Advent Spiral and Longest Night Service

December 21st - Service Begins at Dusk

We are excited to offer an Advent Spiral and Longest Night Service this year to symbolize the journey towards the Light of Hope and the fulfillment of God's promises. Weather permitting, the Spiral will be in the park on the basketball court. The service will begin at dusk (approximately 5:20 pm). and will last about 30 minutes. This is the last service prior to Christmas Eve, providing an opportunity to embrace the four pillars of Advent - Hope, Peace, Joy and Love. We will have a brief service of readings and hymns, and then everyone will have the opportunity to place a candle in the spiral.

The Assembly Room will be open at 4:30 pm, providing cocoa and hot cider prior to the service. In case of inclement weather, the spiral and service will be moved to the Assembly Room.
