

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

WHY PEOPLE SHOULD PREPARE THEIR WILL

Estate planning

Provides you with a good overview of what assets you have, and what is the best way to divide your estate

Autonomy

You hold the power to decide who should get what assets, upon your demise

Peace of mind

Knowing that you have made the necessary arrangements for your loved ones, the way you want to, takes the stress out of any last minute arrangements

WHY PEOPLE DON'T PREPARE THEIR WILL

Considerations

Some don't know where to start and are unsure of who or what should be included

Time

Many are unable to find time to sit down to think about the considerations, or even find the time to speak to someone to assist them

Unnecessary Cost

Drafting a Will may be perceived as an unnecessary cost, but you can't put a price on preparedness.

HOW CAN WE ASSIST YOU

Considerations

Who are your executors, beneficiaries, guardians and what assets do you have?

Time

We are happy to accomodate your timings should you wish to speak with us after your office hours

Unnecessary Cost

We try to keep costs as affordable as possible so that you know you haven't spent unnecessarily

WHAT SHOULD YOU CONSIDER?

EXECUTOR(S)

- How many executors do you want?
- Who is willing to be your executor?

ASSETS

- What assets do you have?
- Are you able to bequeath the assets listed in your Will?

BENEFICIARIES

- Who should your assets be gifted to?
- What percentage of your assets would go to a particular executor?

GUARDIAN(S)

- Do you have children below 21 years old?
- Who should their guardian(s) be in the event of your demise?
