

Mrs Rebecca Kiteessa Adam

Rebecca was born and raised in Ethiopia, she currently resides in the USA and is self-employed. She has lived in the United Kingdom and worked for Notting Hill Genesis Housing (non-profit organisation) as a Care Coordinator in extra care services. She also studied BTEC Business and Finance at Hackney Community College.

Rebecca completed and achieved in Health and Social Care L3 for Adults at National Vocational at Barlin Care Consultancy LTD and in Health and Social Care L2 for Adults at a National Vocational Qualification at BTAS (Business training and solutions).

She has always loved helping and supporting people because it reminds her of how amazing and exciting the world can be. Rebecca continues her work as a Trustee of Fanos Charity.

