 5:20-21).	20 "Longing for food, many are hungry. Longing for water, many still thirst. Make us your bread, broken for others, shared until all are fed. Christ be our light!" "Christ, Be Our Light" (ELW 715)
21 Read and reflect on Mark 1:9-15.	22 Being the church will require a definition of community that is more expansive, more diverse and more beautiful than we may imagine. Explore what this means with ELCA World Hunger in this week's study, "A Bigger 'We.'"	23 What does your church community look like? In what ways are people of every life journey invited to share their experience and ideas freely?	24 Gracious and loving God, through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, you bring light and life for all the world. Help us to listen, learn and love until your light and life fill every community. Hear us, O God. Your mercy is great.	25 Even before the COVID-19 pandemic, the rate of hunger around the world was on the rise after a decade of decline. Now, forecasts warn that hunger and poverty could increase with nearly unprecedented speed. A gift of $100 to ELCA World Hunger this season can make a difference in the lives of people experiencing hunger and poverty.	26 "Make me to know your ways, O Lord; teach me your paths. Lead me in your truth, and teach me, for you are the God of my salvation; for you I wait all day long" (Psalm 25:4-5).	27 "One bread, one body, one Lord of all; one cup of blessing which we bless, and we, though many throughout the earth, we are one body in this one Lord." "One Bread, One Body" (ELW 496)
28 Read and reflect on Mark 8:31-38.	 ELCA World Hunger Evangelical Lutheran Church in America God's work. Our hands.

MARCH 2021

ELCA World Hunger's 40 DAYS of Giving

	1 The honesty to which we are called forces us to confront the pain of the world with a vision to transform it. Read more in this week's study, "Honesty."	2 What are some things you hunger for that do not include food (such as companionship, love, acceptance)? How might you and your community provide these to feed people in mind, body and spirit?	3 Gracious and loving God, through the power of the cross and the glory of the empty tomb, you bring us the truth of your love for us and for all people. Help us to live into that truth and to share it with the world. Hear us, O God. Your mercy is great.	4 Around the world, 688 million people face hunger, and each of them has a story to tell. You can make a significant impact on someone's life with a gift of $2 a day. Consider setting aside that amount through the season to donate to ELCA World Hunger.	5 "Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable to you, O Lord, my rock and my redeemer" (Psalm 19:14).	6 "By your hand you feed your people, food of angels, heaven's bread. For these gifts we did not labor, by your grace we have been fed." "By Your Hand You Feed Your People" (ELW 469)
7 Read and reflect on John 2:13-22	8 Around the world, God is at work through communities driven by hope that things can change. Read more in this week's study, "Justice."	9 Where is there a need for justice in your community? What will a "just world" look like in your neighborhood?	10 Gracious and loving God, at the font you wash us in water and the word, and you name us all your beloved children. With that love, inspire our prayer, work and generosity, that all may have an abundance of clean, safe water. Hear us, O God. Your mercy is great.	11 A simple water well or other water point can help as many as 500 families gain access to clean, safe water. A gift of $250 can provide a share of a clean water project.	12 "In [Christ] we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of [God's] grace that [God] lavished on us" (Ephesians 1:7-8).	13 "Let justice flow like streams of sparkling water, pure, enabling growth, refreshing life, abundant, cleansing, sure." "Let righteousness roll on as others' cares we heed, an ever-flowing stream of faith translated into deed." "Let Justice Flow Like Streams" (ELW 717)
14 Read and reflect on John 3:14-21.	15 If we are going to end hunger, we need to invest in one another by sharing resources, listening to each other and building the relationships that will ensure justice in the world God has promised. Learn more in this week's study, "Investment."	16 Think, share or journal about a time when someone showed you kindness and mercy. What did you learn? How did it feel?	17 Covenant God, since ancient times you have led and fed your people through many wilderness journeys. In this time, give us strength to invest your gifts in our neighbors and communities, that all might be fed. Hear us, O God. Your mercy is great.	18 A woman might have the dream and skills to start her own small business, but with little savings or access to credit, getting started can be a challenge. A gift of $125 can fund a microloan , which can be just what a woman needs to start her business, creating a steady source of income and helping her family overcome poverty.	19 "O give thanks to the Lord, for [the Lord] is good; for [the Lord's] steadfast love endures forever. Let the redeemed of the Lord say so, those [the Lord] redeemed from trouble and gathered in from the lands, from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south" (Psalm 107:1-3).	20 "Crumble walls that still divide us; make us one in Christ our Lord." "God of Tempest, God of Whirlwind" (ELW 400)
21 Read and reflect on John 12:20-33.	22 Ending hunger takes action within community. It is fostered by the hope and trust that, with each step, God is moving our world closer to the goal of a world where all are fed. Read this week's study, "Action."	23 Where is there a need for action to end hunger in your community? What will it take to move this action forward?	24 God of promise, God of hope, God of fullness, God of peace, guide us, your people, to be your hands and feet, to work together as you build on our rocky soil a new, just world where all are fed. Hear us, O God. Your mercy is great.	25 Your gifts matter — in India, the United States, Colombia and other countries all around the world. Continue to learn more at ELCA.org/Hunger. Thank you.	26 "Such is the confidence that we have through Christ toward God. Not that we are competent of ourselves to claim anything as coming from us; our competence is from God, who has made us competent to be ministers of a new covenant, not of letter but of spirit; for the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life" (2 Corinthians 3:4-6).	27 "Toda la tierra espera al Salvador y el surco abierto, la abra del Señor; es el mundo que lucha por la libertad, reclama justicia y busca la verdad." "Toda la Tierra" (ELW 266) "All earth is hopeful, the Savior comes at last! Furrows lie open for God's creative task; this, the labor of people who struggle to see how God's truth and justice set ev'rybody free." "All Earth is Hopeful" (ELW 266)
