

Mrs Zuzana Bardino

Zuzana Bardino works in the Global Engagement Department at the University of Westminster in London.

She also is a wife and a mother to a delightful little boy, Matteo, who's the biggest joy of her life.

She initially joined Fanos in 2003 as a sponsor of a little girl, but soon after was inspired about the wonderful work Fanos had been (and continues) doing for children and young people from unprivileged backgrounds.

Zuzana's sponsored child is now an adult, who graduated from a University, and now currently sponsors another 2 children. Soon after, in 2007 Zuzana joined as a Trustee and a Secretary, as part of the Fanos board of directors.
