

Mr Kirubel Belay

Kirubel Belay is a multi-disciplinary artist based in London, UK. Movement, Choreography & Acting are Kirubel's primary practices, which are used as dominant instruments for expanding into various formats such as fashion styling, filmmaking, design, production and artist management.

Kirubel has harmonised the knowledge and experiences absorbed from his various disciplines, and is continuously cultivating all these skills towards his coordinated and coherent vision, working as a Creative Director and Image Architect.

He continues to be an advocate regarding a community outreach perspective and standing for the people and our youth. As well as being a trustee for Fanos, he has contributed to many other charitable and Humanitarian causes.

