

5 THINGS
ABOUT US

REINTRODUCING TRANSFORMATIVE CHANGES

ABOUT US

Rooted in healing justice, racial equity, and community transformation, we defy the status quo by centering the leadership and aspirations of Black and Brown communities, including youth, in building systems of care that foster healing, justice and collective liberation.

Theory of Change

Pillars of Change

1

Healing-centered engagement centers community care, collective wellness, and joy as a vehicle for social change

2

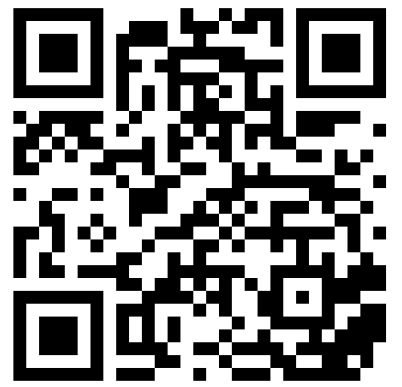

Healing-centered creativity creates space for self expression, community connectivity, and reflection on our customs and values as a society.

3

Healing-centered justice and liberation centers the people most impacted by the problems in the creation of solutions to create lasting positive impact.
